What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit B.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement, license agreement and development agreement require you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in California. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in California than in your own state.
2. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ITEM 1

THE FRANCHISOR, AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

The franchisor is Qdoba Restaurant Corporation. To simplify the language in this disclosure document, “Qdoba,” “Company,” “us,” “we” or “our” means Qdoba Restaurant Corporation. “You” means the person or entity that buys the franchise.

Qdoba is a Colorado corporation. Qdoba conducts business under its corporate name and the trade name “Qdoba®,” “Qdoba Mexican Eats®,” “Qdoba Mexican Grill,” and variations on those names (collectively, “Qdoba”). Qdoba’s business address and official place of business is 350 Camino De La Reina, Suite 400, San Diego, California 92108. The addresses of Qdoba’s agents for service of process are listed on Exhibit C.

On March 21, 2018, all shares of stock in Qdoba Restaurant Corporation, a Colorado corporation, were purchased from Jack in the Box Inc. by Quidditch Acquisition, Inc. Previously, on September 27, 2015, Qdoba Restaurant Corporation, a Delaware corporation, merged into ZRC Operations Company, Inc., a Colorado corporation, and simultaneously changed its name to “Qdoba Restaurant Corporation.”

Through our predecessors, we have operated one or more Qdoba (formerly known as Zuma Fresh Mexican Grill and Z-TECA) restaurants since September 1995. We began offering franchises for sale in 1997.

Qdoba’s Business

Qdoba operates and offers franchises for the operation of high-quality, Mexican-themed quick-service or fast-casual restaurants. As of September 27, 2020, there were 741 Qdoba restaurants in the United States and Canada, of which 344 were company operated and 397 were franchised. Qdoba has not conducted business in any other line of business, and does not offer franchises in any other line of business.

Qdoba’s menu features Mexican-themed food items including burritos, tacos, wraps, salads, and quesadillas. All restaurants also offer chips and a variety of dips and sauces, including queso, guacamole, and salads, as well as a wide selection of soft drinks. Some restaurants also sell beer, margaritas, wine, and other offerings of alcoholic beverages.

Many menu items are priced pursuant to a tiered, all-inclusive pricing structure that we believe provides high value. Additionally, most menu orders are assembled to each customer’s specifications. The assembly starts with a steam table section that includes meats, rice, beans and other hot items, and ends with a refrigerated section that includes fresh salsas, lettuce, cheese, sour cream, guacamole and related toppings. Orders may be placed and fulfilled in the restaurant via the order line, drive-thru, pickup window, or curbside delivery, or through digital channels via our website, app, other digital channels, or delivery (either through us or a third party delivery company). Restaurants emphasize guest hospitality, which is a key element to success.

Qdoba restaurants are operated as part of a system that includes distinctive interior design, including: exhibition-style cooking; unique décor, color schemes and furnishings; uniform standards, specifications and procedures for operations; consistency and uniformity of products and services; a standardized, tiered pricing structure for many of our menu items; a catering program; procedures for quality control; training and assistance; and marketing and promotional programs (“System”). We will provide you new information about the System by means of confidential operating manuals (the “Manuals”), which are maintained primarily in electronic format.

We may require restaurants to offer a catering program, which involves take-out and delivery of larger quantities of products. Some restaurants serve beer, and in the future we may require franchisees to sell beer and other alcohol as well. If you sell beer or other alcohol, you will need to obtain a license to do so. State and local laws, regulations and ordinances vary significantly in the procedures, difficulty, and cost associated with obtaining a license to sell alcohol, the restrictions placed on the manner in which it may be sold, and the potential liability imposed by dram shop laws addressing injuries directly and indirectly related to the sale of alcohol and its consumption. You will need to understand and comply with those laws in operating the restaurant.

Qdoba restaurants may be established in a variety of locations. We have franchises in non-traditional locations, but most are in strip shopping centers and freestanding buildings. The restaurants are suited for both large and small urban areas, are approximately 1,500 to 3,000 square feet, and seat approximately 15-80 patrons (excluding patio seating, which varies by site). Each Qdoba restaurant competes directly and indirectly with a large number of national and regional restaurant chains, some of which have significantly greater financial resources than Qdoba, as well as with locally owned and/or independent restaurants in the fast-casual and quick-service segments of the restaurant industry. Each restaurant also competes with other “food away from home” consumer options and with grocery store prepackaged meals and similar offerings.

Before we will approve you to develop or operate a Qdoba restaurant, you must complete an application package for the type of site you want to operate and sign a non-disclosure agreement (Exhibit N). If you will be developing two or more Qdoba restaurants, you also must sign a Development Agreement (Exhibit F) and pay a Development Fee. You should not obtain any interest in a site for a Qdoba restaurant until you sign a Development Agreement (Exhibit F), a Franchise Agreement (Exhibit E-1), or a Nontraditional License Agreement (Exhibit E-2) with us and we have approved the site in writing. For each restaurant that you will operate (whether you are developing that restaurant or purchasing an existing restaurant from us), you also must sign a Franchise Agreement (Exhibit E-1) or a Nontraditional License Agreement (Exhibit E-2) and pay an Initial Franchise Fee. Your receipt of this disclosure document does not mean that you will be approved as a franchisee.

The restaurant business is highly competitive and is affected by changes in consumer preferences, national and regional economic, political, regulatory, and socioeconomic conditions, and changes in consumer dining habits, whether based on new information regarding diet, nutrition, or health, on the cost of food at home compared to food away from home, or other factors. Among the key elements of competition in the industry are menu innovation, execution of operational strategies and initiatives, price, service, quality, location, personnel, advertising, brand identification, and attractiveness of facilities.

When developing and operating a Qdoba restaurant, you must comply with all local, state and federal laws regarding health, sanitation, safety, fire, zoning, building, nutritional disclosures on menus and menu boards, labor and employment, privacy, and environmental issues, among others. We encourage you to research the specific laws, regulations, and ordinances that will apply to the Qdoba restaurant you might operate.

In 2020-21, due to the global coronavirus pandemic, some government agencies have ordered (or suggested) that certain restaurants temporarily close and only offer drive-through, carryout and delivery service or have otherwise severely limited clientele from patronizing restaurant businesses.

Single-Unit Franchise. Under our standard franchise agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”), we will grant to certain qualified people or entities franchises to own and operate a Qdoba restaurant at a location approved by us in accordance with the terms of the Franchise Agreement, offering the products and services approved by us, and utilizing our System and certain trademarks, service marks, and other commercial symbols (the “Marks”), including without limitation “Qdoba Mexican Eats®.” Your use of the Marks is subject to certain restrictions and approval by us (see Item 13 of this disclosure document).

Area Development Rights. Under our standard area development agreement (the “Development Agreement”), we also grant to certain qualified people or entities (each a “Developer”) the right, subject to certain terms and conditions, to develop two (2) or more Qdoba restaurant(s) within defined geographical areas (the “Development Area”).

If you are a Developer, you must open a minimum number of two (2) Qdoba restaurants (“Minimum Development Quota”) over a period of time determined by us on the basis of the market potential and size of the designated area, and as agreed upon by you. For each Qdoba restaurant you open in your Development Area, you will be obligated to sign our then-current form of Franchise Agreement and be subject to the rights and obligations contained in it, including our then-current fees and advertising expenditure requirements, which may differ from the current Franchise Agreement included with this disclosure document. Subject to certain exceptions, your right to develop Qdoba restaurants within the Development Area is protected during the term of the Development Agreement (see Item 12 of this disclosure document regarding development rights, obligations and limitations on exclusivity).

Non-Traditional and Licensed Locations. We may also offer Qdoba franchises, licenses, and similar arrangements at non-traditional locations, such as transportation facilities (airports, train or bus stations, turnpikes, or other limited access highway rest stops); colleges and universities; military installations; sports arenas and entertainment facilities; casinos; and within retail outlets, malls, grocery stores, and supermarkets. The standard terms and conditions of those arrangements are set out in the License Agreement (Exhibit E-2) but we may negotiate different or additional terms, depending upon the nature of the location.

Our Parents and Affiliates

Qdoba is a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Quidditch Acquisition, Inc., which is a Delaware corporation formed in December 2017 and has the same principal place of business as we do. Our other indirect parent companies are: Quidditch Holdings, Inc., Quidditch Parent, Inc., and Quidditch Topco, Inc., all Delaware corporations formed in December 2017 that have the same principal place of business as we do. Our parents have never offered franchises for any business nor conducted any other business operations.

On March 21, 2018, Quidditch Acquisition, Inc. acquired all shares of Qdoba Restaurant Corporation. Quidditch Acquisition, Inc. is indirectly owned, through various holding companies, by Apollo Global Management, LLC (“Apollo”). Apollo or its owners may in the future invest in other companies that offer franchises and/or own restaurant enterprises that may compete with the type business being franchised under this disclosure document.

Based on the common equity holders of Elysium Management on the one hand and of Apollo on the other hand, Qdoba may be deemed affiliated with Huddle House, Inc. (“HHI”) and Perkins LLC (“Perkins LLC”). Elysium Management, which indirectly owns HHI and Perkins LLC, is a family office whose principal business address is 445 Park Avenue, Suite 1401, New York, NY 10022. Elysium Management has never previously operated businesses of the type being franchised under this disclosure document or offered franchises in any line of business and does not currently provide products or services to any franchisees. HHI is the franchisor of the Huddle House franchise network. The principal business address for HHI is 5901-B Peachtree Dunwoody Road, Suite 450, Sandy Springs, Georgia 30328. HHI restaurants have been operated since 1964 and have been franchised since 1966. HHI offers franchises for operation of full service restaurants that serve all meals, during all hours of operation. As of April 28, 2020, there were 285 domestic franchised Huddle House restaurants in operation. Except as noted for Huddle House Restaurants, HHI has never offered franchises in any other line of business nor has conducted a business similar to the Qdoba restaurant you will operate. Perkins LLC is the franchisor of the Perkins family dining restaurants and bakeries. The principal business address for Perkins is 5901-B Peachtree Dunwoody Road, Suite 450, Sandy Springs, Georgia 30328. Perkins restaurants have been operated since 1958 and are family-style restaurants that offer table service with a menu offering breakfast, lunch, and dinner entrees and bakery items. As of April 28, 2020, there were 217 domestic franchised Perkins restaurants in operation, and 7 franchised Perkins restaurants in Canada. Except as noted for Perkins restaurants, Perkins LLC has never offered franchises in any other line of business nor has conducted a business similar to the Qdoba restaurant you will operate.

Qdoba currently has two affiliates that offer products or services to franchisees or sells franchises:

(1) QMG Stored Value Cards, LLC is a Virginia limited liability company that facilitates our Q-card spending card program. QMG Stored Value Cards, LLC has never offered franchises in any line of business and is not engaged in any other business. The principal business address of QMG Stored Value Cards, LLC is the same as ours.

(2) Qdoba of Canada, Inc. was formed to sell Qdoba franchises in Canada. It began selling franchises in August 2011 and as of September 27, 2020, 11 restaurants were open in Canada. Its first franchise opened December 3, 2012. Qdoba of Canada, Inc. does not operate restaurants. The principal business address of Qdoba of Canada, Inc. is the same as ours. Qdoba of Canada, Inc. has never offered franchises in any other line of business and is not engaged in any other business.

ITEM 5 INITIAL FEES

When you sign a Development Agreement, you may be required to pay a nonrefundable development fee for each site to be developed and opened under the Development Agreement ("Development Fee"). The standard per-site Development Fee is $10,000 for each restaurant to be developed by you. The minimum development commitment under the Development Agreement is 2 restaurants. During the last fiscal year, developers who entered into Development Agreements paid Development Fees of $0 to $10,000 per site. The Development Fees may be credited toward the Franchise Fee for each site developed under, and in full compliance with, a Development Agreement.

The Company will not grant a Development Agreement to an existing franchisee unless certain conditions are met. The conditions may require significant financial contributions. We currently require that any existing franchisee be in compliance with our system standards. We may also require the franchisee, its owners, and the franchisee's wholly owned entities to sign a general release in favor of the Company as a condition to entering into a Development Agreement. The standard general release currently in use is attached as Exhibit K. The form of general release may change over time, for particular transactions, or for particular states. The conditions under which we may grant a Development Agreement will vary over time, and others may be added.

Franchise Fee

When you sign a Franchise Agreement or License Agreement, you must pay the Company a nonrefundable initial franchise fee ("Franchise Fee"). The Franchise Fee for traditional units is $30,000 and the Franchise Fee for Non-Traditional units is $15,000, plus any tax or other fees imposed on the Company due to the collection of the Franchise Fee. If your franchise term is for fewer than the standard ten years, the Franchise Fee is $3,000 for each year or partial year in excess of six months. If the restaurant is developed in full compliance with the terms of a Development Agreement, the Development Fee of $10,000 may be applied toward the Franchise Fee. The Franchise Fee is fully earned when paid. In part, the fees compensate us for, and defray costs incurred in connection with, marketing sales of franchise units, screening prospective franchisees, ensuring compliance with applicable laws relating to the offer and sale of franchises, providing initial training and supervision, and related expenditures.

VetFran Program

If you provide us with adequate documentation demonstrating an honorable discharge from the United States military, we will reduce your Initial Franchise Fee by $10,000.

During the last fiscal year, franchisees paid $0 to $30,000 for the Franchise Fee.

Notes

- (1) No portion of the initial investment that is paid to Qdoba is refundable. Calculations regarding estimates for leasehold improvements, building construction and site work are based upon restaurants of 2,200 to 3,000 square feet, using our current design elements. We continue to refine and value-engineer that design. We do not finance any portion of the initial investment.
- (2) This Franchise Fee is for one franchise entered into under a Franchise Agreement or License Agreement. See Item 5 of this disclosure document for a more detailed description of franchise fees. We reserve the right to charge a different fee for non-traditional sites (as more fully described in Item 5 of this disclosure document).
- (3) Costs incurred for the preparation of the necessary tenant improvement construction documents will vary depending on the services provided and the professionals selected by you. You may also incur legal fees for assistance in negotiating leases and advice on issues relating to the opening of your units. These fees will also vary depending upon the services provided and the professionals selected by you.
- (4) The cost of leasehold improvements will vary depending on the facility selected and the region or market you are in. These leasehold improvement costs assume that the space will already include the requirements described in Qdoba's standard landlord work letter. If the space is delivered AS-IS, the leasehold improvement costs will likely be higher. A landlord improvement allowance may also be obtained that reduces the cost of leasehold improvements.

- (5) You must lease or purchase the following items, among others: signs; kitchen equipment package, display stands, interior decor package (tables; chairs; accessories; paneling; lighting; ceiling, window, and floor treatments; and artifacts), and decorations.
- (6) Systems include the following items that you must lease or purchase: phones, point of sale software, payment terminals and registers, printers, network infrastructure equipment, web-based mobile training device(s), computer equipment, security system, safe, Q card system, and music system.
- (7) You will be required to purchase certain recipe items, as specified by us, which constitute key components of the System. Also included in this number are the opening food inventory, uniforms, smallwares, first aid supplies, office supplies, initial cleaning supplies, gift cards, menu boards, and other printed items and opening cash drawer.
- (8) The travel and living expenses for trainees will depend upon factors such as travel distance, quality of accommodations, transportation costs, wages, and per diem allotment. In our experience, these costs vary widely based upon personal preferences of the attendees; therefore, we have not provided a cost estimate. Please research costs required to attend our training according to your unique circumstances and/or preferences.
- (9) Under a Franchise Agreement, we require you to spend up to $5,000 for grand opening advertising, but you may spend more. Under a License agreement, you are not required to spend any minimum on grand opening advertising.
- (10) These figures are estimates for general liability and property coverage only. They exclude costs for builder's risk insurance, workers compensation insurance, business automobile insurance, earthquake and flood insurance, and other types of insurance, due to the great variation in such costs. Insurance costs vary depending upon several factors, including type of site (stand-alone or in-line site), location, construction type, loss history, whether fire hazard protection is purchased, sales, market, payroll, workers compensation rates, number of locations, number of vehicles, radius of vehicle operations, type of vehicle, and DMV history, among other factors.
- (11) Liquor licensing costs vary widely. Please research costs in your jurisdiction.
- (12) The cost to purchase or lease real estate will vary depending on factors such as the location of the property, the condition of the local real estate market, the ability to negotiate favorable terms of sale or lease, current economic conditions, etc. Most franchisees lease rather than purchase, and most franchised locations are in-line or end cap real estate space (as opposed to freestanding locations).
- (13) The amount of additional funds you will need will depend on the time necessary to achieve cash flow to cover operating expenses. This amount is the minimum recommended for a three-(3) month contingency.
- (14) We have compiled these estimates based on our actual and expected costs in Company markets across the United States. Costs may vary widely depending upon your restaurant location, sales volume, staffing choices, management skill and experience, economic conditions, labor market, and competition.
- (15) Your estimated initial investment under the Development Agreement will vary depending on the number of restaurants you develop. The estimated initial investment chart reflects the minimum number of two (2) development commitments. No part of this initial investment is refundable, although we will apply the applicable portion of the Development Fee towards the Initial Franchise Fee owed under each Franchise Agreement that the Development Agreement covers. The initial estimated cost for each restaurant developed under the Development Agreement is currently $475,500 to $1,095,000, as set forth in the chart for the Franchise Agreement; but we reduced that amount by $30,000 for each restaurant because the Franchise Fee is reflected in the table for the estimated investment for the Development Agreement.
- (16) This number is based upon the high and low ranges from the Traditional Qdoba Restaurant table above, minus $60,000 in Initial Franchise Fees.

You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decisions to purchase the franchise.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Goods and Services that must be Purchased or Leased from the Company, its Designee or Approved Suppliers, or Under the Company's Specifications

All food and beverage products served at our restaurants, as well as items that are used in connection with the preparation of those products, must meet our food safety and quality standards. Many of those products are manufactured under proprietary formulae and processes. The reputation and goodwill of Qdoba restaurants are based, in part, upon our restaurants serving safely-prepared and distinctive food and beverage products. Therefore, the food and beverage products you serve at your restaurant, as well as the items you use to prepare and serve those products, must meet our specifications and must be produced and distributed only by suppliers and distributors approved by us.

The Company and all of its franchisees have contracted to purchase their food and beverage products through a single network of distributors. The distributors in that network purchase products from approved suppliers, then resell the products to the Company and franchisees. The Company performs certain supply chain-related services relating to the distribution of product to the restaurants. For example, the Company negotiates price and certain other contract terms with the suppliers who sell to network distributors; conducts food safety testing, inspection, and remediation activities; conducts and/or manages product quality tests, rollouts and product obsolescence activities; conducts pricing validation; reviews distribution charges and performance; and participates in distribution councils and dispute resolutions.

We have standards and specifications relating to, among other things, the signage, fixtures, furniture, equipment, décor, computer/POS hardware and software, and related items at Qdoba restaurants. In most cases, you will select from a list of approved suppliers to purchase those items.

Approved Suppliers. We will provide you the names of approved suppliers upon request. Currently, the Company is not an approved supplier of any products that are necessary to operate a Qdoba franchise.

None of the officers of Qdoba own a substantial interest in any of our approved suppliers.

If you want to add a supplier to our approved supplier list, you must follow the procedure discussed in Section 13 of the Franchise Agreement. You will be required to provide us with the proposed supplier's name and address, a list of the items you want to purchase from that supplier, and all other information that we require. Our approval will be conditioned upon, among other things, the supplier agreeing in writing not to disclose any of our confidential information, complying faithfully with our specifications, allowing third-party food safety audits of its facilities, allowing unrestricted access for our technical staff to inspect its facilities and programs, submitting annual audit and corrective action reports to us, complying with our product sampling requirements and microbiological surveillance programs, selling our proprietary and trademarked items only to our franchisees, demonstrating to our reasonable satisfaction that it is able to supply product meeting our specifications on a continuing basis, and showing that it is of good standing in the business community with respect to its financial soundness and the reliability of its product.

and service. We will require the new supplier to cover the reasonable costs and expenses we incur in inspecting their facilities and food safety programs (including travel-related expenses), testing their products, and coordinating product rollouts with them. We may limit the number of approved suppliers for any given item. We generally make a determination on the approval or disapproval of new suppliers within three to six months, although that time frame can vary depending on the circumstances; however, we reserve the right to later withdraw approval. We will approve, disapprove and withdraw our approval of any supplier by written notice to the supplier.

Specifications. The Company does not typically issue specifications directly to franchisees for food and beverage products, chemicals, packaging, smallwares, uniforms, signage, fixtures, furniture, and equipment. In the past, we have provided franchisees with a summary of the specification criteria, and we may choose to provide this information in our sole discretion, as appropriate. The specifications are maintained in writing (in the format the Company designates, which may be hard copy or electronic copy) and provided to the approved suppliers. If an item must be purchased only from an approved supplier, the specifications will only be made available to the approved suppliers. If an item may be purchased from any source, the specifications for that item will be provided directly to franchisees. The Company may change approved suppliers at any time.

The Company's Revenue from Franchisees' Purchases. Other than the Supply Chain Fee, Customer Fund Fee, and the supplier rebates each described below, the Company did not receive any revenue from products and services purchased or leased by franchisees (including any income the Company received based on franchisees' purchases or leases from third parties).

The Company collects a fee for the services it provides relating to supply chain activities ("Supply Chain Fee"). The amount of the Supply Chain Fee will be determined each year by the Company in consultation with a Supply Chain Management Committee. In fiscal year 2021, the per-unit charge is fourteen cents ($0.14) (a unit is a case of goods sold through the distribution network). The Supply Chain Fee is collected by the third-party distributors in connection with sales to both franchised and Company restaurants and is forwarded on to us. In fiscal year 2020, the Company received total Supply Chain Fees of approximately $780,000.

We estimate that your required purchases and leases (i.e., purchases and leases from our approved suppliers) will represent between fifty percent (50%) and ninety percent (90%) of your overall purchases and leases in establishing your restaurant. We estimate that your required purchases and leases will be approximately forty percent (40%) of your overall purchases and leases in operating your restaurant.

Certain suppliers provide us with marketing allowances, rebates, or similar funds based on the volume of product purchased by Qdoba restaurants through our distributor network. If a supplier provides us funds with the intention that they be used for marketing, those funds are put into the Marketing Fund. During our last fiscal year, the Company received funds with an approximate value of $17,000 from suppliers. All such funds were contributed to the Marketing Fund. The Company also received supplier rebates of $10,341 in our last fiscal year, all of which were or will soon be distributed to company and franchise stores on a pro rata basis.

The Company collects a fee to cover any write-off of obsolete inventory at the end of a promotion or in the event of menu item deletions ("Customer Fund Fee"). The amount of the Customer Fund fee is determined each year by the Company in consultation with the Supply Chain Management Committee. This fee is currently a per-unit charge of $0.03 (a unit is a case of goods sold through the distributors). The fee is collected by distributors in connection with sales to both franchised and company owned restaurants. We reconcile the Customer Fund every period and, at the end of each fiscal year, remaining funds are returned to the franchised and company units on a pro-rata basis, net of any agreed-upon reserve. In fiscal year 2020, the Company received total Customer Fund Fees of approximately $185,000, a large portion of which was returned to franchisees on a pro rata basis.

Purchases from Suppliers. There are no purchasing or distribution cooperatives. As stated above, the Company negotiates price and certain other contract terms with the suppliers who sell to network distributors. The Company may also negotiate prices on certain other items, and may ask the supplier to offer the same price to franchisees.

Benefits Granted to Franchisees. Franchisees do not receive any material benefits from us based on their purchase of particular products or services, or their use of particular suppliers.

Insurance. You must obtain and maintain, at your sole expense, all of the insurance coverage that the Company requires. Company may place restrictions or requirements on the insurance you must purchase, which can be modified from time to time.

ITEM 10 FINANCING

We do not offer financing in connection with the establishment or operation of new franchised restaurants. We do not guarantee your lease or any note or other obligation you may incur.

The Franchise Agreement gives us a first-priority security interest in the business assets of your Qdoba restaurant in order to secure payment of all amounts that you may owe to us under the Franchise Agreement and any other agreements you may have with us. Granting us a security interest in these assets may impair your ability to obtain financing from other potential lenders. In order to facilitate your efforts to obtain financing, we may agree to subordinate our security interest to the security interest of another lender, but only under certain conditions.

ITEM 11 FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

A. Our Pre-Opening Obligations. Before you begin operation of the restaurant, we are required to provide the following assistance to you:

Site Selection and Acceptance: Our only obligation regarding site selection is to accept or refuse to accept the site you propose (Franchise Agreement, Section 4). The main criteria we use to evaluate sites are discussed below.

Before acquiring a site for the restaurant, whether through lease, purchase or otherwise, you must apply for and obtain our written acceptance of the site. To request site acceptance, you must complete and submit our form of Real Estate Committee Submittal Package, and such other information and materials as we may reasonably require, together with a letter of intent or other evidence satisfactory to us confirming your favorable prospects for obtaining the site. (If the premises will be leased, you may also be required to submit to us evidence that the lease contains the terms and conditions discussed in Section 5 of the Franchise Agreement.) There is no time limit for our acceptance, but we will use good faith efforts to accept or reject your site within forty-five (45) days. If you have not obtained possession of the accepted site within one-hundred twenty (120) days of receiving our acceptance, we have the right to withdraw such acceptance. No site will be deemed accepted unless it has been expressly accepted in writing by us.

Some of the factors we might consider in assessing a site include general location and neighborhood, population, traffic patterns, parking, size, physical characteristics of existing buildings, and other businesses in the area.

If we do not accept the site you have chosen, you will not be permitted to open your restaurant at that site, but we will review other sites that you present to us. If no site is agreed upon by the date your Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement requires you to open the site, we have the right to terminate that agreement and you will not be entitled to a refund of any fees.

If you will be developing a Qdoba restaurant under a Development Agreement, you must provide us a market development plan for the trade areas within your Development Area. The market plan must include all relevant trade area information, including, at a minimum, residential population, daytime population, total business, median household incomes, income growth, per capita income, and population growth, all according to our requirements as modified from time to time. You must also provide a map showing trade areas within the Development Area, and plotting all malls, power centers, grocery stores, and food service establishments. No sites will be accepted until the market plan is submitted and reviewed.

Design and Construction of the Restaurant: We must approve the concept plan, which is a general overview of how you will build out the Accepted Location. After that initial approval, we will provide you and your architect with access to a fully coordinated set of prototype plans and other design resources that you can adapt to the site and then develop a schematic design and all necessary construction documents. Additionally, we will approve or disapprove the final construction plans submitted to us by your architect before the plans are submitted for permits (Franchise Agreement, Section 6). You must ensure that the premises conform to all local ordinances and building codes, and obtain all necessary permits. You must also ensure that the premises are finished in accordance with our design and décor standards.

Initial Training: After the site is approved but before the restaurant is opened, we will provide an initial training program for your Designated Operator (“DO”), your General Manager, and one other person employed in the restaurant. For further information about our training, see Section F below. You are responsible for training any of your other employees.

Equipment, Signage, Fixtures, Operating Inventory and Supplies: Regarding equipment, signage, fixtures, operating inventory, and supplies, we only provide you with updated specifications for the items you are required to use in your restaurant. We do not provide any other assistance with providing equipment, signage, fixtures, operating inventory and supplies, and there are no contractual limitations on the frequency or cost of upgrades.

Supervision Before and During Opening: We will provide the on-site pre-opening and opening assistance we deem advisable for the first two restaurants you open, subject to the availability of Company personnel (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.1.).

Manuals: We will provide you with a copy of our most recent confidential operating manuals (collectively, the “Manuals”) in any manner we choose. Currently, we make the Manuals available to you through the Qdoba Training System. Exhibit H to this disclosure document sets forth the table of contents of the Manual as of the date of this disclosure document, the number of pages devoted to each subject, and the total number of pages in that manual (which is 379 pages). Specifications for products, fixtures, furniture, and equipment are not typically provided to franchisees, but are provided to approved suppliers.

B. Time of Opening. We estimate the time from acceptance of the site to the commencement of restaurant operations in an existing structure converted to the Qdoba system is typically five (5) months to eighteen (18) months, depending on several factors (however, non-traditional restaurant sites may take longer). This overall development timeline will vary depending on the time necessary to lease the site, obtain financing, complete preparation of the construction documents, obtain the necessary permits and licenses for the construction and operation of the restaurant, address the condition of the existing space and its infrastructure, address the complexity of your proposed construction, and secure the required municipal inspections. None of these factors are within our control (Franchise Agreement, Sections 6, and 7).

C. Our Continuing Obligations. During your operation of the restaurant, we are required to provide the following assistance to you:

Management and Operating Techniques: We, in our discretion, will provide you, from time to time, advice and written materials concerning techniques of managing and operating the restaurant, including new developments and improvements in restaurant equipment, food products, packaging, and preparation (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.3, License Agreement, Section 6). We will not provide you direction regarding personnel, safety, or security matters.

Sample Accounting Materials: We may provide you with samples of the standardized chart of accounts, statement of earnings, and balance sheet, and require use of these in the operation of your business.

Inspections: We will conduct inspections of your restaurant and evaluations of the products sold and services rendered at the restaurant, as we deem advisable (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.4, 15, and 18, License Agreement, Section 8.D).

Ongoing Training: The DO, General Manager and/or certain other employees must attend such refresher courses, seminars and other training programs as we may reasonably require from time to time. We may charge a reasonable fee for such programs (currently up to $1,000 per trainee for each refresher course, seminar, or program). The cost of all travel, lodging, meals, training materials, and any trainee salary expenses associated with refresher courses will be your responsibility (Franchise Agreement, Section 8.).

Updated Standards: We will continue to make the Manuals available to you through the Qdoba Training System as updated. We will also continue to provide to you an updated list of approved suppliers (Franchise Agreement, Sections 9.2 and 13.2, License Agreement, Section 5.A).

D. Advertising. Marketing Fund. As discussed in Item 6 of this disclosure document under the heading “Marketing Fees,” and Section 14 of the Franchise Agreement, we have established a fund for the building of brand awareness, production of advertisements, marketing material and other marketing-related services for the System (“Marketing Fund”).

The Marketing Fund is maintained and administered by us. We produce or oversee the production of all marketing and promotional programs, with sole discretion to approve or disapprove the creative concepts, materials, and media used in such programs and in the placement and allocation of them. This includes local and regional advertising in electronic and print media and on the internet. The Marketing Fund is used to maximize general public recognition and acceptance of the proprietary Marks for the benefit of the System. We have no obligation to make expenditures for you that are equal or proportionate to your contribution, or to ensure that any particular franchisee benefits directly or pro rata from expenditures by the Marketing Fund.

We have a Marketing Advisory Committee comprised of corporate employees and franchisees we select. The council serves purely in an advisory capacity, and we may dissolve the council at our discretion.

If you operate a traditional Qdoba restaurant, you will be required to make weekly advertising contributions to the Marketing Fund in an amount of one and a quarter percent (1.25%) of the Gross Sales (as defined in the Franchise Agreement) from your restaurant. We may increase the rate by a half percent (0.5%) of Gross Sales in any 12-month period, up to a maximum of four percent (4%). Increases above four percent (4%) require approval by majority vote of system restaurants. Contributions from non-traditional sites may be less. Qdoba will make contributions to the Marketing Fund on behalf of restaurants it operates on the same basis as assessments required of the majority of traditional franchised restaurants (Franchise Agreement, Section 14.1.1.).

We will use marketing contributions exclusively to maintain and administer the Marketing Fund, and to direct, prepare, and engage in advertising, promotions, and other marketing-related activities, including, among other things: preparing and conducting digital, social, television, radio, magazine, and newspaper advertising campaigns; purchasing digital, social, radio, television, magazine, newspaper, and other media for the distribution of advertising campaigns; advertising through direct mail and outdoor billboards; preparing and conducting marketing/brand surveys and research; public relations activities; research, development and testing of products, and packaging; brand positioning; preparing and executing e-mail and internet-based marketing programs; creating, administering, and maintaining customer loyalty programs; creating, administering, and maintaining web-based applications; employing advertising, public relations, branding, and other professional consultants; and providing point-of-purchase collateral and other marketing materials for the restaurants operated under the System (Franchise Agreement, Section 14.1.4.). This includes defraying our reasonable salaries, expenses and administrative costs and overhead, if any, as we may incur in activities reasonably related to the activities described above. In our discretion, we may directly pass through to the Marketing Fund those administrative costs and salaries, or we may charge the Marketing Fund a reasonable administrative fee calculated as a percentage of the contributions to the Marketing Fund. The Marketing Fund will not otherwise inure to our exclusive benefit.

Contributions to the Marketing Fund are not used to advertise for the sale of franchises.

Generally, all contributions to the Marketing Fund are spent during the fiscal year within which such contributions are received. If excess funds remain in the Marketing Fund at the end of a fiscal year, all expenditures in the following fiscal year(s) will be made first out of excess funds from previous years, next out of funds in the current year, and finally from contributions.

All sums paid into the Marketing Fund are accounted separately from other accounts. The statement of the sources and uses of the Marketing Fund will be reviewed annually by us, and made available upon request to the franchisees. The Marketing Fund is not independently audited. During fiscal year 2020, approximately 9.4% of the Marketing Fund was spent on production (i.e., production of various advertising assets, marketing materials, POP, website, social media campaigns, public relations, photography, etc.); approximately 27.7% was spent on media placement (i.e., digital, public relations, and email and CRM, etc.); approximately 30.6% was spent on other expenses (i.e., Mobile App and Website, consumer research, Voice of Guest program, social listening tools, local optimization, R&D, consumer insights, etc.); and approximately 32.3% was spent on administrative expenses. The Marketing Fund had a surplus for the last fiscal year in the amount of $56,000.

Although the Marketing Fund is intended to be of perpetual duration, we have the right to terminate the Marketing Fund at our sole discretion. The Marketing Fund will not be terminated, however, until all monies in the Marketing Fund have been expended for marketing and/or promotional purposes, or refunded to franchisees and company-owned restaurants pro rata (Franchise Agreement, Section 14.1.8.).

Marketing Advisory Council. We have created a Marketing Advisory Council to enhance the working relationship between Qdoba and our franchisees. The Council is composed of franchisees that are elected by the franchise community and our employees. Qdoba reserves the right to change or dissolve the Marketing Advisory Council.

Local Advertising. If you operate at a traditional site, you will be required to spend up to $5,000 on grand opening advertising. Additionally, on an ongoing basis, you are also required to spend a percentage of Gross Sales on local advertising, currently set at 1.75%. You are responsible for the cost of the placement of such advertising with various media. You may develop advertising material for your own use at your own cost; however, before you may use any such advertising material, in whatever form or medium, including the internet, you must obtain our prior written approval of the material (Franchise Agreement, Section 14.2.).

We are not required to spend any amount on advertising in your area or territory.

Gift Card, Loyalty, or Similar Programs. You must participate in any gift card, loyalty, or similar programs required by the Company. In connection with these programs, you will be required to sign certain participation agreements and other agreements (current Stored Value Card Service Agreement (Exhibit O)) and pay fees to the company or to third parties and purchase hardware and/or software from the vendors the Company designates.

Web-Based Applications. You must comply with all mobile app, social media, and other technology-related standards and procedures, as they are established and modified from time to time by the Company.

Advertising Cooperative. Although we currently have no advertising cooperatives, we have the right to designate any geographical area for the purpose of establishing such a cooperative for traditional Qdoba restaurants and to require you to participate in such a cooperative. We may change the geographic area for a cooperative, or merge or dissolve a cooperative. If such a cooperative is established, all restaurants in the geographic area would be required to contribute up to two percent (2%) of their Gross Sales to the cooperative. That contribution would be credited toward your local advertising obligation. If a cooperative is established in your area after you commence operation under the Franchise Agreement, you must become a member of the cooperative not later than thirty (30) days after the cooperative commences operation (Franchise Agreement, Section 14.3.). Cooperatives would operate under written governing documents, and would be under our general administration.

E. Computer Systems. You must use a computer system we specify, which includes, but is not limited, to the items described below (Franchise Agreement, Section 12, License Agreement, Section 5.E). These requirements may change in the future.

(a) POS software - A point-of-sale ("POS") system that is integrated with a Windows-based PC system and allows a cashier to ring in and tender sales transactions. The POS software interfaces with company-specified software modules that include credit card processing software, an integrated guest loyalty system, and an online ordering system. The POS System is used to collect data on sales, product mix, and inventory, among other things. You are required to run an approved Payment Application Data Security Standard ("PA-DSS") version of POS software. Approved versions will reach an end to their useful life and will have to be replaced periodically as we direct. Software maintenance must be maintained continuously to allow for required version updates and ongoing PA-DSS compliance. We have no obligation to provide any ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades, or updates for you. We may, however, provide such maintenance services at our discretion. If these services are provided, the cost is covered by the Master Technology Agreement annual fee.

(b) POS hardware - The current standard for POS hardware is as follows: at least one (1) POS terminal with a Capacitive Touchscreen and 4GB RAM running the Windows POS Ready 7 operating system for the service counter. The current standard for the back office file server is a Dell Optiplex with 4GB RAM running Windows 7 Professional operating system. The back office file server and POS terminals must both run the POS system point-of-sale software that Qdoba describes. Various peripheral hardware components, required for completion of POS transactions, are also considered part of the current standard. Approved hardware will reach an end to its useful life and will have to be replaced periodically as we direct.

(c) Secure access or similar remote access software as we direct - Remote access software allows a person who is not physically near a computer to connect and control the computer via an Internet connection. While we need to have remote access to your systems for various reasons, the software and access to use this software will be limited to authorized users designated by the Company. You may not install any other remote access software or attempt to connect to your computers remotely without written permission from the Company.

(d) Sales reporting ("Polling") software - Qdoba uses centralized polling software to transfer information from the franchisees' computerized point-of-sale devices. Client software must be installed on your computer system for polling functionality. You must pay a one-time license and configuration charge for this software.

(e) QRC Standardized Network - The network includes broadband connection, managed firewall and network switch, security services, private Wi-Fi, Public Wi-Fi, IoT Wi-Fi, and, if selected, back up network (4G) connectivity. The fees are between $161 and $540 per month, plus a universal service fee for setup by the vendor. A purchase option is available, which will require an initial investment of approximately $2,200-$2,800. The equipment and services are provided by Hughes Network Services. Licensed or non-traditional locations and certain other locations are exempt from this requirement.

(f) Antivirus software - This software protects the local computer from viruses and other threats perpetuated on the internet. This must not be disabled.

(g) Web-based training device - The current standard is a Wi-Fi enabled iPad Air with 4GB+/64GB+. The Company may require franchisees and certain employees to complete training using tablets.

We reserve the right to require you to purchase or lease any or all of these items from a particular supplier. If we require you to purchase or lease any such system from a third party, we may require that any assistance or support relating to such system be provided by a third party and not by us. The estimated cost of purchasing a POS system is approximately $20,000 - $32,000 depending upon the amount of equipment purchased and the configuration. Continuous software maintenance coverage is required on your POS system software. Cost for this coverage is recurring and will vary depending on the amount of equipment purchased and the configuration. We also require the right to independently access your system and all information and data that is electronically collected on the system (Franchise Agreement, Sections 9, 12, 13, and 24.).

We may require you to add hardware or software, and/or update or upgrade the computer and POS equipment, during the term of your franchise agreement to meet operational and compliance-related needs. There are no contractual limitations on the frequency or cost of computer and POS upgrades. We estimate that the average annual cost for maintaining, upgrading, updating, and supporting your systems is less than $16,000 per restaurant.

In addition, you are required to maintain full compliance with the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI-DSS) and to prove your compliance by providing to us an executed copy of the PCI self-assessment questionnaire or the PCI report on compliance, whichever is appropriate, on an annual basis.

F. Training. The DO, General Manager and a third person designated by you (such as an assistant manager) must attend our training programs, and all training must be completed before opening. The DO program is scheduled based on need, is approximately eight (8) weeks (360 hours) long, contingent on role, experience, speed to proficiency, and begins with an orientation at a certified training location to be determined by us. Of the 360 hours, approximately 100% is spent in restaurant. The DO must attend on-the-job training at a certified training restaurant. Approximately 28 weeks before the scheduled opening of your restaurant, we will begin training the DO. The General Manager program is scheduled based on need, is approximately seven (7) weeks (315 hours) long, contingent on experience and speed to proficiency, and begins with an orientation at a certified training location to be determined by us. Of the 315 hours, approximately 100% is spent in restaurant. Your General Manager should begin training at least 12 weeks before the opening of your restaurant. A third person should begin training at least 12 weeks before the restaurant opens. All such persons must attend and complete the training program to our satisfaction in order for you to open a Qdoba restaurant.

We do not charge you for the three franchisee employees to attend the training program. All trainer wages and materials are paid for by us. All wages, travel, and living expenses for your employees who attend the training are your responsibility. If we provide training in excess of the standard training program, we may charge a reasonable fee for the training and materials (currently up to $1,500 per trainee).

The instructional material for the training program is based on the Manuals and Qdoba Training System, both of which will be made available through portal access, digital offering, or, at your cost, our preferred printing vendor. The Company may require training to be completed using a tablet or similar device. The training program outlines the necessary restaurant operational knowledge to help build new skills and refine current talents. It allows the restaurant leaders to evaluate, certify, and confirm progress. The training materials for Management Training describe various positional training needed to effectively manage a restaurant, including: Cook, Line Server, Delivery Driver, and Shift Runner. Additional content provides management-level training for a Management Trainee, Assistant Manager, and General Manager.

The training program is under the general direction of Kyle Moses, who has been Director, Training and Development since February 2018. He was Senior Manager, Brand Performance Support from April 2017 to February 2018, Director of Operations from October 2016 to April 2017; and District Manager from May 2012 to October 2016. Mr. Moses has at least 12 years' experience working in training positions with Qdoba. Below where it says "Restaurant," the training will be conducted at a company operated certified Qdoba training restaurant, chosen at Qdoba's sole discretion.

The training hours listed are an estimate based on our expectations of what a typical prospective franchisee might require. However, because the Company's training program is proficiency-based and not time-based, the actual time needed to demonstrate proficiency in each training area may vary, and you may require less or more time training than listed here.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

You will not receive an exclusive territory under our Development Agreement or our Franchise Agreement. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution of competitive brands that we control. Under both our Development Agreement and Franchise Agreement, we may grant you a protected territory, but some areas or sites may be carved out of that territory, as discussed below.

Development Agreement. The Development Agreement grants you certain rights (as described below) within a designated geographical area (the "Development Area"). The Development Area is described in an exhibit attached to the Development Agreement. The size of the designated Development Area will vary depending on a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, population concentrations in such areas. During the term of your Development Agreement, we will not establish or license anyone other than you to establish any Qdoba restaurant in the Development Area, except as described in the Development Agreement. We may continue to allow pre-existing Qdoba restaurants to operate within the Development Area, be transferred to a new franchisee, or be renewed. We may sell products and services within the Development Area, provided that such sales are through channels of distribution that are dissimilar to yours. We also may operate or allow others to operate Qdoba restaurants at certain non-traditional locations in the Development Area, such as college campuses, airports, and military installations. We may also allow the operation of restaurants in the Development Area if you fail to open an accepted restaurant within one-hundred eighty (180) days after you receive our Notice of Site Acceptance. The exceptions are more fully described in the Development Agreement.

In order to maintain your territorial rights during the development period, you must fulfill specific development obligations and other obligations as described in the Development Agreements and Franchise Agreements you enter into with us. You will be required to open and maintain in operation the number of Qdoba restaurants required by us ("Minimum Development Quota"). The development schedule and Minimum Development Quota are determined by us on the basis of our view of the market and size of the Development Area. The development schedule and Minimum Development Quota will be described in an exhibit to the Development Agreement. If you fail to comply with the development schedule, you will lose the right to have your development fees credited toward your franchise fees, as more fully described in the Development Agreement, and will ultimately be deemed in material default of your Development Agreement.

If you fail to comply with the development schedule, or fail to comply with any material terms or conditions of any Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement between you and us, such action will constitute a default under the Development Agreement. Upon such default, we may, at our option, terminate the Development Agreement and all rights granted in it, including the territorial protections. Depending upon the circumstances, we may not be required to afford you any opportunity to cure the default, and the termination may become effective immediately upon your receipt of written notice to you, or as otherwise provided by state law. However, termination of your Development Agreement will not necessarily affect any territorial protection that any of your restaurants may have under Franchise Agreements relating to those restaurants.

Franchise Agreement. The Franchise Agreement grants you the right to operate a single Qdoba restaurant at a specific, Accepted Location. Except at certain non-traditional locations, the Franchise Agreement grants you certain territorial rights in a geographic radius referenced in an exhibit to the Franchise Agreement. The protected geographic territory (“Protected Territory”) will generally be a radius of two miles from the Franchised Restaurant, but may be a smaller or larger radius that we agree to before we sign the Franchise Agreement. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, we will not, without your consent, establish or franchise another to establish, a new Qdoba restaurant at any location that falls within your Protected Territory, except as provided in the Franchise Agreement. We may continue to allow pre-existing Qdoba franchises or company restaurants to operate within the Protected Territory, allow those to be transferred to a new franchisee, or renew those franchises. We may sell products and services within the Protected Territory, provided that such sales are through channels of distribution that are dissimilar to yours. Dissimilar channels of distribution include, but are not limited to, grocery stores, the internet, satellite locations, sales or mail order catalogs, temporary locations, carts or kiosks, or through any other electronic or print media. We also may operate or allow others to operate Qdoba restaurants at certain non-traditional locations, such as airports, college campuses and military installations, in the Protected Territory that we believe are more appropriately developed by us or an institutional food service company. These exceptions are more fully described in the Franchise Agreement. The relocation of any franchised restaurant will be subject to our prior written approval, which may be withheld on whatever basis we determine is in our best interests.

The Franchise Agreement gives you no right to establish or buy additional Qdoba restaurants, or to use alternate channels of distribution, such as the internet. At the expiration of your initial Franchise Agreement, if certain conditions are met, you will have the option to enter into a new Franchise Agreement (in the form then in use by Qdoba) for the same location.

The Protected Territory granted to you is not dependent upon the achievement of a certain sales volume, market penetration, or similar contingency. Except as provided above, absent our mutual consent, the protected area granted to you may not be altered before the Franchise Agreement expires or is terminated.

Other than as specified in the Franchise Agreements, we retain the right, in our sole discretion, to operate, or to grant to other persons the right to operate, Qdoba restaurants at any location or Development Area on such terms and conditions as we deem appropriate. We also retain the right to sell products and services authorized under the System bearing our trademarks, through similar or dissimilar channels of distribution as we deem appropriate.

Currently, we do not operate or franchise, or have any affiliate that operates, franchises, or has any presently formulated plans or policy to operate or franchise, any business that sells primarily Mexican food under a trademark other than Qdoba.

Affiliate Operations. As disclosed in Item 1, as of the date of this disclosure document, we may be deemed affiliated: (i) with HHI, which offers franchises for operation of full service restaurants that serve all meals, during all hours of operation and that operate under the “Huddle House” marks; and (ii) with Perkins LLC, which offers franchises for operation of full service restaurants that serve all meals, during all hours of operation and that operate under the “Perkins” marks. In addition, certain of our parents and/or affiliates (and/or their owners), may in the future invest in other companies that offer franchises and/or own restaurant enterprises that may compete with the type business being franchised under this disclosure document. We do not currently anticipate conflicts arising between franchisees of the possibly deemed affiliated brands and those of Qdoba, and as such, do not have a plan for how to resolve disputes regarding territory, customers and/or franchisor support in the event they arise. Current and/or future outlets of such possibly deemed affiliated brands, however – as well as current and/or future restaurant enterprises owned, operated or invested in by our parents and/or affiliates (and/or their owners) – may be located in your Territory (including immediately proximate to your Unit location) and may have the right to use other channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing, to make sales within your Territory.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

The Franchise Agreement grants you the right to operate a restaurant using the principal trademark Qdoba Mexican Eats®, and/or other of our marks, as they may be changed, improved, and further developed over time. We will be testing other variations of our principal trademarks, and may require franchisees to use different marks in the future. Principal trademarks include service marks, names, logos, and symbols used to identify your restaurant.

The following principal trademarks, service marks, logos, or other commercial symbols are on file with the United States Patent and Trademark Office on the Principal Register. All required affidavits of use and applications for renewal have been filed.

There are no currently effective determinations of the Patent and Trademark Office, the Trademark and Trial Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state, or any court, or cancellation proceeding, nor any pending material litigation involving the proprietary marks. There are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of any of the Marks.

You must inform us if you become aware of any third party using, or claiming a right to use, our trademarks, or tradenames that are confusingly similar to our tradenames.

We also own and will grant to you the right to use many other valuable common law trademarks and trade names, as well as various international marks.

Subject to the terms of the Franchise Agreement, we are obligated by the Franchise Agreement to protect any rights granted to you to use the Marks, and to protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition with respect to them, provided you have used the Marks in compliance with the terms of your Franchise Agreement. We have the right to control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving a trademark licensed to you.

In the event that litigation involving the Marks is instituted or threatened against you, you must promptly notify us, and cooperate fully in defending or settling any administrative proceedings or litigation. You must comply with our instructions in filing and maintaining the requisite trade name or fictitious name registrations, and must sign any documents deemed necessary by us or our counsel to obtain protection for the Marks or to maintain their continued validity and enforceability.

The right and license of the Marks granted to you under the Franchise Agreement are nonexclusive. Thus, we have and retain the rights, among others, to use the Marks, to grant others the license to use them, and to develop other systems using the same or similar Marks, with the same right to use, grant or license such new Marks.

You must modify or discontinue use of a Mark if we modify it or discontinue its use. We do not know of any infringing uses that could materially affect your use of our Marks.

We do not own any rights in or to any patents that are material to the franchise. We claim copyrights in the Manuals, menus, advertising and marketing materials, including website interface and look and feel, restaurant design, and related items used in operating the franchise. Those copyrights have not been registered with the United States Registrar of Copyrights but have been protected under the federal copyright laws, where appropriate, by virtue of our placing the appropriate notice of copyright on such items. We do not know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the copyrighted materials. No agreement requires us to protect or defend our copyrights, or to indemnify you for any expense or damages you incur in any judicial or administrative proceedings involving the copyrighted materials. Neither we nor our affiliates will have any obligation to reimburse you for any expenditures you make because of any discontinuance or modification.

There are no currently effective determinations of the Patent and Trademark Office or US Copyright Office, nor any current legal proceedings involving patents or copyrights that are material to your business.

Certain materials supplied to you will contain proprietary information and trade secrets of Qdoba, including recipes, new product development information, growth plans, restaurant and equipment design information, training program information, operating procedures that you are required to follow at your restaurant, and supplier relationship and distribution system information. They will be supplied to you and your key personnel under contractual provisions limiting their use to the operation of the franchised restaurant and prohibiting their reproduction or unauthorized disclosure. Under the Franchise Agreement, you agree that you will not allow proprietary information to be used for the benefit of any third party (see Franchise Agreement, Section 24, and the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement attached as Exhibit C to the Franchise Agreement, License Agreement and Development Agreement).

ITEM 15

OBLIGATIONS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS

Development Agreement. You or another individual approved by us must supervise the development of all restaurants to be opened. That person must devote best efforts to the development of the Qdoba restaurants.

Franchise Agreement. Except certain non-traditional restaurants, if you have more than one Qdoba franchised restaurant, they must at all times be under the full-time supervision of a Designated Operator (“DO”) and a General Manager (unless otherwise approved by Qdoba). The DO must have at least three (3) years of multi-unit experience in the operation of restaurants, and must be approved by us. The person who is responsible for the day-to-day supervision of your restaurant must assume such responsibilities on a full-time basis, and may not engage in any other business or other activity, directly or indirectly, that requires any significant management responsibility, time commitments, or otherwise may conflict with your obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

Even if a General Manager is in charge of the day-to-day supervision of the restaurant, the DO must nevertheless remain active in overseeing the operations of the restaurants on a full-time basis. The DO and each General Manager must satisfactorily complete Qdoba’s certified training program.

Guarantees. If the Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement is held by a corporation, partnership, or other legally formed entity, we may require the owners of the entity and their spouses (regardless of whether they are parties to agreement) to personally guarantee the full performance of the obligations under the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement. Sample guarantees are attached as Exhibit B to the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement.

Confidentiality and Non-Competition. Qdoba requires you and all owners of the franchise entity to sign confidentiality and non-competition agreements. The current form of confidentiality and non-competition agreement is attached to the Franchise Agreement and License Agreement as Exhibit D (see Exhibits E-1 and E-2 to this disclosure document). Qdoba may also require your managers and other key personnel to sign a confidentiality agreement that protects our confidential information.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must use the restaurant premises solely for the operation of a Qdoba restaurant. You must sell or offer for sale only such menu items, products, or services (including catering and delivery services) that we have expressly approved, and may not offer or sell other products or services at or from the restaurant. You must offer for sale the Qdoba menu (including catering menu items). We may alter menu items at any time. You may only purchase from approved suppliers, as discussed in Item 8 of this disclosure document. You may not deviate from our standards and specifications without our prior written consent.

Qdoba's menu incorporates all-inclusive, protein-based pricing tiers for the entrée items we specify, and you must use a la carte pricing for other items. The company will provide pricing guidance and recommendations for your consideration, and may require that you use certain pricing to the extent permitted by applicable law, but in most instances, the pricing that you ultimately implement will be at your discretion.

Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors
Quidditch Acquisition, Inc.:

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements of Quidditch Acquisition, Inc. and subsidiaries, which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of September 27, 2020 and September 29, 2019, and the related consolidated statements of operations, comprehensive loss, stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years ended September 27, 2020 and September 29, 2019 and for the period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018 (successor), the combined statement of operations, comprehensive loss, parent company equity, and cash flows for the period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018 (predecessor), and the related notes to the consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated (successor) and combined (predecessor) financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Quidditch Acquisition, Inc. and its subsidiaries as of September 27, 2020 and September 29, 2019, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years ended September 29, 2020 and September 29, 2019 (successor), the period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018 (successor), and the period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018 (predecessor), in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Quidditch Acquisition, Inc. through its wholly-owned subsidiaries owns, operates and franchises Qdoba fast-casual Mexican restaurants. Quidditch Acquisition, Inc. (the “Company”), a Delaware corporation, was formed on December 13, 2017 by funds affiliated with or controlled by Apollo Global Management, LLC (“Apollo”) in connection with the acquisition of Qdoba Restaurant Corporation (“Qdoba”) from its former owner, Jack in the Box Inc. (“Jack in the Box”). The acquisition of Qdoba from Jack in the Box (the “Qdoba Acquisition”) closed on March 21, 2018 for a purchase price of $300.2 million, including net purchase price adjustments discussed in Note 2, Qdoba Acquisition.

The business of Qdoba as operated subsequent to the closing of the Qdoba Acquisition and business activities for Quidditch Acquisition, Inc. for the period from its formation on December 13, 2017 and after is referred to as “Successor.” The business of Qdoba as operated prior to the closing of the Qdoba Acquisition on March 21, 2018 is referred to as “Predecessor” or “Old Qdoba.” References to “we,” “us” and “our” relate to both the Successor and Predecessor.

Qdoba is currently the second largest fast-casual Mexican restaurant system in the United States. The following table summarizes the number of Qdoba restaurants as of the end of each fiscal year:

	September 27, 2020	September 29, 2019
Company	344	350
Franchise	397	380

Basis of Presentation

Basis of Consolidation and Combination - The Successor accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The Predecessor combined financial statements have been prepared on a stand-alone basis and are derived from Jack in the Box’s consolidated financial statements and underlying accounting records. See further discussion below under the caption “Old Basis of Presentation.” The Successor consolidated and Predecessor combined financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (“GAAP”).

Fiscal Year - The Company and Qdoba operate on a 52-week or 53-week fiscal year that ends on the Sunday closest to September 30. The fiscal year ended September 27, 2020 is referred to herein as fiscal 2020 or the year ended September 27, 2020. The fiscal year ended September 29, 2019 is referred to herein as fiscal 2019 or the year ended September 29, 2019. The fiscal year ended September 30, 2018 includes the combined Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018 and Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018 and is referred to herein as fiscal 2018 or the year ended September 30, 2018. Fiscal 2018, 2019 and 2020 all contained 52 weeks.

New Basis of Presentation - In connection with the Qdoba Acquisition, a new accounting basis was established for Qdoba as of the acquisition date based upon an allocation of the purchase price to the underlying net assets acquired and in accordance with the pushdown method of accounting as elected by the Company. Financial information for the pre- and post-acquisition periods have been separated by a vertical line on the face of the accompanying consolidated and combined financial statements and on the footnote tables to highlight the fact that the financial information for such periods have been prepared under two different historical cost bases of accounting.

The split presentation mentioned above is required under GAAP in situations when a change in accounting basis occurs. This is because the new accounting basis requires that the historical carrying value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed be adjusted to fair value, which may yield results that are not comparable on a period-to-period basis due to the different cost basis associated with the allocation of the purchase price.

Old Basis of Presentation - For the Predecessor period prior to the closing of the Qdoba Acquisition, the combined financial statements reflect all revenues, expenses and cash flows directly attributable to Old Qdoba. In addition, the combined financial statements of Old Qdoba include allocations of certain costs of Jack in the Box, deemed reasonable by Jack in the Box’s management in order to present the results of operations, comprehensive loss and cash flows of Old Qdoba on a standalone basis. The principal allocation methodologies are described below under the caption “Shared Services Allocations.” The financial information for Old Qdoba included herein does not necessarily reflect the results of operations, comprehensive loss and cash flows of Qdoba in the future or what would have been reflected had Old Qdoba been a separate, stand-alone entity during the period presented. The income tax benefit and related tax payments of Old Qdoba have been prepared as if Old Qdoba operated as a stand-alone taxpayer for the period presented.

QUIDDITCH ACQUISITION, INC.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Shared Services Allocations - For the Predecessor period prior to the closing of the Qdoba Acquisition, certain general and administrative costs incurred by Jack in the Box have been allocated to the combined financial statements of Old Qdoba. These internal costs include, but are not limited to, information technology, human resources, accounting, legal, facilities, insurance, treasury and other corporate and infrastructure services. These cost allocations were made based on a combination of factors, as appropriate, including Old Qdoba's proportionate share of revenues, headcount, operating weeks and other relevant measures. The costs allocated to Old Qdoba are not necessarily indicative of the costs that would have been incurred if Old Qdoba had been a stand-alone company or had obtained such services independently, nor are they indicative of costs that will be charged or incurred in the future. However, we believe that such allocations are reasonable.

For periods subsequent to the closing of the Qdoba Acquisition, Qdoba entered into a transition services agreement (the "TSA") with Jack in the Box to receive certain services (the "TSA Services") subsequent to the closing of the Qdoba Acquisition. The TSA Services primarily included information technology, finance and accounting, human resources, supply chain and other corporate support services. The TSA Services were being provided for a period of up to 12 months and allowed for two 3-month extensions for certain services. These services ended on September 21, 2019. Given the related party nature of the services and related costs, such costs were not necessarily indicative of the costs that would have been incurred by Qdoba if we were to have obtained such services independently, nor are they indicative of costs that may be incurred in the future.

Further, for periods subsequent to the closing of the Qdoba Acquisition, Qdoba was party to an employee agreement with Jack in the Box (the "Interim Employee Agreement"), pursuant to which Jack in the Box continued to employ all employees dedicated to Qdoba from the date of the closing of the Qdoba Acquisition through December 31, 2018. Upon expiration of the Interim Employee Agreement, such employees became employees of Qdoba. During the term of the Interim Employee Agreement, Jack in the Box paid all wages and benefits of the employees and Qdoba reimbursed Jack in the Box for those costs.

See Note 7, Related Party Transactions, for amounts allocated and charged to Qdoba during the periods presented herein.

Amounts Due to Jack in the Box, Net - Prior to the closing of the Qdoba Acquisition, Old Qdoba had various commercial and financing arrangements with its former parent, Jack in the Box. As an example, Jack in the Box provided various general and administrative services to Old Qdoba, as previously disclosed under "Shared Services Allocations." In addition, Old Qdoba was dependent upon Jack in the Box for its working capital and financing requirements as Jack in the Box used a centralized approach to cash management and financing of its operations. Given the intercompany nature of these arrangements, the related receivables and payables between Old Qdoba and Jack in the Box generally were not settled through periodic cash payments and receipts. In turn, cash, debt and related interest expense were not allocated to Old Qdoba in the Predecessor combined financial statements. Accordingly, during the Predecessor period, except as noted below for income taxes, the net intercompany amounts due by Old Qdoba to Jack in the Box were reflected as a component of equity and presented as parent company equity (together with Old Qdoba's historical cumulative earnings and losses) and the net change in the intercompany payable has been presented as a financing activity in the accompanying combined statement of cash flows.

Discontinued Operations - In fiscal 2013, Old Qdoba closed 62 restaurants (the "2013 Closures") as part of a comprehensive market performance review. As such, the results of operations for the 2013 Closures are reported as discontinued operations for all periods presented. Refer to Note 13, Discontinued Operations, for additional information. Unless otherwise noted, amounts and disclosures throughout these notes to the consolidated and combined financial statements relate to continuing operations.

COVID-19 Pandemic

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared the COVID-19 outbreak to be a global pandemic. The pandemic has significantly impacted workforces, customers, economies and financial markets globally including the markets in which we operate. We first began to experience impacts from COVID-19 around the middle of March 2020 as federal, state and local governments began to react to the public health crisis by encouraging or requiring social distancing, instituting stay-at-home orders, and requiring, in varying degrees, restaurant dine-in limitations, capacity limitations or other restrictions that largely limited restaurants to take-out, drive-thru and delivery sales. Although we have experienced some recovery from the initial impact of COVID-19, the long-term impact of COVID-19 on the economy and on our business remains uncertain, the duration and scope of which cannot currently be predicted. As of September 27, 2020, there were three company and 13 franchise restaurants that were temporarily closed. We continue to monitor the situation across jurisdictions and have a team internally focused on governmental compliance and health and safety compliance procedures.

In response to the impact of COVID-19 on our business, we borrowed additional amounts as a precautionary measure to bolster our liquidity position (see Note 5, Debt).

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Business Combinations - We allocate the purchase price of business combinations to tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values. The excess, if any, of the purchase price over these fair values is recorded as goodwill. The Company's management is required to make certain estimates and assumptions in determining the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, especially with respect to property and equipment, intangible assets and liabilities. The significant purchased intangible assets recorded by us in connection with the Qdoba Acquisition include the tradename, franchise agreements and favorable lease agreements. The fair values assigned to these identified intangible assets are discussed further in Note 2, Qdoba Acquisition.

Significant estimates in valuing the tangible and intangible assets included:

- Future expected cash flows related to our tradename and franchise agreements;
- Market value of lease arrangements and the expected term, including available option periods, of such leasing arrangements;
- Assumptions likely to be used by market participants in valuing restaurant-level assets;
- Determination of the estimated useful lives of the assets acquired; and
- Discount rates used in valuing such assets.

Cash and cash equivalents - For purposes of reporting cash and cash equivalents, all highly liquid investment instruments with an original maturity of three months or less are considered cash equivalents.

Accounts and other receivables, net is primarily comprised of receivables from franchisees, credit card processors, third-party delivery companies, landlords and tenants. Franchisee receivables primarily include royalties and marketing fees associated with franchise agreements. Tenant receivables relate to subleased properties where we are on the master lease agreement. Landlord receivables generally consist of tenant improvement allowances related to new restaurant openings and remodels. The allowance for doubtful accounts is based on historical experience and a review of existing receivables.

Inventories consist principally of food, packaging and supplies and are valued at the lower of cost or market on a first-in, first-out basis.

Deferred financing costs are capitalized and amortized as a component of interest expense over the terms of the respective financing arrangements. The deferred financing costs related to the first lien term loan facility (the "Term Loan Facility") and $35.0 million of 11.25% first-priority senior secured notes due 2025 (the "First Priority Notes") are recorded as a reduction of the debt balance in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. The deferred financing costs related to the first lien revolving credit facility (the "Revolving Credit Facility") are recorded in other assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Assets Held for Sale - The Company classifies assets as held for sale and ceases depreciation when there is a plan for disposal within the next year and those assets meet the held for sale criteria. Assets held for sale are included in other current assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. There were no assets held for sale as of September 27, 2020. Assets held for sale as of September 29, 2019 of $0.8 million consisted of one company restaurant and one restaurant property, which were valued at the lower of the carrying value or fair value less costs to sell. The fair value measurements for assets held for sale utilized Level 2 observable inputs.

Property and equipment, net - Expenditures for new facilities and equipment and those that substantially increase the useful lives of the property, are capitalized. Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. When property and equipment are retired or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and gains or losses on the dispositions are reflected in results of operations.

Buildings, equipment and leasehold improvements are depreciated using the straight-line method based on the estimated useful lives of the assets over the initial lease term for certain assets acquired in conjunction with the lease commencement for leased properties, or the remaining lease term for certain assets acquired after the commencement of the lease for leased properties. In certain situations, one or more option periods may be used in determining the depreciable lives of assets related to leased properties if we deem that an economic penalty would be incurred otherwise. In either circumstance, our policy requires lease term consistency when calculating the depreciation period, in classifying the lease and in computing straight-line rent expense. Depreciation expense related to property and equipment was $19.5 million, $20.5 million, $10.8 million and $9.9 million for the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, Successor year ended September 29, 2019, Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018 and Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018, respectively.

QUIDDITCH ACQUISITION, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED (SUCCESSOR) AND COMBINED (PREDECESSOR)

The estimated useful lives for property and equipment are:

	Estimated Useful Lives
Building and leasehold improvements.....	Shorter of lease term or estimated useful life, not to exceed 20 years
Restaurant and other equipment.....	3 to 15 years

The Company capitalizes interest costs associated with construction projects, which is amortized over the estimated useful life of the related assets. Capitalized interest totaled $0.2 million for the year ended September 29, 2019. Capitalized interest in fiscal 2020 and fiscal 2018 was not material.

Impairment of long-lived assets - We evaluate our long-lived assets, including property and equipment, favorable leases and definite-lived intangible assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying value may not be recoverable. Impairment evaluations for individual restaurants take into consideration a restaurant's operating cash flows, the period of time since a restaurant has been opened or remodeled and the maturity of the related market, which are all significant unobservable inputs ("Level 3 Inputs"). If the assets of a restaurant subject to our impairment evaluation are not recoverable based upon the forecasted, undiscounted cash flows, we recognize an impairment loss by the amount that the carrying value of the assets exceeds fair value.

Refer to Note 8, Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and Other Charges, Net, for additional information.

Goodwill and intangible assets - Goodwill is the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of identifiable net assets acquired, if any. Upon the sale of restaurants to franchisees, goodwill is decremented. The amount of goodwill written-off is determined as the fair value of the reporting unit disposed of as a percentage of the fair value of the reporting unit retained. Goodwill is evaluated for impairment annually, or more frequently if indicators of impairment are present. We first assess qualitative factors to determine whether the existence of events or circumstances lead to a determination that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If the qualitative factors indicate that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, we perform a single-step impairment test of goodwill. To perform our impairment analysis, we estimate the fair value of the reporting unit using Level 3 Inputs and compare it to the carrying value of the reporting unit. If the carrying value exceeds the fair value of the reporting unit, an impairment loss is recognized equal to the excess.

Intangible assets, net were primarily established in connection with the Qdoba Acquisition and are comprised of our tradename, franchise agreements and favorable lease agreements. Our tradename has an indefinite life and is not amortized. Our franchise agreements intangible asset primarily represents the fair value of the acquired franchise agreements in the Qdoba Acquisition, which is amortized over 20 years. The favorable lease agreements intangible asset and unfavorable lease liability represent the fair value of acquired lease contracts having contractual rents lower and higher, respectively, than fair market rents and are amortized over the lease term used to determine the fair value. Favorable leases have a weighted-average remaining useful life of 11 years and unfavorable leases have a weighted-average remaining useful life of four years as of September 27, 2020.

Indefinite-lived intangible assets are evaluated for impairment annually, or more frequently if indicators of impairment are present. We first assess qualitative factors to determine whether the existence of events or circumstances leads to a determination that it is more likely than not that the fair value of the intangible asset is less than its carrying amount. If the qualitative factors indicate that it is more likely than not that the fair value of the intangible asset is less than its carrying amount, we compare the fair value of the indefinite-lived intangible asset, established using Level 3 Inputs, with its carrying amount. If the carrying amount of an intangible asset exceeds its fair value, an impairment loss is recognized equal to the excess. Refer to Note 4, Goodwill and Intangible Assets, for additional information.

Leases - We review all leases for capital or operating classification at their inception under the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") authoritative guidance for leases. Our operations are primarily conducted under operating leases. Within the provisions of certain leases, there are rent holidays and escalations in payments over the base lease term, as well as renewal periods.

QUIDDITCH ACQUISITION, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED (SUCCESSOR) AND COMBINED (PREDECESSOR)
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The effects of the holidays and escalations have been reflected in rent expense on a straight-line basis over the expected lease term. Differences between amounts paid and amounts expensed are recorded as a straight-line rent accrual. The lease term commences on the date when we have the right to control the use of the leased property. Certain leases also include contingent rent provisions based on sales levels, which are accrued at the point in time we determine that it is probable such sales levels will be achieved. Tenant incentives used to fund leasehold improvements are recorded as deferred tenant improvement allowances in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets based on their short-term or long-term nature and amortized as reductions of rent expense over the term of the lease. Refer to Note 6, Leases, for additional information.

Revenue recognition - We generally recognize revenue, net of discounts and incentives, when payment is tendered at the point of sale. We report revenue net of sales taxes. We offer the delivery of our products for catering, through orders on our website and mobile app, and from our third-party delivery partners. With respect to sales for catering, and through our website and mobile app, we generally recognize revenue, including delivery fees, when our products are delivered to the customer. With respect to sales of products through our third-party delivery partners, we generally recognize revenue, excluding delivery fees collected by the delivery partner, when control of the food is transferred to the delivery partner.

Our franchise arrangements generally provide for franchise fees and continuing fees based upon a percentage of sales (“royalties”). Franchise royalties are recorded in revenues on an accrual basis. In order to renew a franchise agreement upon expiration, a franchisee must obtain the Company’s approval and pay then current fees. Franchise development and license fees are recorded as deferred revenue until we have substantially performed all of our contractual obligations and the restaurant has opened for business.

Gift cards - We sell gift cards to our customers in our restaurants, online and through selected third parties. The gift cards sold to our customers have no stated expiration dates and may be subject to actual and/or potential escheatment. We recognize income from gift cards when redeemed by the customer. While we will continue to honor all gift cards presented for payment, we may determine the likelihood of redemption to be remote for certain card balances due to, among other things, long periods of inactivity. To the extent we determine there is no requirement for remitting balances to government agencies under unclaimed property laws, card balances are recognized as a reduction to selling, general and administrative expenses in the accompanying consolidated and combined statements of operations.

Amounts recognized on unredeemed gift card balances were $0.7 million, $0.7 million, $0.3 million and $0.5 million for the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, Successor year ended September 29, 2019, Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018 and Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018, respectively.

Pre-opening costs - The costs associated with the opening of a new restaurant consist primarily of property rent and employee training costs. Pre-opening costs are expensed as incurred.

Restaurant closure costs - We make decisions to close restaurants based on their cash flows, anticipated future profitability, leasing arrangements and other facts and circumstances pertaining to each location. We estimate future obligations associated with restaurant closures and establish a restaurant closure liability at the time of closure. The restaurant closure liability primarily consists of the present value of future lease obligations, net of estimated sublease income. Restaurant closure costs are primarily comprised of the initial charges associated with establishing restaurant closure liabilities, the accretion of interest on the closure liabilities during the period, the direct costs related to restaurant closures and any changes to the underlying assumptions in the closure liabilities in subsequent periods. Restaurant closure costs are included in impairment of long-lived assets and other charges, net in the accompanying consolidated and combined statements of operations. To the extent that the disposal or abandonment of related property and equipment for restaurant closures results in gains or losses, such gains or losses are included in losses on disposition of property and equipment, net as disclosed in Note 8, Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and Other Charges, Net.

Self-insurance - We have entered into guaranteed cost insurance policies beginning January 1, 2019 for workers’ compensation claims, March 21, 2018 for general liability claims and September 1, 2013 for auto claims. For periods prior to establishing guaranteed cost policies, we were self-insured for a portion of the losses for workers’ compensation, general liability and auto claims through self-insurance programs. We have retained the exposure for these historical self-insured programs, which had predetermined loss limits per occurrence and in the aggregate. We establish our self-insurance liability (undiscounted) using actuarial estimates of expected self-insured losses for determining reported claims and as the basis for estimating claims incurred, but not reported.

Advertising costs - We administer a marketing fund that includes contractual contributions from company and franchise operated restaurants. Marketing fund contributions were 1.25% of sales for fiscal 2020, 2019 and 2018. We record contributions from franchisees as a liability included in accrued liabilities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets until such funds are expended. The contributions to the marketing fund are designated for sales driving and marketing-related initiatives and advertising and we act as an agent for the franchisees with regard to these contributions. Therefore, we do not reflect franchisee contributions to the funds in our accompanying consolidated and combined statements of operations. Production costs of advertising assets and other marketing activities are charged to the marketing fund when the advertising is first used for its intended purpose. The costs of advertising and media placement are charged to operations as incurred. Total contributions and other marketing expenses are included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the accompanying consolidated and combined statements of operations. Advertising costs were $13.7 million, $16.9 million, $10.1 million and $9.8 million for the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, Successor year ended September 29, 2019, Successor period December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018 and Predecessor period October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018, respectively.

Share-based compensation - We issue equity-based awards to our key officers, employees and non-employee directors under our equity-based compensation plans. Under the fair value recognition provisions of the authoritative guidance for equity-based compensation awards, we measure the fair value of equity-based awards at the grant date and the fair value is recognized as expense over the requisite service period. We generally recognize compensation expense ratably on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period for the entire award. We record compensation expense for performance vesting awards when we deem the achievement of the performance goals to be probable. Refer to Note 12, Share-based Compensation, for additional information.

Income taxes - Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases, as well as tax loss, credit and disallowed interest carryforwards. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. We recognize interest and, when applicable, penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of our income tax provision.

Authoritative guidance issued by the FASB prescribes a minimum probability threshold that a tax position must meet before a financial statement benefit is recognized. The minimum threshold is defined as a tax position that is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. Refer to Note 9, Income Taxes, for additional information.

Contingencies - We recognize liabilities for contingencies when we have an exposure that indicates it is probable that an asset has been impaired or that a liability has been incurred and the amount of impairment or loss can be reasonably estimated. Our ultimate legal and financial liability with respect to such matters cannot be estimated with certainty and requires the use of estimates. When the reasonable estimate is a range and there is a best estimate within the range, we record our best estimate of the loss within the range. We record legal settlement costs when those costs are probable and reasonably estimable. Refer to Note 14, Contingencies and Legal Matters, for additional information.

Use of Estimates - In preparing the financial statements in conformity with GAAP, management is required to make certain assumptions and estimates that affect reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses and the disclosure of contingencies. In making these assumptions and estimates, management may from time to time seek advice and consider information provided by actuaries and other experts in a particular area. Actual amounts could differ materially from these estimates.

Fair Value Measurements - Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value are assigned a level within the fair value hierarchy, depending on the source of the inputs into the calculation.

- Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 - Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1, such as quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets and liabilities in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.
- Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

There were no financial assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of September 27, 2020 and September 29, 2019. As of September 27, 2020 and September 29, 2019, the carrying value of all non-debt related financial instruments was not materially different from fair value due to their short-term duration. As of September 27, 2020, the carrying value of our debt was $232.6 million and we estimated the fair value of our debt to be $227.1 million using Level 2 inputs based on quoted market prices of debt instruments that are not considered active markets. As of September 29, 2019, the carrying value of our debt of $190.3 million approximated its fair value due to the floating interest rate terms on the related debt instrument.

Non-financial assets and liabilities - Our non-financial instruments, which primarily consist of property and equipment, goodwill and intangible assets, are reported at carrying value and are not required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis. However, on an annual basis or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying value may not be recoverable, non-financial instruments are assessed for impairment. If the carrying values are not fully recoverable, they are written down to fair value.

Refer to Note 4, Goodwill and Intangible Assets and Note 8, Impairment of Long-lived Assets and Other Charges, Net, for additional information regarding impairment charges.

Concentration of Credit Risk - Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable. The Company's cash balances may exceed federally insured limits and credit card transactions at the Company's restaurants are processed by one service provider.

New Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-15, Intangibles - Goodwill and Other - Internal-Use Software (subtopic 350-40): Customer's Accounting for Implementation Costs Incurred in a Cloud Computing Arrangement That is a Service Contract, which clarifies the accounting implementation for costs in cloud computing arrangements. The standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, and early adoption is permitted. As such, we will be required to adopt these standards in our annual financial statements for fiscal 2021. We are continuing our evaluation of the impacts this standard will have on our consolidated and combined financial statements and related disclosures, but believe the adoption of this standard will not have a material impact on our consolidated and combined financial statements.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue Recognition - Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), which provides a comprehensive new revenue recognition model that requires an entity to recognize revenue in an amount that reflects the consideration the entity expects to receive for the transfer of promised goods or services to its customers. The standard also requires additional disclosure regarding the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers. Further, in March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-08, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Principal versus Agent Considerations (Reporting Revenue Gross versus Net), which clarifies the guidance in ASU No. 2014-09 when evaluating when another party, along with the entity, is involved in providing a good or service to a customer. In April 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-10, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Identifying Performance Obligations and Licensing, which clarifies the guidance in ASU No. 2014-09 regarding assessing whether promises to transfer goods or services are distinct and whether an entity's promise to grant a license provides a customer with a right to use, or right to access the entity's intellectual property. In December 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-20, Technical Corrections and Improvements to Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). This ASU clarifies the guidance in ASU 2014-09, providing technical corrections and improvements to clarify guidance and correct unintended applications of the guidance. In June 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-05, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) and Leases (Topic 842): Effective Dates for Certain Entities, which provided us a one-year effective date deferral in applying the revenue recognition guidance. All standards are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019 and interim periods within reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2020. As such, we will be required to adopt these standards in our annual financial statements for fiscal 2021. These standards are to be applied retrospectively or using a cumulative effect transition method and early adoption is permitted. We do not believe the new revenue recognition standard will impact our recognition of restaurant sales or royalty fees from franchisees. However, we are still evaluating the impact that this pronouncement will have on the recognition of certain transactions on our consolidated financial statements, including the initial franchise fees currently recognized upon the opening of a franchise restaurant and our advertising arrangement with franchisees currently reported on a net basis in our consolidated and combined statements of operations and the effect it will have on our disclosures. We expect to use the modified retrospective transition method upon adoption.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), which requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities on the balance sheet for those leases classified as operating leases under previous guidance. In June 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-05, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) and Leases (Topic 842): Effective Dates for Certain Entities, which provided us with a one-year effective date deferral in applying the lease guidance. This standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021, including interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022. As such, we will be required to adopt this standard in our annual financial statements for fiscal 2023. This standard requires adoption based upon a modified retrospective transition approach, with early adoption permitted. Based on a preliminary assessment, we expect that most of our operating lease commitments will be subject to the new guidance and recognized as operating lease liabilities and right-of-use assets upon adoption, resulting in a significant increase in the assets and liabilities on our consolidated balance sheets. In January 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-01, Leases (Topic 842): Land Easement Practical Expedient for Transition to Topic 842, which affects the guidance in ASU 2016-02. The standard permits the election of an optional transition practical expedient to not evaluate land easements that exist or expired before the adoption of Topic 842 and that were not previously accounted for as leases under Topic 840. The effective date and transition requirements are the same as ASU 2016-02. In July 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-11, Leases (Topic 842), Targeted Improvements, which provide (i) narrow amendments to clarify how to apply certain aspects of the new lease standard, (ii) entities with an additional transition method to adopt the new standard, and (iii) lessors with a practical expedient for separating components of a contract. We are continuing our evaluation of the impacts this standard will have on our consolidated and combined financial statements and related disclosures.

QUIDDITCH ACQUISITION, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED (SUCCESSOR) AND COMBINED (PREDECESSOR)

In December 2019, the FASB issued ASU No. 2019-12, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes, which is intended to simplify various aspects related to accounting for income taxes. ASU 2019-12 removes certain exceptions to the general principles in Topic 740 and also clarifies and amends existing guidance to improve consistent application. This standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022, with early adoption permitted. As such, we will be required to adopt this standard in our annual financial statements for fiscal 2023. We have not yet evaluated the impact that the adoption of this guidance will have on our consolidated and combined financial statements and related disclosures.

New Accounting Pronouncements Adopted

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-04, Liabilities - Extinguishment of Liabilities (Subtopic 405-20): Recognition of Breakage for Certain Prepaid Stored-Value Products, which is designed to provide guidance and eliminate diversity in the accounting for the derecognition of financial liabilities related to certain prepaid stored-value products using a revenue-like breakage model. We adopted this guidance in fiscal 2020 and the adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on our consolidated and combined financial statements.

2. QDOBA ACQUISITION

As previously described under Note 1, Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, on March 21, 2018, the Company acquired Qdoba from Jack in the Box for a purchase price of $300.2 million, which is presented net of a $5.4 million refund of the initial purchase price. The purchase price, together with the payment of acquisition-related and financing-related costs in the aggregate amount of approximately $27.3 million, was primarily funded by $204.0 million of principal borrowings under a bank term loan facility and $135.0 million of capital contributed by Apollo.

The Company accounted for the Qdoba Acquisition under the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations and finalized the purchase price allocation during the second quarter of fiscal 2019. The cost to acquire Qdoba was allocated to the underlying assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their fair values. Any excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net assets acquired was recorded as goodwill. At the time of the Qdoba Acquisition, the Company believed its market position and future growth potential for both company and franchise restaurants were the primary factors that contributed to a total purchase price that resulted in the recognition of goodwill.

A reconciliation of the purchase price to the fair value of net assets acquired by the Company on the acquisition date is presented as follows (in thousands):

Cash paid to acquire Qdoba	$ 305,438
Working capital adjustment	(5,380)

The values assigned to the tradename and franchise agreements intangible assets on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet were derived using the relief-from-royalties method under the income valuation approach. This approach is used to estimate the costs savings that accrue for the owner of an intangible asset who would otherwise have to pay royalties or licensing fees on revenues earned through the use of the asset if they had not owned the right to use the asset. The net after-tax royalty savings are calculated for each year in the remaining economic life of the intangible asset and discounted to present value. The fair value of acquired leases was determined by discounting the cash flows of the excess or deficit, as applicable, of estimated market rent versus the contractual rent of the acquired leases. The fair values assigned to the property and equipment were assigned by applying a cost approach methodology also considering both the sales comparison and income approach. Key assumptions include replacement costs, reproduction costs and trend factors.

Of the $136.5 million of acquired intangible assets, $115.0 million was assigned to the tradename which is not subject to amortization. The remaining $21.5 million of acquired intangible assets had a weighted-average useful life of 15 years. These definite-lived intangible assets included franchise agreements of $5.0 million (20-year useful life) and favorable lease assets of $16.5 million (13 year weighted-average useful life). In connection with the Qdoba Acquisition, we recorded unfavorable lease liabilities of $16.8 million (6 year weighted-average useful life), which are included within other long-term liabilities in our accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

We incurred transformation-related costs of $0.2 million, $5.5 million and $4.0 million for the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, the Successor year ended September 29, 2019 and the Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018, respectively, which represent the direct costs incurred in connection with the separation of Qdoba from Jack in the Box primarily consisting of legal, accounting, consulting and software implementation costs. We incurred transaction costs of $2.0 million during the Successor year ended September 27, 2020 in connection with a potential sale of the Company. We incurred acquisition-related transaction costs of $10.5 million during the Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018 in connection with the Qdoba Acquisition.

3. PURCHASE AND SALE OF RESTAURANTS

Purchase of Restaurants

During the Successor year ended September 29, 2019, we purchased three Qdoba restaurants from one of our franchisees for an aggregate purchase price consideration of $3.4 million. The Company accounts for the acquisition of franchise restaurants using the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations. The purchase price allocations were based on fair value estimates determined using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3). The goodwill recorded primarily relates to the future growth potential of the restaurants acquired and the market position. As a result of this transaction, we recorded property and equipment of $1.1 million and identifiable intangible assets of $0.1 million resulting in $2.2 million of additional goodwill.

Sale of Restaurants

During the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, we sold one company restaurant including the related property and equipment to an existing franchisee. The property and equipment was impaired to zero prior to the completed sale when the assets were classified as held for sale.

During the Successor year ended September 29, 2019, we sold a total of 15 company restaurants including the related property and equipment to three existing franchisees. In connection with the sale of these restaurants, we received aggregate consideration of $0.4 million, sold assets with a net book value of $0.1 million and disposed $0.1 million of goodwill resulting in a gain of $0.2 million, which was recorded to impairment and other charges within the accompanying consolidated statement of operations during the Successor year ended September 29, 2019. The property and equipment at 14 of the 15 restaurants was impaired prior to the completed sale when the assets were classified as held for sale. Refer to further discussion in Note 8, Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and Other Charges, Net.

4. GOODWILL AND INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Goodwill and certain other intangible assets deemed to have indefinite useful lives are not amortized and are instead subject to annual impairment testing. Finite-lived intangible assets are amortized over their respective estimated useful lives. Changes in the carrying amount of goodwill are as follows:

QUIDDITCH ACQUISITION, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED (SUCCESSOR) AND COMBINED (PREDECESSOR)
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In March 2020, the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic prompted many state and local authorities in the markets in which we operate to mandate the temporary closure of non-essential businesses and dine-in restaurant activity, requiring the Company to temporarily close all of our restaurants' dining areas and transition to "to-go", pick-up and delivery across the Qdoba system. Due to the resulting decline in sales at our restaurants and the challenging environment for the restaurant industry, the Company determined there was an indicator of impairment for both goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets during the 12-weeks ended April 12, 2020.

As such, using Level 3 Inputs, the Company performed a quantitative goodwill impairment assessment using the discounted cash flow method to determine the fair value of its reporting unit. Significant assumptions and estimates used in determining fair value include future revenues, operating costs, working capital changes, capital expenditures and a discount rate using a market participant weighted average cost of capital that included a selection of comparable companies. Based on the quantitative assessment, the Company determined that the fair value of its reporting unit was less than its carrying value and recognized a non-cash goodwill impairment charge of $13.1 million, equal to the excess of the reporting unit's carrying value above its fair value. The impairment charge was recorded in impairment of goodwill on the accompanying consolidated statement of operations during the Successor year ended September 27, 2020. Accumulated goodwill impairment losses were $13.1 million as of September 27, 2020 and zero as of September 29, 2019.

In conjunction with the quantitative goodwill impairment assessment, the Company also performed a quantitative impairment assessment of its indefinite-lived tradename intangible asset. Using Level 3 Inputs, the Company used the relief from royalty method to determine the fair value of its tradename. Significant assumptions and estimates used in determining fair value include future revenues, the royalty rate, franchise attrition, brand maintenance expenses and a discount rate using a market participant weighted average cost of capital that included a selection of comparable companies. Based on the quantitative assessment, the Company determined the fair value of its tradename was less than its carrying value and recognized a non-cash impairment charge of $24.0 million, equal to the excess of the tradename's carrying value above its fair value. The impairment charge was recorded in impairment of tradename on the accompanying consolidated statement of operations during the Successor year ended September 27, 2020.

Such amounts have been presented as a component of depreciation and amortization in the accompanying consolidated and combined statements of operations.

Favorable leases are amortized as rental expense as a component of operating costs in the accompanying consolidated and combined statements of operations. Amortization expense for favorable leases was $1.8 million, $1.5 million and $0.9 million for the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, the Successor year ended September 29, 2019 and the Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018, respectively, and was not material in the Predecessor period.

Senior Facilities

Our first lien credit agreement dated as of March 21, 2018 initially provided for a $204.0 million first lien term loan facility (the “Initial Term Loan Facility”) and a $35.0 million first lien revolving credit facility (the “Revolving Credit Facility”).

The original principal amount of borrowings under the Initial Term Loan Facility was $204.0 million with a maturity in March 2025. The Revolving Credit Facility matures in March 2023 and includes a letter of credit sub-facility. Any outstanding borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility are due and payable at maturity.

On March 25, 2020, we borrowed $10.2 million in the form of an incremental term loan (the “Incremental Term Loan”) that is on the same terms as, and fungible with, the Initial Term Loan Facility. The Incremental Term Loan was provided by Quidditch Topco, L.P., an affiliate of our Sponsor and the beneficial owner of the substantial majority of the equity interests of Quidditch Topco, Inc., our indirect parent company. For further discussion, refer to Note 7, Related Party Transactions.

The Initial Term Loan Facility and Incremental Term Loan are referred to as the “Term Loan Facility”, and together with the Revolving Credit Facility are referred to collectively as the “Senior Facilities”.

The Term Loan Facility requires us to make scheduled quarterly principal payments in the amount of $535,500. Borrowings under the Term Loan Facility bear interest at a rate equal to, at our option, either (a) a LIBOR rate (the “LIBOR rate”) plus a margin of 7.0% or (b) a base rate (the “Applicable Base Rate”) determined by the highest of (i) the federal funds rate plus 6.5%, (ii) the prime rate plus 6.0% and (iii) the one-month adjusted LIBOR plus 7.0%. Borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility bear interest at a rate equal to, at our option, either (a) the LIBOR Rate plus 4.75% or (b) the Applicable Base Rate plus 3.75%. In addition, we are required to pay a commitment fee of 0.50% per annum to the lenders under the Revolving Credit Facility for unutilized commitments and are also required to pay customary agency fees and fees for the issuance of letters of credit. The interest rates applicable to the Senior Facilities are subject to certain floors and/or step-downs if we satisfy certain net first lien leverage ratios. As of September 27, 2020, the interest rate for the borrowings under the Term Loan Facility was 8.00%.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

On March 31, 2020, we borrowed $34.0 million under our Revolving Credit Facility as a precautionary measure in order to increase our cash position and preserve financial flexibility in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. On May 29, 2020, we fully repaid the $34.0 million of borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility and all related accrued and unpaid interest. As of September 27, 2020, we had no outstanding loan borrowings, $1.0 million of outstanding standby letters of credit and undrawn commitments of $34.0 million on our Revolving Credit Facility.

We are required to prepay outstanding term loan borrowings based on certain percentages of excess cash flows and non-ordinary course asset sales and dispositions, and from the issuance of additional debt not permitted under the Senior Facilities. We may voluntarily repay outstanding loans under the Senior Facilities at any time, without prepayment premium or penalty, except as described below, subject to customary “breakage” costs with respect to LIBOR rate loans. We are required to pay a prepayment premium in connection with mandatory prepayments as a result of incurring non-permitted debt (but not other mandatory prepayments) and voluntary prepayments of term loans under the Term Loan Facility as follows:

- Between March 21, 2020 and March 20, 2021, 2.0% of the aggregate principal amount of term loans being prepaid; and
- Between March 21, 2021 and March 20, 2022, 1.0% of the aggregate principal amount of term loans being prepaid.

All obligations under the Senior Facilities are unconditionally guaranteed by each of our existing and future direct and indirect material, wholly owned subsidiaries, subject to certain exceptions, and the Company’s direct parent on a limited recourse basis. The obligations are secured by a pledge of substantially all of the Company’s assets and those of each subsidiary guarantor, including capital stock of the subsidiary guarantors, in each case subject to certain exceptions, and the Company’s capital stock owned by its direct parent. Such security interests consist of a first-priority lien with respect to the collateral.

The Senior Facilities require that the Company comply on a quarterly basis with a maximum net first-lien leverage ratio (as defined in the Senior Facilities) of 6.55 to 1.00, if more than 35% of borrowings under the Revolving Credit Facility are outstanding (excluding up to $12.5 million of letters of credit and letters of credit that have been cash collateralized). The Senior Facilities contain certain customary affirmative covenants, negative covenants and events of default. The negative covenants in the Senior Facilities include, among other things, certain limitations on the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to incur additional debt or issue certain preferred equity interests, create liens, make certain loans or investments (including acquisitions), pay dividends on or make distributions in respect of their equity interests or make other restricted payments, and sell assets. We were in compliance with the covenants under our Senior Facilities as of September 27, 2020.

Deferred financing costs of $11.1 million, $0.1 million and $1.8 million incurred in connection with the issuance of the Initial Term Loan Facility, Incremental Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility are being amortized over the remaining terms of each respective facility. The deferred financing costs related to the Term Loan Facility are recorded as a reduction of the debt balance and the deferred financing costs related to the Revolving Credit Facility are recorded in other assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. The Initial Term Loan Facility was issued with an original issue discount of $4.1 million, which is recorded as a reduction of the debt balance and amortized to interest expense over the term of the debt.

First Priority Senior Secured Notes

On May 21, 2020, the Company issued $35.0 million of 11.25% first-priority senior secured notes due 2025 (the “First Priority Notes”). The First Priority Notes were issued at 95% of par, have an original principal amount of $35.0 million and a maturity in March 2025. The First Priority Notes require semi-annual interest payments on May 15 and November 15 of each year, commencing November 15, 2020.

We may redeem all or a portion of the First Priority Notes at the following redemption prices, plus accrued and unpaid interest to (but not including) the applicable redemption date:

- Prior to May 15, 2022, 100% of the principal amount of the First Priority Notes being redeemed, plus a make-whole premium using a discount rate equal to the U.S. treasury rate plus 0.5%;
- Between May 15, 2022 and May 14, 2023, 105.625% of the aggregate principal amount of First Priority Notes being redeemed;
- Between May 15, 2023 and May 14, 2024, 102.812% of the aggregate principal amount of First Priority Notes being redeemed; and
- On and after May 15, 2024, 100.000% of the aggregate principal amount of First Priority Notes being redeemed.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Additionally, prior to May 15, 2022, we may redeem up to 40% of the aggregate principal amount of the First Priority Notes in an amount not to exceed the amount of net cash proceeds of certain equity offerings at a redemption price equal to 111.25% of the principal amount of the First Priority Notes being redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date.

All obligations under the First Priority Notes are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by our existing and future direct and indirect material, wholly owned subsidiaries that guarantee the Senior Facilities, and the Company's direct parent on a limited recourse basis. The First Priority Notes are secured by first-priority security interest in substantially all of the Company's existing and future assets and those of each subsidiary guarantor, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions, and the Company's capital stock owned by its direct parent. The First Priority Notes rank equally in right of payment with all of our existing and future senior indebtedness.

Additionally, upon the occurrence of specified change of control events, we are required to offer to repurchase the First Priority Notes at 101% of the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the purchase date. The First Priority Notes also provide for customary events of default.

The indenture for the First Priority Notes, among other things, limits our ability and the ability of our restricted subsidiaries to incur or guarantee additional indebtedness; pay dividends or distributions on, or redeem or repurchase, capital stock and make other restricted payments; make investments; consummate certain asset sales; engage in certain transactions with affiliates; grant or assume certain liens; and consolidate, merge or transfer all or substantially all of our assets.

Deferred financing costs of $1.3 million incurred in connection with the issuance of the First Priority Notes are being amortized over the remaining term of the debt and are recorded as a reduction of the debt balance. The First Priority Notes were issued with an original issue discount of $1.8 million, which is recorded as a reduction of the debt balance and amortized to interest expense over the term of the debt.

CARES Act Loan

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (the "CARES Act") was signed by the President on March 27, 2020 in order to provide relief to various industries and small businesses. The CARES Act established a Paycheck Protection Program whereby certain businesses were eligible for a loan to fund payroll, rent and certain other costs. On April 6, 2020, Qdoba borrowed $10.0 million in the form of an unsecured note pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program with a maturity in April 2022 (the "CARES Act Loan"). Interest under the CARES Act Loan accrued interest at a rate of 0.98% per annum and required monthly principal payments beginning six months after issuance. All or a portion of the loan proceeds were eligible for forgiveness based on specified calculations that include payroll and other qualified costs. On April 28, 2020, we voluntarily repaid the entire $10.0 million CARES Act Loan and all related accrued and unpaid interest.

6. LEASES

We lease restaurants and other facilities, which generally include a base term of 10 years, with options to extend these leases for additional periods of five to 20 years. In some instances, these leases have provisions for contingent rentals based upon a percentage of defined revenues. Many of our restaurant leases also have rent escalation clauses and require the payment of property taxes, insurance and maintenance costs. We also lease certain restaurant and office equipment. Minimum rental obligations are accounted for on a straight-line basis over the term of the initial lease, plus lease option terms for certain locations.

The components of rent expense, excluding amortization of favorable and unfavorable leases, were as follows for each period presented (in thousands):

In connection with the sale of certain restaurants to franchisees, we remain contingently liable for a total of 12 leases as a de facto guarantor or otherwise under the lease agreements, including potential option periods. If the franchisees fail to meet their obligations under these lease agreements, we could be required to make lease and other related payments for the remaining contractual term of the leases. Should we be required to make any lease payments under these lease agreements, the maximum amount of rent payments we could be required to make is $8.4 million as of September 27, 2020. Deferred rent payments related to COVID-19

During the year ended September 27, 2020, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, we negotiated with the majority of our landlords to obtain rent abatements, rent deferrals, or in some cases, extensions to the respective lease terms. In the cases where there were substantive extensions to the lease term, we accounted for the changes as lease modifications. The total rent that was deferred for lease amendments, or that had not yet been paid due to in process negotiations, was $4.3 million as of September 27, 2020 and is included in accrued liabilities and other long-term liabilities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

7. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Incremental Term Loan

On March 25, 2020, we entered into the Incremental Term Loan for $10.2 million, provided by Quidditch Topco, L.P., an affiliate of our Sponsor and the beneficial owner of the substantial majority of the equity interests of Quidditch Topco, Inc., our indirect parent company. During the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, we incurred interest expense of $0.4 million under the Incremental Term Loan. Refer to additional discussion in Note 5, Debt.

TSA & Interim Employee Agreement Costs

The consolidated financial statements for the Successor period include expenses for the TSA Services that Jack in the Box was providing to us under the TSA and payroll related expenses related to the Interim Employee Agreement, as described in further detail under Note 1, Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies. The Interim Employee Agreement with Jack in the Box expired on December 31, 2018 and the TSA Services ended on September 21, 2019. We incurred $15,000, $7.0 million and $7.9 million of TSA Services expenses during the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, the Successor year ended September 29, 2019 and Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018, respectively. We incurred $35.2 million and $86.7 million of Interim Employee Agreement costs during the Successor year ended September 29, 2019 and Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018, respectively. We did not incur any Interim Employee Agreement costs in the Successor year ended September 27, 2020.

Predecessor Allocated Costs

The combined financial statements for the Predecessor period includes allocations of corporate expenses from Jack in the Box to Qdoba, as described in further detail under Note 1, Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies. We incurred $12.4 million of corporate expenses during the Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018. These expenses were allocated from Jack in the Box to Qdoba and included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the accompanying Predecessor combined statement of operations. There were no corporate allocations from Jack in the Box to Qdoba during the Successor periods.

Arrangement fees

During the Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018, Apollo Global Securities, LLC (or one of its affiliates), an affiliate of Apollo, participated as an arranger in respect of the Initial Term Loan Facility for which it received a fee of approximately $0.3 million.

⁽²⁾ Refer to Note 3, Purchase and Sale of Restaurants, for discussion of the sale of company restaurants.

Restaurant impairment charges

We evaluate our long-lived assets, including property and equipment and favorable lease intangible assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying value may not be recoverable. Impairment evaluations for individual restaurants take into consideration a restaurant's operating cash flows, the period of time since a restaurant has been opened or remodeled and the maturity of the related market, which are all Level 3 Inputs. If the assets of a restaurant subject to our impairment evaluation are not recoverable based upon the forecasted, undiscounted cash flows, we recognize an impairment loss by the amount that the carrying value of the assets exceeds fair value.

During the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, the Company evaluated restaurants for indicators of impairment, taking into consideration the negative impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Based on that evaluation, certain restaurant assets were triggered for recoverability assessments, which resulted in elevated impairment charges. The Company recorded restaurant impairment charges of $8.6 million for 28 underperforming company restaurants based on the estimate of future recoverable cash flows, $0.2 million for 3 restaurants that were classified as held for sale during the period and $0.4 million related to excess assets at the restaurant locations which were no longer usable due to COVID-19. Additionally, we impaired $0.7 million related to favorable lease assets, which is reflected within, Write-off of intangible assets and liabilities in the above table.

During the Successor year ended September 29, 2019 we recorded impairment charges for 14 underperforming company restaurants, 14 restaurants that were classified as held for sale and subsequently sold to franchisees during the year and one company restaurant that was classified as held for sale and impaired down to a fair value of zero.

Restaurant closing costs

Costs of closed restaurants primarily consist of future lease commitments and expected ancillary costs net of anticipated sublease rentals, as well as lease termination fees.

⁽²⁾ The weighted average remaining lease term related to these commitments is approximately seven years.

Accelerated depreciation

When a long-lived asset will be replaced or otherwise disposed of prior to the end of its estimated useful life, the useful life of the asset is adjusted based on the estimated disposal date and accelerated depreciation is recognized. Accelerated depreciation for the Successor year ended September 27, 2020 and the Successor year ended September 29, 2019 relates to restaurant remodels. Accelerated depreciation in fiscal 2018 was not material.

Restructuring costs

Restructuring costs in the Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018 are primarily the result of Jack in the Box's evaluation of potential alternatives with respect to Old Qdoba, which resulted in Jack in the Box's sale of Old Qdoba to the Company.

9. INCOME TAXES

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the "Tax Act") was enacted into law on December 22, 2017. The Tax Act includes a reduction in the U.S federal statutory corporate income tax rate (the "Federal Rate"), which became effective as of January 1, 2018. Under IRC Section 15, a fiscal year tax payer is required to compute a pro-rated tax rate upon a change in the enacted tax rate. However, because we generated federal net operating losses during the Predecessor period of fiscal 2018, and because such net operating losses were expected to be utilized in subsequent fiscal years at a 21.0% Federal Rate, the income tax provision for the Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018 was calculated using the 21.0% Federal Rate. There are other provisions of the Tax Act that became effective beginning in fiscal 2019.

Accounting for the income tax effects of the Tax Act requires significant judgments and estimates in the interpretation and calculation of the newly enacted provisions. We accounted for the impacts of the Tax Act provisionally during the Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018, and the provision for income taxes at that time was based on a reasonable estimate of the effects on the deferred income tax balances. During the Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018, we recognized an income tax benefit of $0.3 million primarily as the result of re-measurement of our deferred income tax assets and liabilities due to the enactment of the Tax Act, which was included as a component of income taxes from continuing operations. In accordance with Staff Accounting Bulletin 118, we completed our accounting for the tax effects of the enactment of the Tax Act as of September 30, 2018.

Since all deferred income tax balances were re-measured in acquisition accounting on March 21, 2018 in connection with the Tax Act, the Successor periods do not reflect any additional income tax expense or benefit related to re-measurement of deferred income tax assets and liabilities associated with the Tax Act. Our income tax rates for the Successor periods reflect the reduced 21.0% Federal Rate.

The CARES Act, which was signed into law on March 27, 2020, provides numerous tax provisions and other stimulus measures, including temporary changes regarding the prior and future utilization of net operating losses, temporary changes to the current and future limitations on interest deductions, technical corrections to tax depreciation methods for qualified improvement property (“QIP”) and the deferral of the required payments for the employer portion of social security taxes. The Company utilized the CARES Act provision by increasing the net interest deduction by adjusting taxable income limitation from 30% to 50%, electing to accelerate tax depreciation as a result of the technical amendment to QIP and electing to defer the employer portion of social security taxes. Due to our net operating loss position, the CARES Act provisions did not have a material impact on our current income tax expense for fiscal 2020.

Deferred tax assets are included in deferred income tax liabilities, net in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Deferred income tax assets as of September 27, 2020 include federal net operating loss ("NOL") carry-forwards with indefinite carryforward period of approximately $49.0 million and federal net operating loss carry-forwards of $20.9 million with expiration starting in 2039, and state net operating loss carry-forwards of $51.0 million with expirations ranging from 2020 to 2040. We have considered the implications of IRC Section 382, which pose limitations on NOLs following an ownership change and do not believe our NOLs are at risk of limitation. Further, as a result of the Tax Act any NOLs generated in fiscal years starting in fiscal 2019 and forward will maintain an indefinite carryforward period, limited to 80% of taxable income.

We regularly assess the need for a valuation allowance related to our deferred income tax assets, which includes consideration of both positive and negative evidence related to the likelihood of realization of such deferred income tax assets to determine, based on the weight of the available evidence, whether it is more-likely-than-not that some or all of our deferred tax assets will not be realized. In our assessment, we consider recent financial operating results, projected future taxable income, the reversal of existing taxable differences and tax planning strategies. During the fiscal year ended September 27, 2020, as a result of the impacts of COVID-19 on our business, we concluded that it was not more likely than not that a portion of our deferred income tax assets would be realized. We provided a valuation allowance on federal and state net operating loss carryforwards, and other net deferred income tax assets that have a limited life and are not supportable by indefinite-lived intangibles deferred tax liability sourced income as of September 27, 2020. We accordingly recognized a charge of $12.7 million to establish a valuation allowance related to our deferred income tax assets, which is recorded within deferred income tax liabilities, net in our accompanying consolidated balance sheet as of September 27, 2020.

From time to time we may take positions for filing our tax returns that may differ from the treatment of the same item for financial reporting purposes. The ultimate outcome of these items will not be known until the Internal Revenue Service or state has completed its examination or until the statute of limitations has expired.

At September 27, 2020 and September 29, 2019, the Company has no gross unrecognized tax benefits associated with uncertain income tax positions.

The major jurisdictions in which the Company files income tax returns include the United States and states in which we operate that impose an income tax. The federal statutes of limitations have expired for fiscal years 2016 and prior.

10. EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT PLAN

Effective January 1, 2019, we established a 401(k) plan that allows employees to participate who meet certain age and minimum service hour requirements. Under the current 401(k) plan and a previously offered 401(k) plan, the Company provided matching contributions, which totaled $0.9 million, $0.7 million, $0.3 million and $0.3 million for the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, the Successor year ended September 29, 2019, the Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018 and the Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018, respectively.

11. STOCKHOLDER'S EQUITY

During the Successor period December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018, Quidditch Topco, Inc. ("Quidditch Topco"), the Company's indirect parent, issued fully vested shares of common stock of Quidditch Topco with a value of $1.0 million as consideration to settle obligations for consulting services provided in connection with the Qdoba Acquisition. The issuance of these shares of common stock of Quidditch Topco were recorded as an increase to additional paid-in-capital in the accompanying consolidated statement of stockholder's equity during the Successor period December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018.

12. SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION

The components of share-based compensation expense recognized in each period within selling, general and administrative expenses in the accompanying consolidated and combined statements of operations are as follows (in thousands):

	Successor			Predecessor
	Year Ended September 27, 2020	Year Ended September 29, 2019	December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018	October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018

Nonvested stock units.....	—	—	—	178
Performance share awards.....	—	—	—	32
Total share-based compensation expense.....	$ 372	$ 446	$ 90	$ 239

Successor:

The Company offers share-based compensation plans to attract, retain and motivate key members of our management team and non-employee directors to contribute to the long-term success of the Company. On June 14, 2018, Quidditch Topco, Inc. adopted the Quidditch Topco, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan (the "Equity Plan"). The Equity Plan is administered by the Board of Directors of Quidditch Topco, Inc. who determine the terms and conditions of each grant. Under the provisions of the Equity Plan, Quidditch Topco, Inc. is authorized to issue up to 1,500,000 shares of its common stock in connection with the granting of stock options (the "Options") and is authorized to issue 500,000 shares of its common stock for grants or purchases. Since the Options are granted by Quidditch Topco, Inc. to employees of Qdoba, we recognize share-based compensation expense and additional paid-in capital in these consolidated financial statements.

The Options expire no later than seven years from the grant date. One-third of the Options are subject to time vesting conditions and vest in five equal annual installments on each anniversary of the effective date of the Options. Two-thirds of the Options are subject both to performance and market vesting conditions. The Options that are subject to performance and market vesting conditions will vest upon achievement of certain multiples of invested capital. Since the achievement of the required multiple of invested capital is unlikely without the occurrence of a liquidity event, no compensation cost is recorded for the related portion of the Options until such a liquidity event is considered to be probable of occurring.

During fiscal 2020, Quidditch Topco, Inc. modified the vesting conditions for half of the outstanding Options that are subject to performance and market vesting conditions by reducing the required multiple of invested capital necessary for such Options to vest. Since the modified portions of the Options were not probable of vesting immediately before and after the modification, there was no incremental compensation cost related to the modification.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The following table summarizes the activity of the Options for the Successor year ended September 27, 2020:

	Number of Options	Weighted average exercise price	Weighted average remaining contractual life (years)
Outstanding as of September 29, 2019.....	1,349,750	$ 10.09	6.0
Granted.....	190,000	10.51

Vested as of September 27, 2020.....	153,583	10.05	4.9

The maximum unrecognized compensation cost related to unvested Options as of September 27, 2020 is approximately $4.2 million. The Company recognizes forfeitures as a reduction of expense as they occur.

For the Successor year ended September 29, 2019 and Successor period from December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018, the grant date fair value of the of the Options granted was estimated using a Monte Carlo simulation model. The weighted-average assumptions used in estimating the grant date fair value were as follows:

Risk-free interest rate.....	2.8 %
Expected dividend yield.....	—
Expected volatility.....	71 %
Expected life of options (in years).....	5.0
Weighted-average grant date fair value.....	$ 4.09

For the Successor year ended September 27, 2020, the grant date fair value of the of the Options granted was estimated using a Black-Scholes model. The weighted-average assumptions used in estimating the grant date fair value were as follows:

Risk-free interest rate.....	0.3 %
Expected dividend yield.....	—
Expected volatility.....	70 %
Expected life of options (in years).....	4.0
Weighted-average grant date fair value.....	$ 4.00

The risk-free interest rate was determined based on published U.S. Treasury spot rates using a term equal to the expected life of the related Options. The expected dividend yield assumption is based on the Company's history and expectations of dividend payouts at the grant date. The expected stock price volatility represents the median of selected peer companies in the Company's industry. The expected term of the Options represents the expected time to a liquidity event.

Predecessor:

Under the Jack in the Box Inc. Amended and Restated 2004 Stock Incentive Plan, Jack in the Box granted stock options and awards to its employees.

Stock options - Stock options had contractual terms of seven years and vested over a three-year period. Options could vest sooner for employees meeting certain age and years of service thresholds. All option grants provided for an option exercise price equal to the fair value of Jack in the Box's common stock on the date of grant.

Nonvested restricted stock units - Nonvested restricted stock units were generally issued to executives and certain other members of management and employees. These awards were amortized to compensation expense over the estimated vesting period, generally 3 to 5 years, based upon the fair value of Jack in the Box common stock on the award date discounted by the present value of the expected dividend stream over the vesting period.

QUIDDITCH ACQUISITION, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED (SUCCESSOR) AND COMBINED (PREDECESSOR)
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Performance share awards - Performance share awards, granted in the form of stock units, represented a right to receive a certain number of shares of common stock based on the achievement of performance goals and continued employment during the vesting period. Performance share awards vested at the end of a three-year period and vested amounts ranged from 0% to 150% of targeted amounts depending on the achievement of performance measures at the end of the three-year period. The expected cost of the shares was based on the fair value of Jack in the Box stock on the date of grant and was reflected over the vesting period with a reduction for estimated forfeitures. These awards could be settled in cash or shares of common stock at the election of the Company. There were no performance share awards granted in the Predecessor period from October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018.

13. DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

During fiscal 2013, Old Qdoba closed 62 restaurants. The decision to close these restaurants was based on a comprehensive analysis that took into consideration levels of return on investment and other key operating performance metrics. Since the closed locations were not predominantly located near those remaining in operation, the majority of cash flows and sales lost from these closures were not expected to be recovered. In addition, no ongoing involvement or significant direct cash flows from the closed restaurants was anticipated. Therefore, in accordance with the provisions of the FASB authoritative guidance on the presentation of financial statements, the results of operations for these restaurants are reported as discontinued operations for all periods presented.

The following table summarizes the operating results related to the 2013 Closures for each period (in thousands):

	Successor			Predecessor
	Year Ended September 27, 2020	Year Ended September 29, 2019	December 13, 2017 to September 30, 2018	October 2, 2017 to March 20, 2018

The remaining costs to be incurred related to these closures are not expected to be material; however, our estimates related to future lease obligations, primarily sublease income, are subject to a high degree of judgment and may differ from actual sublease income due to changes in economic conditions, desirability of the sites and other factors.

The liability for lease commitments related to the 2013 Closures is included in accrued liabilities and other long-term liabilities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and has changed as follows (in thousands):

14. CONTINGENCIES AND LEGAL MATTERS

Commitments

As of September 27, 2020, we had unconditional purchase obligations during the next five fiscal years and thereafter as follows (in thousands):

Fiscal year:
2025	599
Thereafter	6,605
Total	$ 66,204

These obligations primarily represent amounts payable under purchase contracts for food and packaging related to system-wide restaurant operations, marketing obligations and information technology contracts.

Legal matters

We assess contingencies, including litigation contingencies, to determine the degree of probability and range of possible loss for potential accrual in our financial statements. An estimated loss contingency is accrued in the financial statements if it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. Because litigation is inherently unpredictable, assessing contingencies is highly subjective and requires judgment about future events. When evaluating litigation contingencies, we may be unable to provide a meaningful estimate due to a number of factors, including the procedural status of the matter in question, the availability of appellate remedies, insurance coverage related to the claim or claims in question, the presence of complex or novel legal theories and the ongoing discovery and development of information important to the matter. In addition, damage amounts claimed in litigation against us may be unsupported, exaggerated or unrelated to possible outcomes and as such are not meaningful indicators of our potential liability or financial exposure. We regularly review contingencies to determine the adequacy of the accruals and related disclosures. The ultimate amount of loss may differ from these estimates.

We are subject to normal and routine litigation brought by former, current or prospective employees, customers, franchisees, landlords, vendors and others. We intend to defend ourselves in any such matters. We believe that the ultimate determination of liability in connection with legal claims pending against us, if any, in excess of amounts already provided for such matters in the accompanying consolidated and combined financial statements, will not have a material adverse effect on our business, our results of operations, liquidity or financial position; however, it is possible that our business, results of operations, liquidity or financial condition could be materially affected in a particular future reporting period by the unfavorable resolution of one or more matters or contingencies during such period.

QDOBA MEXICAN EATS® FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Qdoba Mexican Eats® Franchise Agreement (“Agreement”) is made between Qdoba Restaurant Corporation, a Colorado corporation, with its principal place of business at 350 Camino De La Reina, Suite 400, San Diego, California 92108 (“QRC”); and [EntityName], a [jurisdiction] [type of entity], having its principal place of business at [EntityAddress], [EntityCity] (“Franchisee”). The Agreement is dated _____, 20____.

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, QRC has expended significant time, effort, and money to develop a distinctive system relating to the establishment and operation of Mexican-themed, fast-casual restaurants featuring a specialized menu of wrapped burritos, tacos, bowls, quesadillas, salads, and salsas, as well as other food and beverage items, some of which are prepared on site (the “System”); and

WHEREAS, the distinguishing characteristics of the System include, without limitation, the use of distinctive exterior and interior design, decor, color scheme and furnishings; special recipes and menu items; uniform standards, specifications and procedures for operations; a catering program; high quality and uniform products and services; standardized and/or tiered pricing structures; procedures for inventory and management control; training and assistance; and marketing and promotional programs; all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by QRC from time to time; and

WHEREAS, QRC identifies the System by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including but not limited to, the marks “Qdoba Mexican Eats®” and variations thereon, and such other trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos and indicia of origin that may be designated by QRC in the future for use in connection with the System (collectively, the “Proprietary Marks” or “Marks”); and

WHEREAS, QRC continues to develop, use, and control the use of such Proprietary Marks in order to identify for the public the source of services and products marketed under the Marks and System, and to represent the System’s high standards of quality, appearance and service; and

WHEREAS, Franchisee desires to enter into the business of operating a Qdoba Mexican Eats® (“Qdoba”) restaurant under QRC’s System, to obtain a franchise from

QRC for that purpose, and to receive the training and other assistance provided by QRC in connection with the franchise; and

WHEREAS, Franchisee recognizes the value of the System and Marks, and the importance of maintaining QRC's high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance and service in the operation of Qdoba restaurants.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the undertakings and commitments set forth in this Agreement, agree as follows:

1. GRANT OF LICENSE

1.1. QRC grants to Franchisee, upon the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, the right to use and do business under the System and under certain Proprietary Marks of the System at the location described in Exhibit A to this Agreement ("Accepted Location"). The license permits Franchisee to operate a Qdoba restaurant ("Restaurant" or "Franchised Business") (including offering catering from the Accepted Location, as described in Section 11.1.4) under the System and Proprietary Marks solely at the Accepted Location, and to use the Proprietary Marks and the System solely in connection with operating that Restaurant.

1.2. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that QRC may modify, update and improve the System and the Marks at any time, all in its sole discretion. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that QRC may enter into co-branding relationships, marketing agreements, and other strategic alliances with other companies or entities, all of which, in addition to other factors, may result in changes to the System and Marks. As the System and Marks change, Franchisee may be required to purchase new fixtures, furniture, equipment, décor items and signage, and make other investments in the Franchised Business to reflect the then-current System and Marks. Franchisee understands and agrees that it must develop and operate the Restaurant throughout the term of this Agreement in accordance with the System and Marks, as they are modified, updated, improved and changed from time to time. This requirement is in addition to the refresh and reimaging requirements described in Sections 11.2 through 11.3.

1.3. Except as otherwise provided in Section 1.4 below, during the term of this Agreement, QRC will not operate, or license anyone other than Franchisee to operate, any restaurant under the System within the lesser of a two-mile radius of the Accepted Location or such smaller radius as is specified in Exhibit A ("the Protected Territory"). The grant of this franchise does not imply the grant of rights to any other location or territory.

1.4. Franchisee acknowledges that this license is non-exclusive, as described below:

1.4.1. At any time, QRC may operate, or license others to operate, restaurants under the System or the Marks outside of the Protected Territory.

1.4.2. At any time, QRC, or any Affiliate of QRC, may purchase or be purchased by any third party that operates itself, or licenses or franchises others to operate, restaurants or similar businesses inside the Protected Territory, regardless of whether such restaurants or businesses offer different, the same or similar products as those offered by the Franchised Business.

1.4.3. At any time, QRC may sell products and services within the Protected Territory even if those products and services bear the Marks and/or are authorized for sale at Qdoba restaurants, provided that QRC makes such sales through channels of distribution dissimilar to the primary channels of distribution of the Franchised Business. Dissimilar channels of distribution include, but are not limited to, grocery and other retail stores (including supermarkets), motor vehicles (such as food trucks), the Internet, satellite locations, sales or mail order catalogs, temporary locations, carts or kiosks, or through any other electronic or print media.

1.4.4. At any time, QRC may operate, or franchise others to operate, Qdoba restaurants under the System or the Marks at food courts and other similar locations, including the campuses of universities or colleges, hospitals, public transportation facilities, amusement parks, government facilities, shopping malls, stadiums, arenas, or other sports facilities, and similarly situated sites, whether or not the sites are located within the Protected Territory.

1.4.5. After this Agreement expires or is terminated, QRC may operate, or license others to operate, restaurants under the System and/or the Marks within what was formerly the Protected Territory.

1.5. Termination or expiration of this Agreement constitutes a termination or expiration of the franchise and any and all licenses granted under this Agreement.

2. TERM AND RENEWAL

2.1. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement expires on the date shown in Exhibit A ("Expiration Date"). In no event will the term of this Agreement exceed ten years from the date the Restaurant opens for business.

2.2. QRC grants to Franchisee an option to enter into a new franchise agreement for the Accepted Location for one additional consecutive term of ten years or a term that is coterminous with the lease for the Accepted Location, whichever is shorter, subject to the following conditions:

2.2.1. Not less than twelve months or more than eighteen months before the end of the initial term, Franchisee must have given QRC written notice of Franchisee's election to exercise the option. If Franchisee does not provide timely written notice of its election to exercise the option, Franchisee will be deemed to have waived the option.

2.2.2. Franchisee must sign QRC's then-current franchise agreement, which will supersede this Agreement in all respects. The provisions of that franchise agreement may differ from the provisions of this Agreement. The differences may include, without limitation, a higher percentage royalty fee, marketing fee, local advertising obligation, and/or a smaller Protected Territory, Delivery Boundaries and/or Catering Solicitation Boundaries (as those terms are used in Section 11.1.4).

2.2.3. Franchisee must pay, in lieu of an initial franchise fee, a renewal fee equal to the greater of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or fifteen percent (15%) of QRC's then-current franchise fee.

2.2.4. Franchisee must present evidence satisfactory to QRC that Franchisee has the right to remain in possession of the Accepted Location for the entire additional term of the franchise, and the lease provisions must be acceptable to QRC, as described in Section 5.

2.2.5. No more than six (6) months after any new franchise agreement is signed (whether pursuant to an exercise of Franchisee's one ten (10) year extension right under Section 2.2 above, or by agreement of QRC in accordance with the procedure described in Section 2.3 below), Franchisee must complete such renovation, modernization and improvement of the Restaurant, and the furniture, fixtures, equipment located thereon, as QRC may reasonably require ("Reimage"). Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that such Reimage work may include, without limitation, replacement or addition of signs, equipment, furnishings, fixtures, finishes and décor items, both interior and exterior, and redesign of the layout of the Restaurant, to reflect the then-current standards and image of the System; provided, however, that the maximum amount that Franchisee will be required to spend on the furniture, fixtures and equipment and décor items (collectively, "FF&E") associated with such Reimage will be $150,000, and such maximum will not include any construction costs, installation costs, any soft costs such as overhead, architectural or consulting fees, permit fees, or any other costs not directly incurred for the purchase of the FF&E.

2.2.6. Franchisee must not be in default under any provision of this Agreement, any amendment or successor to this Agreement, or any other agreement between Franchisee and QRC.

2.2.7. Franchisee, the Owners of Franchisee (as defined in Section 19.2), and Affiliates of Franchisee must have timely met all monetary obligations to QRC and its Affiliates throughout the term of this Agreement. The term "Affiliate" means any entity that owns, is owned by, or is under common ownership with, the entity being referenced.

2.2.8. Franchisee must not have received a notice of default more than three times during the term of this Agreement; however, regardless of the number of prior notices of default, QRC will not be obligated to grant a new franchise if, in its opinion, Franchisee has not substantially complied with all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and QRC.

2.2.9. Franchisee must have complied with QRC's then-current qualification and training requirements for new applicants.

2.2.10. At the time of renewal, Franchisee must sign a general release, in a form prescribed by QRC, releasing any and all claims, including known and unknown claims, against QRC and its Affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees.

2.2.11. At the time of renewal, Franchisee must have provided QRC with a copy of its lease or other evidence that Franchisee has the right to remain in possession of the Accepted location.

2.3. After Franchisee has exercised its right to extend the term of the franchise agreement for one additional term of ten (10) years, as described above, Franchisee will have the right at the end of that ten (10) year extension term to request a new franchise agreement for the Accepted Location, and Franchisor may grant or deny such request, in its reasonable discretion. In all cases, any extension of Franchisee's rights with respect to the Accepted Location will require that Franchisee comply with the requirements and conditions set forth in Sections 2.2.1 through 2.2.11 above, except that notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.2.3 above, after the first ten (10) year extension described above Franchisee will thereafter be obligated to pay the QRC's then current franchise fee. If Franchisee fails to satisfy the conditions of Sections 2.2.1 through 2.2.11 above with respect to Franchisee's exercise of its initial ten (10) year extension right under such Section 2.2, or if for whatever reason QRC determines not to grant any further extensions beyond such initial extension right, QRC will provide written notice of such determination, and the reasons for such failure or determination by QRC, as required by law.

3. FRANCHISE FEE AND ROYALTIES

3.1. Franchisee must pay to QRC an initial franchise fee in the amount shown on Exhibit A, less any credit provided for in any applicable Development Agreement. The franchise fee is payable in full upon the execution of this Agreement. The franchise fee is fully earned and is nonrefundable in consideration of administrative and other expenses incurred by QRC in granting this franchise and for QRC's lost or deferred opportunity to franchise to others. "

3.2. Each week during the term of this Agreement, Franchisee will owe to QRC a continuing weekly royalty fee ("Royalty") in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the Restaurant's Gross Sales, as defined below in Section 3.5. For purposes of this Agreement, a week runs from Monday to Sunday ("Week"). If alcohol is served at the Franchised Business, and applicable law prohibits payment of royalties on alcohol sales, then the gross amount of the Royalty shall be increased proportionally to account for the royalty percentage on alcohol sales that otherwise would have been owed.

3.3. All payments required by this Agreement will be withdrawn from Franchisee's bank account by direct debit initiated by the QRC or its authorized representative. Payments for Royalties and any other weekly payments will be withdrawn by direct debit on or before the Friday following the end of each Week, and will be based on sales for the Week ending approximately twelve days earlier. Franchisee must sign whatever form of direct debit authorization is required by the relevant financial institutions. To the extent permitted by law, Franchisee hereby waives the benefit of all rights, statutory or otherwise and whether now or hereafter in existence, to suspend the payment of Royalties, Contributions to Marketing Fund, or any other amounts due under this Agreement, or to offset against such amounts, any monies allegedly due from, or any alleged obligations of QRC, it being the intent of QRC and Franchisee that the provisions of this Agreement shall operate to the exclusion of any such rights.

3.4. Any payment not actually received by QRC on or before its due date will be deemed overdue. If any payment is overdue, Franchisee must pay QRC, in addition to the overdue amount, interest on such amount from the date it was due until paid, at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. QRC's collection of such interest in no way limits its rights or ability to pursue any and all other remedies or forms of relief it may have.

3.5. "Gross Sales" includes all revenue from the sale of all services and products, including delivery and catering services, as well as from vending machines and similar sources of revenue, and all other income of every kind and nature related to the Franchised Business, including proceeds from business interruption insurance, and revenue from off-site events, whether for cash or credit and, in the case of credit, regardless of collection. The calculation of "Gross Sales" does not include any sales taxes or other taxes collected from customers by Franchisee which are actually transmitted to the appropriate taxing authority, customer refunds, credits or allowances which are actually made by the Restaurant, employee discounts, or the discounted value of payment by coupon from a QRC-approved coupon program. To the extent applicable and contrary to statements in this Agreement, any gift cards/stored value cards shall be included in gross sales when redeemed, not when sold. If the Restaurant is closed for more than 14 consecutive days due to damage, destruction or other casualty loss, Gross Sales for each day of the entire period of closure shall be the daily average of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant over the prior 12 complete months of continuous operation (or if the Restaurant was not in operation for 12 continuous months, the total complete months of continuous operation).

3.6. Franchisee must, in addition to all other amounts required by this Agreement, reimburse QRC for all sales, use, goods and services, personal property, gross receipt, excise, value added and similar taxes in force now and/or in the future that are imposed upon or required to be collected by QRC due to the sale, lease, or license of goods, services, or other tangible or intangible assets to Franchisee. Franchisee will reimburse QRC for such taxes upon demand, in the manner designated by the QRC.

4. SITE ACCEPTANCE

If a site for the Restaurant has not been agreed upon by the parties by the time this Agreement is signed, a site must be selected in accordance with the following provisions. If this franchise is granted in connection with a Development Agreement, Franchisee must also comply with all provisions of the Development Agreement before QRC will accept a site. Upon acceptance by QRC, the site will be described in Exhibit A to this Agreement, and become the Accepted Location.

4.1. Before acquiring a site for the Restaurant, whether through lease, purchase or otherwise, Franchisee must obtain QRC's acceptance of the site. No site will be deemed accepted unless it has been expressly accepted in writing in a Notice of Site Acceptance. The acceptance or non-acceptance of any site submitted by Franchisee will be at the sole discretion of QRC. In determining whether to approve or disapprove a proposed site, QRC may consider a variety of factors, including but not limited to, demographic characteristics, traffic patterns, parking, visibility, allowed signage, the predominant character of the neighborhood, competition for other food service businesses, the nature of other businesses in the areas, and other commercial factors such as the size of the proposed space, the lease terms for the proposed site, and the physical appearance of the site.

4.2. To request acceptance of a site for the Restaurant, Franchisee must submit to QRC the then-current form of Real Estate Committee Package. The Real Estate Committee Package must include the following:

4.2.1. a site evaluation (which must include demographics showing daytime and residential population in one-, two- and three-mile radii (or other dimensions as required by QRC) around the site, a floor plan, shopping center site plan (if applicable), elevation drawings showing signage, and photographs of the site);

4.2.2. a letter of intent or other evidence satisfactory to QRC confirming the Franchisee's favorable prospects for obtaining the site from the landowner or landlord;

4.2.3. Franchisee's financial information, including but not limited to recent financial statements, financing information, and development cost estimates in a form approved by QRC; and

4.2.4. such other information or materials as QRC may reasonably require.

4.3. If QRC elects to visit the site, Franchisee must coordinate and arrange for the visit by QRC's representative, but QRC will pay its own travel expenses.

4.4. QRC will use its best efforts to send either a Notice of Site Acceptance or a letter indicating the site has not been accepted within forty-five days after QRC receives the complete Real Estate Committee Package, or forty-five days after receipt of any additional materials requested from Franchisee after the initial Real Estate Committee Package was submitted, whichever is later.

4.5. If Franchisee has not obtained legal possession of the Accepted Location within one hundred twenty days of the date of QRC's Notice of Site Acceptance, QRC may retract such acceptance.

4.6. Neither QRC's examination and acceptance of a site, nor any information communicated to Franchisee regarding the site, constitute a representation, guaranty or warranty, express or implied, of the successful operation of any restaurant at such location. Franchisee and QRC acknowledge that QRC's criteria for accepting a site may change over time. Additionally, demographic and economic factors, including competition from other food service businesses, could change, thereby changing the potential of the site. QRC is not responsible for the failure of an accepted site to meet Franchisee's expectations as to customer traffic, revenue, profits or any other matter.

5. LEASE CONDITIONS

5.1. If Franchisee intends to occupy the Restaurant premises under a lease, Franchisee must submit the proposed lease to QRC for its written acceptance before signing it.

5.2. Franchisee must use its best efforts to use QRC's standard form lease addendum that is to be executed by Franchisee, and the landlord, and QRC, along with its successors and assigns, shall be an intended third party beneficiary of the provisions of such addendum. Franchisee must present the QRC's standard form lease addendum to the landlord before the initiation of negotiations for the lease. Regardless, all final leases or lease addendums for a Restaurant must include the following terms and conditions:

5.2.1. That the premises may be used only for the operation of the Franchised Business.

5.2.2. That the landlord consents to Franchisee's use of such Proprietary Marks and signage as QRC may require for the Franchised Business.

5.2.3. That the landlord and Franchisee each agree that whenever they send the other any letter, notice, amendment or other document pertaining to the lease or the premises, they will simultaneously send a copy to QRC.

5.2.4. That Franchisee may not sublease or assign all or any part of its occupancy rights, or extend the term of, or renew, the lease without QRC's prior written consent.

5.2.5. The landlord must copy QRC on any notices to Franchisee that are related to Franchisee's performance under the lease, including, but not limited to, late rent notices, notices of default, and notices of termination; and Franchisee agrees to copy QRC on Franchisee's responses to such notices;

5.2.6. That QRC has the right to enter the premises to make any modification necessary to protect the Proprietary Marks or to cure any default under the lease or under this Agreement.

5.2.7. That if Franchisee is in default under the lease or this Agreement, the landlord agrees that QRC will have the right to cure the default and assume the lease, and sublease the premises for all, or any part of, the term of the lease.

5.2.8. The lease must provide for Franchisee to freely assign the Lease, without Landlord's consent, to QRC, or a subsidiary designee of QRC.

5.2.9. That a memorandum or notice of the lease will be recorded in the appropriate recorder's office in the county in which the Restaurant is located, and that a copy of the recording certificate will be delivered to QRC.

5.2.10. The term of the Lease, including options, must be at least as long as the term of this Agreement.

5.2.11. If the Restaurant is to be located in a shopping center, mall or other multi-tenant facility, the lease must provide that the landlord agrees it will not lease other space within such facility to any food service business that serves primarily Mexican food or for which burritos, tacos, and/or bowls comprise more than twenty percent (20%) of the menu, or represent more than twenty percent (20%) of the sales ("Competitive Business"), such Gross Sales to be measured over a trailing twelve month period.

5.3. QRC's examination and approval of a lease, or any information communicated to Franchisee regarding the lease, does not constitute a representation, guaranty or warranty, express or implied, of the successful operation or profitability of any restaurant operated at such location, nor does such examination and acceptance constitute a legal review of the terms and conditions of that lease. Such examination, acceptance and information indicate only that QRC consents to Franchisee leasing the premises for use as a Qdoba restaurant.

5.4. Franchisee hereby agrees that whenever Franchisee sends or receives from its landlord any material document relating to Franchisee's lease, Franchisee will promptly forward a copy of the document to the QRC.

5.5. Franchisee irrevocably appoints and designates the QRC as its attorney with full power and authority to execute and deliver any documents necessary to effect any permitted transfer or the exercise of any right under the lease addendum.

6. CONSTRUCTION OF RESTAURANT

6.1. In the course of designing the Restaurant, Franchisee must comply with all of the following requirements:

6.1.1. Franchisee must employ a qualified, licensed architect and/or engineer, subject to QRC's approval.

6.1.2. Because the design of the Restaurant is crucial to the success of the Restaurant, Franchisee must strictly adhere to all design standards for the Restaurant as they change from time to time. QRC will provide the Franchisee, at no additional cost, design details for the trade dress, equipment, vehicles, signs, decor features, furnishings, and fixtures for a standard Qdoba restaurant. Franchisee must use all such items in the interior and exterior construction of the Restaurant. Franchisee may not use any different or additional products, trade dress, equipment, vehicles, signs, décor features, furnishings, and fixtures in the Restaurant, and Franchisee must buy all such things from QRC-approved suppliers and from no one else, unless it submits those products to QRC and obtains QRC's prior written approval. QRC may withhold its approval in its sole discretion.

6.1.3. Franchisee must obtain or prepare a schematic layout of the Restaurant site. Franchisee may either: (i) obtain a schematic layout at no charge from QRC, if Franchisee uses an architect recommended by QRC for the Restaurant site's complete set of architectural plans, or (ii) at Franchisee's own expense, hire an architect or other independent contractor to prepare one. If the schematic layout is prepared other than by QRC, Franchisee must obtain QRC's written approval of the schematic layout. QRC may withhold its approval in its sole discretion. If QRC is to prepare the schematic layout for Franchisee, Franchisee or Franchisee's architect must provide QRC with critical dimension measurements from which the layout will be prepared. Franchisee understands and agrees that Franchisee bears sole responsibility for verifying the critical dimensions. QRC has no liability for any consequences that may arise from any inaccuracy in the dimensions provided by Franchisee or Franchisee's architect.

6.1.4. Franchisee must provide to QRC a schedule setting forth in detail the expected date on which Franchisee will: (a) deliver the final construction plans for the Restaurant; (b) receive all necessary building permits; and (c) complete construction of the Restaurant.

6.1.5. Franchisee's architect and engineer must prepare construction plans for the site improvements based upon the schematic layout. Upon request, and at no cost to the Franchisee, QRC will loan to Franchisee either construction plans for previously built QRC-owned restaurants or a complete set of prototypical drawings ("Prototype Drawings"). Any such construction plans or Prototype Drawings will remain the property of QRC, and must be returned by Franchisee upon request. Before QRC will loan Franchisee construction plans or Prototype Drawings, QRC may require Franchisee's architect and engineer to sign non-disclosure agreements.

6.1.6. Franchisee must submit the construction plans, including all engineering and signage plans, to QRC for written approval. QRC may withhold approval of any construction plans in its sole discretion. Once approved by QRC, such final plans must not thereafter be changed or modified without the prior written permission of QRC. QRC's examination and approval of plans, or any information communicated to Developer regarding the plans, does not constitute a representation, guaranty or warranty, express or implied, of the successful construction, operation or profitability of any restaurant. Such examination, approval and information indicate only that QRC consents to Franchisee using the plans for construction of a Qdoba restaurant.

6.1.7. Franchisee must obtain all zoning classifications and clearances that may be required by state or local laws, ordinances or regulations, or that may be necessary or advisable due to any restrictive covenants relating to Franchisee's location.

6.2. Before beginning any construction of the Restaurant, Franchisee must comply with all of the following requirements:

6.2.1. Franchisee must employ a qualified, licensed general contractor to oversee the construction of the Restaurant and to complete all site improvements.

6.2.2. Franchisee must obtain the insurance required under Section 23 of this Agreement, as well as Builders' All Risk Insurance for the full replacement cost of all real and personal property involved in the construction, and maintain that insurance during the entire period of construction.

6.2.3. Franchisee must obtain all permits and certifications required for the lawful construction of the Restaurant and, upon the request of QRC, must certify in writing that all such permits and certifications have been obtained, or submit copies of such permits and certificates to QRC.

6.3. At the time construction is completed, Franchisee must comply with the following requirements:

6.3.1. Franchisee must obtain all customary contractors' sworn statements and partial and final waivers of lien for construction, remodeling, decorating and installation services.

6.3.2. Franchisee must obtain all permits and certifications required for the lawful operation of the Restaurant, including but not limited to, a certificate of occupancy and health permits. Franchisee must certify in writing, upon the request of QRC, that all such permits and certifications have been obtained, or submit copies of such permits and certificates to QRC. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that QRC will not dispatch its pre-opening staff to Franchisee's location until all permits necessary for the operation of the Restaurant have been received.

6.3.3. Franchisee must submit to QRC a summary of its construction costs and a copy of Franchisee's final contract with its general contractor, as further specified in the Manual or elsewhere in writing.

6.4. Franchisee must notify QRC of the date of completion of construction. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that Franchisee may not open the Restaurant for business unless it receives the written authorization of QRC. Franchisee further understands and agrees that QRC's authorization to open will be conditioned upon Franchisee's strict compliance with the provisions of this Agreement, including compliance with the training requirements.

7. TIMING OF OPENING

Franchisee must open the Restaurant for business within 15 days after receiving the QRC's authorization to open, and within nine months after the execution of this Agreement, or as otherwise specified in this Agreement. The parties agree that time is of the essence in the opening of the Restaurant.

8. TRAINING

8.1. QRC must provide, and the primary representative of Franchisee must attend, an orientation program at QRC headquarters. This program will be provided at no expense to the Franchisee, except that all ancillary expenses, including but not limited to, salaries, wages, transportation, meals and lodging, will be the sole responsibility of Franchisee.

8.2. QRC must provide a certified training program for up to three individuals. Unless otherwise specified in writing by QRC, Franchisee must ensure that the Designated Operator (defined in Section 16.1), a General Manager (defined in Section 16.2), and one other employee have successfully completed the certified training program. The program is approximately five weeks in duration, but is subject to change at QRC's discretion. If Franchisee is operating more than one Qdoba restaurant location, then the Designated Operator of Franchisee must also complete an additional week of Regional Manager training. The additional week will consist of (but not be limited to) training program administration and multi-unit responsibilities. Currently, all training is done at QRC-operated restaurant locations, chosen by us, in our sole discretion. We reserve the right to designate another training facility in our sole discretion. The initial training program will be provided at no expense to the Franchisee, except that all ancillary expenses, including but not limited to, transportation, meals, lodging, wages and insurance, will be the sole responsibility of Franchisee. If QRC provides training in excess of the standard training specified in this section, QRC may charge reasonable fees for that training (currently up to one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) per trainee) and for training materials. Before the new restaurant opening training begins at the Restaurant, Franchisee must ensure that the Designated Operator, Franchisee's General Manager, and one other employee have all attended and successfully graduated from QRC's initial training program.

8.3. QRC may provide such other refresher courses, seminars and training programs as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary or desirable, and charge a reasonable fee (currently up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) per trainee) for each refresher course, seminar or training program. For all training courses, seminars and programs, Franchisee or its employees will be responsible for any expenses incurred by them in connection with any such courses, seminars and programs, including but not limited to, the costs of transportation, meals, lodging, and any wages and insurance.

9. OTHER ASSISTANCE TO FRANCHISEE

9.1. QRC will provide Franchisee such on-site pre-opening and opening assistance and such continuing operational advice as QRC deems advisable for the first two Qdoba restaurants Franchisee opens, subject to the availability of personnel.

9.2. QRC will make its confidential manual available to Franchisee as described in Section 10 of this Agreement. The manual may consist of more than one volume, including without limitation an Operations Manual, Trainers Guide, and Store Opening Manual (collectively, the "Manual"), as more fully described in Section 10 of this Agreement.

9.3. QRC will provide to Franchisee, from time to time as QRC deems advisable, advice and written materials concerning techniques of operating the Franchised Business, including new developments and improvements in restaurant equipment, food products, packaging and preparation.

9.4. QRC will conduct inspections of the Restaurant, and evaluations of the products sold and services rendered at the Restaurant, as it deems advisable.

9.5. QRC will provide Franchisee with a template of the standardized chart of accounts, statement of earnings, and balance sheet, all of which Franchisee must use in the operation of the Franchised Business.

10. CONFIDENTIAL OPERATING MANUAL

10.1. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of QRC, and to maintain high standards of operation under the Proprietary Marks, Franchisee must conduct its business in accordance with the Manual (as defined in Section 9.2 hereof). Franchisee will receive access to the Manual from QRC for the term of this Agreement in any manner QRC chooses, including electronically through the QRC intranet. The Manual may consist of more than one volume, including, without limitation, an Operations Manual, Trainers Guide, and Store Opening Manual.

10.2. Franchisee must at all times treat the Manual, any other manuals created for, or approved for use in, the development or operation of the Franchised Business, and the information contained therein, as secret and confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential, as specified in Section 24 below, including but not limited to keeping access to the Manual secure, at all times.

10.3. The Manual will at all times remain the sole property of QRC.

10.4. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that QRC may, in its sole discretion, modify or replace the Manual or its contents. Franchisee agrees to conduct its business in accordance with all terms of QRC's then-current Manual. If the Manual is stored by Franchisee in hard copy form, Franchisee must at all times ensure that the Manual is kept current and up to date. If there is any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by QRC will be controlling.

11. OPERATIONS AND MAINTENANCE OF FRANCHISED BUSINESS

11.1. Throughout the term of this Agreement, Franchisee must operate the Restaurant in strict conformity with the following requirements, as well as such methods, standards and specifications as QRC may from time to time prescribe in the Manual or otherwise in writing:

11.1.1. Franchisee must use the Restaurant premises solely for the operation of the Franchised Business, and must not use, or permit the use of, the premises for any other purpose or activity at any time. Franchisee may not install any electronic games, telephones, cash machines or similar devices without the prior written consent of the QRC.

11.1.2. Franchisee must keep the business open and in normal operation for such hours and days as QRC may from time to time specify in the Manual or as QRC may otherwise specify or approve in writing.

11.1.3. QRC may require that Franchisee obtain a liquor license to sell certain required alcoholic beverages at the Restaurant and, if QRC requires that Franchisee obtain a liquor license, Franchisee must submit an application for the license no later than thirty days after signing the Lease for the site. Notwithstanding the foregoing, QRC will establish a policy to allow Franchisee to request a variance from QRC's requirement that franchisee obtain a liquor license to sell certain required alcoholic beverages at the Restaurant.

11.1.4. Franchisee must offer catering service from the Restaurant at its sole cost and expense and in accordance with the QRC's catering standards and procedures, as they are revised from time to time. The standards and procedures may include but will not be limited to the mandatory use of an on-line ordering system and participation in a catering rewards program. Franchisee must offer delivery service within the Delivery Boundaries, and not deliver outside of the Delivery Boundaries, provided that all such activities shall be conducted only in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, the procedures set forth in the Manual and all applicable laws. Franchisee may solicit catering business within the Catering Solicitation Boundaries, and may not solicit catering business outside of those boundaries. The current Delivery Boundaries and Catering Solicitation Boundaries are set forth on Exhibit A, but the QRC may modify the boundaries if there is a significant change in population, or new or additional Qdoba restaurants are established in the trade areas where the Franchised Restaurant is located, as determined by QRC. The boundaries will be non-exclusive and will not extend into any protected or exclusive territory previously or hereafter provided by QRC to another Qdoba restaurant. Any rights herein granted in respect of Delivery Boundaries and Catering Solicitation Boundaries shall, without notice nor any further agreement, be deemed to be immediately rescinded with respect to any geographic area at such time as QRC hereafter grants a protected or exclusive territory to another Qdoba restaurant, franchisee, or licensee. Catering standards and procedures will be set forth in the Manual and are established and modified by QRC in its sole discretion. Franchisee shall not engage in any other type of sale of, or offer to sell, or distribution of food and beverage products, including but not limited to, selling, distributing, or otherwise providing, any such products at wholesale, or for resale or distribution by any third party, or through satellite locations, sales or mail order catalogs, temporary locations, carts or kiosks, the Internet, or through any other electronic or print media.

11.1.5. Franchisee may determine what prices to charge to customers for products and services sold at the Restaurant, except that QRC may require that franchisee use an "all inclusive" pricing structure, a tiered pricing structure for various menu items, and/or other pricing structures, and QRC may set maximum prices on products and services to the extent permitted by law; provided, however, that QRC will establish a policy to allow Franchisee to request a variance from any maximum prices established by QRC, if any. If QRC imposes a maximum price on a particular item, Franchisee may charge any price on the item that is consistent with the Qdoba pricing structure, up to and including the maximum price. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the specified retail price and maximum prices for products and services

Franchisee and other franchisees sell may vary from region to region to the extent necessary in order to reflect differences in costs and other factors applicable to such regions. QRC may also require that condiments and certain products or services that are supplementary to the main products and services provided at Qdoba restaurants be provided to customers free of charge.

11.1.6. Franchisee must use such credit card, debit card, gift card/loyalty card, check verification, direct debit, electronic fund transfer systems, and similar systems as QRC may from time to time require. Use of the specified payment methods may require Franchisee to pay a program fee to QRC and/or third parties. Franchisee may accept only such methods of payment that QRC authorizes or approves. Gift/loyalty card programs may require Franchisee to provide certain products to guests free of charge.

11.1.7. Franchisee must use the QRC-approved music content/supplier to play custom music content designed for Qdoba restaurants. Franchisee may not play or supply music through another supplier without the prior written consent of the QRC.

11.1.8. Franchisee must identify itself as the independent owner of the Restaurant on a visible plaque at the Restaurant as well as in any other manner QRC requires.

11.1.9. Franchisee may be required to offer delivery for all food and beverage products that QRC from time to time authorizes. Franchisee shall offer and sell such products only from the Restaurant and only in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement and the procedures and standards set forth in the Manual; provided that all such activities shall be conducted only in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, the procedures set forth in the Manual and all applicable laws. As used in this Agreement, the term “delivery customers” means customers that purchase food and beverage products for delivery to (and consumption in) their home or office.

11.1.10. Franchisee shall comply with QRC's web-based applications, social media, and other technology-related standards and procedures, as they are established and modified by QRC in its sole discretion from time to time.

11.2. Franchisee must satisfy the Reimage requirements described in Section 2.2.5 above. Any capital expenses or other costs necessary for the repair and maintenance of the Accepted Location, and any modifications required by applicable law or required to abate a hazardous situation, are not subject to the time or cost limitations described in such Section 2.2.5.

11.3. After this Agreement has been in effect for five (5) years, Franchisee must refresh the image of the Restaurant premises at its sole cost as QRC may reasonably require (“Refresh”). The refresh may include, without limitation, repainting, refinishing or replacing surfaces (both interior and exterior), landscaping and installation of new décor items. In addition to the Refresh requirement described above, Franchisee must constantly maintain and continuously operate the Restaurant and all furniture, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, floor coverings, interior and exterior signage, the building interior and exterior, interior and exterior lighting, landscaping and parking lot surfaces in first-class condition and repair in accordance with the requirements of the System, and Franchisee will promptly and diligently perform all necessary maintenance, repairs and replacements to the Restaurant as Franchisor may prescribe from time to time including periodic interior and exterior painting; resurfacing of the parking lot; roof repairs; and replacement of obsolete or worn out signage, floor coverings, furnishings, equipment and decor.

11.4. If, during the course of this Agreement, Franchisee would like to relocate the Restaurant, Franchisee must follow the steps outlined in the then-current Qdoba Restaurant Corporation Relocation Policy. The new site must be located in the Protected Territory and open within five days of the closure of your existing Restaurant. It is subject to a Site Acceptance and Relocation Fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

11.5. If Franchisee leases the Restaurant premises from someone other than QRC, Franchisee agrees that whenever it sends its landlord any notice or other material document relating to Franchisee's performance under the lease for the Restaurant premises, including, but not limited to, late rent notices, notices of default, and notices of termination, or receives such a document from the landlord, Franchisee will promptly forward a copy of that document to QRC in accordance with the notice provisions of this Agreement.

12. COMPUTER AND POINT OF SALE SYSTEMS

12.1. In the development and operation of the Restaurant, Franchisee must use certain brands, types, makes and models of communications and computer systems (including hardware, software, and web-based applications) that QRC may specify or require from time to time. These include but are not limited to computerized point-of-sale systems and computer systems for recordkeeping and other business functions. QRC's development and modification of specifications for such systems may require Franchisee to purchase, lease and/or license new or modified point-of-sale systems, computer hardware and software and to obtain service and support for such systems, hardware and software during the term of this Agreement.

12.2. QRC may collect information from Franchisee's computerized point-of-sale and other systems via an electronic data transfer ("Polling"). Franchisee hereby acknowledges QRC's right to Poll at any time, at QRC's sole discretion, and Franchisee agrees to set up the systems to maintain and facilitate such Polling. In complying with its obligations under this Agreement, Franchisee shall comply with all applicable privacy laws.

12.3. Franchisee consents to QRC obtaining, using, and disclosing to third parties (including, without limitation, prospective franchisees, financial institutions, legal and financial advisors), for any purpose as QRC deems necessary or as may be required by law, any financial or other information contained in or resulting from information, data, materials, statements and reports received by QRC or disclosed to QRC in accordance with this Agreement or any other agreement between QRC and Franchisee.

13. INGREDIENTS, MATERIALS, SUPPLIES AND SUPPLIERS

13.1. Franchisee must ensure that the Franchised Business uses, offers and sells all food items, ingredients, supplies, materials and other goods, services, and products ("Products") that QRC from time to time requires. The Franchised Business may not use, offer or sell any other Products without QRC's written approval.

13.2. Franchisee must purchase all Products to be used, offered or sold by the Restaurant solely from suppliers, providers, distributors and other vendors ("Suppliers") that have been approved in writing by QRC, and have not thereafter been disapproved. At Franchisee's request, QRC will provide Franchisee with names of approved Suppliers. If Franchisee purchases such items under contract terms negotiated by QRC, then Franchisee may use those items only at the Restaurant.

13.3. Franchisee must use in the development and operation of the Restaurant only those brands, types and models of equipment, vehicles, signs, fixtures and furnishings (collectively, "Equipment") that meet QRC's standards and specifications. Franchisee may purchase approved brands, types and models of Equipment that meet QRC's specifications only from Suppliers that have been approved by QRC in writing, and have not thereafter been disapproved. At Franchisee's request, QRC will provide Franchisee with names of approved Equipment Suppliers. If Franchisee purchases such items under contract terms negotiated by QRC, then Franchisee may use those items only at the Restaurant.

13.4. If Franchisee wants to purchase any Products or Equipment from a Supplier who is not yet approved, Franchisee or the Supplier must submit to QRC a written request for such approval. QRC may require that its representatives be permitted to inspect the Supplier's facilities, and that samples from the Supplier be delivered to QRC, and/or to an independent laboratory designated by QRC, for testing. Franchisee or Supplier must pay QRC an inspection fee not to exceed the reasonable cost of the inspection (to include any and all travel expenses associated with the inspection) and the actual cost of the tests. QRC may also require that the Supplier comply with such other requirements as QRC may deem appropriate, including, without limitation, payment of reasonable continuing inspection fees and administrative costs, signing of non-disclosure agreements, and ethical sourcing standards. QRC reserves the right, at its option, to re-inspect the facilities and Products or Equipment of any such approved Supplier from time to time, and to revoke its approval if the Supplier's fails to meet any of QRC's then-current criteria. Nothing in the foregoing should be construed to require QRC to approve any particular Supplier.

13.5. QRC may require Franchisee to purchase any Product or Equipment from a single Supplier, and may approve a Supplier to supply only certain Products or Equipment. QRC may concentrate purchases with one or more Suppliers to obtain lower prices and/or advertising support or services for the benefit of the Qdoba System. QRC may be a Supplier for some or all Products or Equipment.

13.6. QRC may, in its sole discretion, designate certain Products to be produced and/or prepared at the Restaurant, at Franchisee's expense. QRC may, at any time, modify the list of these items.

13.7. In the event that any cash rebates, volume discounts, concessions, advertising allowances, discount bonuses or other benefits (collectively, "Discounts"), whether by way of cash kind or credit, are received by QRC from any Supplier, whether or not on account of purchases made (i) by QRC for its own account or for the account of Franchisee, franchisees generally, or (ii) by Franchisee directly for its own account, QRC shall be entitled to retain the whole of the amount or any part of such Discounts. QRC and its Affiliates are entitled to mark up and profit on the sale of goods and services to Franchisee.

13.8. Franchisee must pay all Suppliers (and all other providers of services or products) according to agreed-upon terms of payment, so as not to impair the reputation of QRC or of other franchisees, or otherwise impair the Marks.

13.9. All advertising and promotional materials, signs, decorations, paper goods (including disposable food containers, napkins, menus and all forms and stationery used in the Franchised Business), and other items that may be designated by QRC to bear the Proprietary Marks, must be used in the form, color, location and manner prescribed by QRC. All such items must be submitted to QRC for approval, and must meet QRC's specifications regarding design, materials and manufacture.

13.10. QRC may offer Franchisee the opportunity to participate in the testing and development of new menu items, operating techniques, pricing levels, and/or marketing materials, among other things. If Franchisee agrees to participate in such testing and development, Franchisee understands and agrees that Franchisee may be required to purchase new Products and/or Equipment related to the test.

14. ADVERTISING

The parties recognize the value of advertising and standardized advertising programs to the goodwill and public image of the System. Accordingly, the parties agree as follows:

14.1. MARKETING AND PROMOTION

14.1.1. Franchisee must make a weekly contribution to the Qdoba Marketing Fund ("Marketing Fund"). As of the date of this Agreement, the contribution is one and a quarter percent (1.25%) of Franchisee's weekly Gross Sales from the Franchised Business. QRC, in its sole discretion, may increase or decrease the rate of contribution up to 4%, but in no event will the rate increase by more than .5% of Gross Sales in any 12-month period. Increases over 4% can only occur upon majority vote as follows: franchisees and QRC will each have one vote for each restaurant that pays the then-standard marketing fee. QRC must make a weekly contribution to the Marketing Fund for each of its company-owned restaurants, and the rate of contribution must be the same as the rate of contribution of the majority of the traditional Qdoba restaurants in North America.

14.1.2. Franchisee's contribution to the Marketing Fund will be made by direct debit from Franchisee's bank account, as referenced in Section 3.3 of this Agreement.

14.1.3. All sums paid into the Marketing Fund must be accounted for separately by the QRC.

14.1.4. The Marketing Fund, including all contributions thereto, must be used exclusively to maintain and administer the Marketing Fund, for payments including for creative services or materials, and/or to direct, prepare and/or place advertising, promotions and/or communications to build the brand including, among other things, preparing and conducting digital, social, television, radio, magazine, and newspaper advertising campaigns; purchasing radio, television, digital, social, magazine, newspaper and other media for the distribution of advertising campaigns; advertising through direct mail and outdoor billboards; preparing and conducting marketing/brand surveys and research, which may include awareness and usage surveys, focus groups, marketing surveys and consumer feedback surveys; public relations activities; research, development and testing of products, packaging, and concepts; brand positioning; preparing and executing e-mail and internet-based marketing programs; creating, administering, and maintaining customer loyalty programs; employing advertising, public relations, and branding agencies and other professional consultants; and providing point-of-purchase, collateral and other marketing materials to the restaurants operated under the System.

14.1.5. All contributions to the Marketing Fund are expected to be used during the fiscal year within which the contributions are received. If excess funds remain in the Marketing Fund at the end of such fiscal year, all expenditures in the following fiscal year(s) must be made first out of excess funds from previous years, next out of funds in the current year, and finally from contributions.

14.1.6. A statement showing categories of sources and uses of the Marketing Fund will be prepared annually by the QRC, and will be made available to Franchisee for inspection, upon request.

14.1.7. QRC will oversee all marketing, advertising and promotional programs paid for through the Marketing Fund, and has sole discretion to approve or disapprove the creative concepts, materials and media used in such programs, and the placement and allocation of such programs. In administering the Marketing Fund, QRC is under no obligation to make expenditures for Franchisee that are equivalent or proportionate to its contribution, or to ensure that any particular franchisee benefits directly or pro rata from the advertising or promotion paid for by the Marketing Fund. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, QRC is under no obligation to administer or distribute the Marketing Fund according to any particular geographic area or territory, including Canada or the United States. Franchisee further acknowledges and agrees that, if QRC deems appropriate, QRC shall have the right to separate, combine and/or co-mingle funds and/or administrative functions to create one or more Marketing Fund(s) or other funds for one or more systems, in Canada and/or the United States, and/or to allocate all or a portion of the Marketing Fund to regional, national or international advertising and marketing administered by one or more groups of franchisees.

14.1.8. Although the Marketing Fund is intended to be of perpetual duration, QRC maintains the right to terminate the Marketing Fund at its sole discretion. The Marketing Fund will not be terminated, however, until all monies in the Marketing Fund have been expended as permitted by this Agreement or refunded to then-existing Franchisees and QRC restaurants pro rata.

14.2. LOCAL ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION

14.2.1. Franchisee must annually spend a percentage of its Gross Sales on local advertising and promotion, subject to the QRC's sole discretion. As of the date of this Agreement, the contribution is one- and three-quarter percent (1.75%) of Franchisee's weekly Gross Sales from the Franchised Business. If an audit discloses that Franchisee failed to spend that amount, the QRC may directly debit from Franchisee's bank account and contribute to the Marketing Fund, the amount that Franchisee was required to, but did not, spend on local advertising and promotion. Franchisee must also reimburse QRC for the cost of the audit. These remedies are in addition to all other remedies available to the QRC.

14.2.2. All local advertising and promotion by Franchisee in any medium must be conducted in a dignified manner, and must conform to the standards and requirements of QRC as set forth in the Manual or elsewhere in writing. Franchisee must not use any advertising and promotional plans and materials that have not been prepared, or previously approved in writing, by QRC within the previous 12 months. If Franchisee wants to use any other plans or materials, Franchisee must submit such plans and materials to QRC and obtain written confirmation that the QRC has received them. QRC will endeavor to approve or disapprove such plans and materials within 15 days after QRC receives them. If the plans or materials are not approved in writing within 15 days, they are deemed disapproved. Franchisee must not use plans or materials unless and until QRC approves them in writing, and Franchisee must promptly discontinue use of any advertising or promotional plans or materials upon notice from

QRC. Any and all costs associated with discontinuing the use of such plans and materials will be borne exclusively by Franchisee.

14.2.3. Franchisee must participate in any gift and/or loyalty program that QRC requires. Franchisee must promote, supply, and honor gift and/or loyalty redemptions upon the terms determined by the QRC in its sole discretion.

14.2.4. QRC may from time to time develop and create advertising and sales promotion programs designed to promote and enhance the collective success of all Restaurants operating under the System. Franchisee shall participate in all such advertising and sales promotion programs in accordance with the terms and conditions established by QRC for each program.

14.3. ADVERTISING COOPERATIVE

14.3.1. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that QRC has the right, in its discretion, to designate any geographical area for purposes of establishing an advertising cooperative covering the Franchisee's Protected Territory. If such a cooperative has been established at the time Franchisee commences operations under this Agreement, Franchisee must immediately become a member of such cooperative. If such a cooperative is established at any later time during the term of this Agreement, Franchisee must become a member of such cooperative no later than thirty days after the date on which Franchisee is notified that the cooperative has commenced operation. In no event will Franchisee be required to be a member of more than one cooperative unless Franchisee operates restaurants in the geographic territories of more than one cooperative. The following provisions will apply to each cooperative:

14.3.2. Each cooperative will be organized and governed in a form and manner approved in advance by QRC in writing, and will commence operation on a date chosen by QRC.

14.3.3. Each cooperative will be organized for the exclusive purposes of administering regional advertising programs and developing standardized promotional materials for use by the members in local advertising.

14.3.4. No advertising or promotional plans or materials may be used by a cooperative or furnished to its members without the prior approval of QRC. All such plans and materials must be submitted to QRC in accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 14.2.2 of this Agreement.

14.3.5. Each cooperative may require its members to make contributions to the cooperative in such amounts as are determined by the cooperative; however, Franchisee will not be required to make a contribution to any cooperative of more than two percent (2%) of the Gross Sales of the Restaurant(s) in the cooperative's geographic territory. Any contribution to such cooperative will be credited against Franchisee's spending obligation on local advertising; however, Franchisee must in any case spend not less than two percent (2%) on local advertising, either through a cooperative or on its own, as required in Section 14.2.1 hereof.

14.3.6. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that after becoming a member of a cooperative, it will be subject to the cooperative's by-laws. Franchisee further acknowledges and agrees that QRC bears no responsibility for the Cooperative's actions.

14.4. OPENING ADVERTISING PROGRAM

Franchisee must conduct an opening advertising program for the Restaurant, which program must begin no later than 30 days after the opening of the Restaurant and be completed within 6 months. The actual dates of the advertising program will be determined by Franchisee after consultation with QRC. Franchisee agrees to spend not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for the opening advertising program, unless a different sum is agreed to by the QRC in writing. The opening advertising program must conform to QRC's requirements, and must use the media and advertising formats designated by QRC. Franchisee must submit vendor invoices for opening advertising expenses to QRC within 60 days of the commencement of the advertising program to evidence compliance with this Section. If Franchisee fails to conduct its opening advertising program as required in this Agreement, QRC may directly debit from Franchisee's bank account and contribute to the Marketing Fund, any amount that Franchisee was required to, but did not, spend on the opening advertising program. This remedy is in addition to all other remedies available to the QRC.

15. ACCOUNTING AND RECORDS SYSTEMS

15.1. Franchisee may be required to use a bookkeeping, accounting and record-keeping system conforming to the QRC's requirements, including a general ledger system that uses a chart of accounts prescribed by QRC from time to time. Franchisee's books, records and accounts must be complete and accurate, and maintained in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles in use in the United States. Franchisee must retain these documents for at least three (3) years from the date of their preparation.

15.2. Franchisee must advise QRC of the beginning and ending dates of the chosen fiscal year before the beginning of that fiscal year.

15.3. Franchisee must prepare financial reporting materials in the form required by QRC, and submit those materials to QRC, as follows:

15.3.1. Each Monday, no later than 10:00 a.m., Central Time, by Polling, or such other method as QRC specifies, Franchisee must submit a report of the Gross Sales, net sales, manager comps, promotions, check counts for the preceding week, and any other information QRC may require, broken down by day.

15.3.2. Upon QRC's request, Franchisee must submit its state sales tax returns to QRC, and must do so by email, fax, mail or such other means as QRC specifies.

15.3.3. Within thirty days after the end of each four week period ("Period"), Franchisee may be required to submit by email, fax, mail or such other means as QRC specifies, an unaudited profit and loss statement showing the then-current Period and the year-to-date business results of the franchise.

15.3.4. Within thirty days after the end of each quarter of the fiscal year, Franchisee may be required to submit by email, fax, mail or such other means as QRC specifies, a quarterly balance sheet (which may be unaudited). Each such submission must be signed by Franchisee or by Franchisee's treasurer or chief financial officer attesting that it is true and correct.

15.3.5. Within thirty days after the end of each quarter of each fiscal year, Franchisee may be required to submit by email, fax, mail or such other means as QRC specifies, reports of any income and expense items of the Restaurant. QRC may use those reports to provide income and expense information to prospective or existing franchisees. QRC agrees that it will not provide prospective or existing franchisees with any specific financial results of any specific restaurant operated by Franchisee, without Franchisee's consent.

15.3.6. Within ninety days after the end of each fiscal year, Franchisee must submit by email, fax, mail or such other means as QRC specifies, a financial statement including a profit and loss statement, balance sheet and statement of cash flow showing the results of operations of the Franchised Business during said fiscal year ("Financial Statement(s)"), certified by the Treasurer or CFO of Franchisee as true and correct and as having been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in use in the United States; provided, however, that if Franchisee is required by its lender, investors or any other third party, or otherwise elects, to have Financial Statements prepared by a certified public accountant, then Franchisee will provide a copy of such certified Financial Statements to QRC.

15.3.7. Franchisee must also submit to QRC, for review or auditing, such other forms, reports, records, information and data as QRC may reasonably require, including, without limitation, reports and information concerning the costs and other matters relating to the development of the Restaurant, in the form and at the times and places as QRC may reasonably require. All such materials must be prepared at Franchisee's own expense, in the format prescribed by QRC and transmitted in the form prescribed by QRC. At QRC's discretion, QRC may also obtain such information through Polling.

15.4. QRC or its designated agents may at any time, on an announced or unannounced basis, enter and inspect Franchisee's place of business and examine and copy, at QRC's expense, the books, records and tax returns of Franchisee. QRC may also, at any time, conduct an audit or have an independent audit made of the books of Franchisee. If an inspection or audit reveals that any payments have been understated in any report to QRC, then Franchisee must pay to QRC upon demand the amount understated, in addition to interest from the date such amount was due until paid, at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. If an inspection or audit discloses an understatement in any report of 2% or more of Franchisee's Gross Sales for the audited period, Franchisee must, in addition, reimburse QRC for any and all costs and expenses connected with the inspection and audit, including, without limitation, travel, lodging and wage expenses, and reasonable accounting and legal costs. These remedies are in addition to any other remedies QRC may have.

15.5. All customer data, customer contact lists, sales, transaction and restaurant operating data is and will be owned exclusively by QRC. QRC may use that data in any manner that it deems appropriate, including, without limitation, providing general or consolidated financial or operating reports to existing and prospective franchisees and other third parties. QRC hereby licenses use of such data back to Franchisee for the term of this Agreement and only for use in connection with the operation of the Restaurant. Franchisee may not use the data for any purpose other than operating the Restaurant, or sell or transfer any of the above data except to a buyer as part of an approved Transfer. Franchisee shall comply with any standards and policies that QRC may issue relating to data used in the operation of the Restaurant. Franchisee shall immediately notify QRC of any possible or actual data breach.

16. PERSONNEL OF THE FRANCHISED RESTAURANT

16.1. Franchisee must choose one individual as the Designated Operator to oversee the operation of the Restaurant (and any other Qdoba restaurants franchised by Franchisee). The Designated Operator is subject to QRC's approval. If Franchisee is operating more than one Qdoba restaurant, then the Designated Operator must have at least three (3) years of multi-unit experience in the operation of restaurants. Franchisee hereby authorizes QRC to communicate with and give notice to Franchisee through the Designated Operator.

16.2. Franchisee must employ at all times a full-time General Manager who must have at least one (1) year of experience as a General Manager in the restaurant industry. That individual must make operating the Restaurant his/her sole employment, and dedicate his/her full efforts toward running the Restaurant.

16.3. The Designated Operator and General Manager must attend QRC's certified training program, as specified in Section 8.

16.4. The Designated Operator, the General Manager and other employees must attend such refresher courses, seminars and other training programs as QRC may reasonably require from time to time. QRC, in its sole discretion, may require that Franchisee send additional personnel to the certified training program or other training programs at Franchisee's own expense. For all training courses, seminars and programs, ancillary expenses, including but not limited to transportation, meals, lodging, wages and insurance will be the sole responsibility of Franchisee.

16.5. Franchisee must employ at all times a competent, conscientious, trained staff in sufficient numbers to optimize sales at the Franchised restaurant. Franchisee must take all necessary steps to ensure that all of its employees preserve and maintain good customer relations and comply with any dress code QRC prescribes.

16.6. Franchisee may not retain or otherwise contract with any third party to provide management services for the Restaurant unless such entity is either an employee of Franchisee or has been approved in writing by QRC. QRC may condition such approval on the receipt of a non-disclosure covenant from the third party.

16.7. All persons working for Franchisee are employees of Franchisee, not of the QRC. All rights and duties regarding recruiting, training, scheduling, supervising and paying employees belong to Franchisee. The QRC has no rights or duty to operate the Restaurant or direct Franchisee's employees.

17. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND HEALTH STANDARDS

17.1. Franchisee must meet and maintain the highest health standards and ratings applicable to the operation of the Restaurant. Franchisee must promptly inform QRC when health inspections occur. Franchisee must also furnish to QRC a copy of any inspection report, warning, citation, certificate or rating applicable to the health or safety standards in the operation of the Restaurant, within the time frame specified by QRC.

17.2. Franchisee must maintain the Restaurant in a high degree of cleanliness, repair and condition. Franchisee must make such additions, alterations, repairs and replacements at the Restaurant that QRC deems necessary for that purpose. All such work must be completed within a reasonable time, as specified by QRC.

17.3. Franchisee must at all times, at its own expense, conform to and comply with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, and applicable industry standards now in force or that are hereafter enacted affecting the operation of the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, wage and hour laws, labor laws, the Americans with Disability Act, OSHA, the Sherman Act, the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Clayton Act, and the USA PATRIOT Act; any security standards (such as the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard) imposed by the credit card or similar industries); and any similar federal, state, or local laws. Specifically, Franchisee shall not enter into any agreement or understanding with any competitor, including other Qdoba® franchisees, that would result in a restraint of trade in violation of federal, state, or local laws.

18. INSPECTIONS OF THE RESTAURANT

18.1. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that it must adhere to all specifications, standards and operating and inspection procedures prescribed from time to time by QRC in the Manual or otherwise communicated to Franchisee in writing. Franchisee also acknowledges and agrees that its failure to adhere to such specifications, standards, operating procedures and inspection procedures, or to pass QRC's quality control inspections, constitutes grounds for termination of this Agreement.

18.2. Franchisee must permit QRC or its agents, at any reasonable time, to remove samples of food or non-food items from Franchisee's inventory, or from the Restaurant, without payment therefor, in amounts reasonably necessary for testing by QRC or an independent laboratory to determine whether said samples meet QRC's then-current standards and specifications. In addition to any other remedies it may have under this Agreement, QRC may require Franchisee to bear the cost of such testing if the supplier of the item has not previously been approved by QRC or if the sample fails to conform with QRC's standards or specifications.

18.3. Franchisee must allow QRC and its agents to enter upon the Restaurant premises at any time, announced or unannounced, for the purpose of conducting inspections and audits. Franchisee must cooperate with QRC's representatives in such inspections and audits by rendering such assistance as they may reasonably request. Upon notice from QRC or its agents, and without limiting QRC's other rights under this Agreement, Franchisee must take such steps as necessary to immediately correct any deficiencies detected during any such inspection, and must reimburse QRC for the reasonable cost of a follow-up inspection. If Franchisee fails to correct deficiencies within a reasonable time, as determined by QRC, QRC may correct such deficiencies. Franchisee must reimburse QRC immediately upon demand for its reasonable expenses for doing so.

18.4. If the QRC reasonably determines through sources that include but are not limited to any health or safety notice to the public, administrative hearing by any local, state or federal health agency, or change in any food safety grade from passing to failing, that a threat or danger to public health or safety is likely to result from the continued construction or operation of the Franchised Restaurants, the QRC may, in its sole discretion, exercise its termination rights under Section 28 or take any lesser right, such as directing a temporary closure of the Restaurant until the situation can be corrected to QRC's satisfaction.

18.5. If the results of any inspection are unsatisfactory, Franchisee must reimburse QRC for the reasonable cost of a follow-up inspection.

19. GUARANTEES

19.1. QRC has the right to require all or certain of Franchisee's "Owners," as hereinafter defined, sign and deliver to QRC concurrently with this Agreement a guaranty of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement. In extraordinary circumstances, as reasonably determined by QRC, spouses (collectively, "Spouses") of Owners may also be required to sign a guaranty. The guaranty must be in the form of Guaranty and Assumption of Franchise Owner's Obligations ("Guaranty") attached hereto as Exhibit B.

19.2. The term "Owner" means each person or entity that has any indirect or direct equity interest in Franchisee.

19.3. All Transfers between Owners and to new Owners are subject to the "Transfer of Interest" provisions set forth in Section 25.2.

20. SECURITY INTEREST

20.1. To secure prompt and complete payment of the "Obligations," as hereinafter defined, Franchisee hereby grants to QRC a security interest in and to all Franchisee's assets of any kind or nature used or useful in connection with the ownership and operation of the Franchised Business, including without limitation, the following ("the Collateral"):

20.1.1. all equipment, furnishings, fixtures, merchandise, inventory, goods and other tangible personal property;

20.1.2. all accounts, accounts receivable, other receivables, contract rights, leases, software, chattel paper, and general intangibles;

20.1.3. all instruments, documents of title, policies and certificates of insurance, securities, bank deposits, bank accounts, and cash;

20.1.4. all books, records, and documents relating to any Collateral;

20.1.5. all permits, licenses, and franchises for the operation and ownership of the Franchised Business, and all rights incident or appurtenant to such licenses, authorizations and permits; and

20.1.6. all accession, additions, and improvements to, and all replacements, substitutions, and parts for, and all proceeds and products of the Collateral, including proceeds of insurance.

20.2. The Obligations include: all amounts owed by Franchisee to QRC from time to time under this Agreement or any other agreement between QRC and Franchisee; all interest payable under this Agreement; all costs and expenses incurred by QRC to enforce this Agreement and/or the security interest granted herein; and to collect the amount due hereunder; and any advances made by QRC to Franchisee.

20.3. Franchisee must, at its sole expense, sign and deliver to QRC such additional documents, instruments and agreements as reasonably required by QRC to create, maintain, perfect, or assure the priority of the security interest granted by this Agreement. QRC is hereby appointed as Franchisee's agent and attorney-in-fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest and will be irrevocable so long as any of the Obligations remain outstanding, to sign and deliver such documents, endorsements and instruments, and to take all such other action (to the maximum extent permitted by law) in the name of and on behalf of Franchisee as QRC may deem necessary or advisable to create, maintain, perfect, assure the priority of, or foreclose, its security interest in and lien of the Collateral.

20.4. Upon request, QRC will sign and deliver to Franchisee its standard Consent and Subordination Agreement, to subordinate its security interest in the Collateral (other than the Franchise) to an institutional lender that is lending funds to Franchisee or its Affiliate for purposes relating to the acquisition or improvement of the Franchised Business.

21. OWNERSHIP AND USE OF MARKS

21.1. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that QRC owns the Proprietary Marks, including any variations and modification of them, that Franchisee has no interest whatsoever in or to the Proprietary Marks, and that Franchisee's right to use the Proprietary Marks is derived solely from this Agreement, and is limited by the terms of this Agreement and all applicable specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed by QRC from time to time. Any unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks by Franchisee will constitute an infringement of the rights of QRC in and to the Proprietary Marks.

21.2. Franchisee may not use any Proprietary Mark as part of any corporate or trade name or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols, or in any modified form. Franchisee may not use any Proprietary Marks in connection with any business or activity other than the Franchised Business or in any manner not explicitly authorized in writing by QRC. Franchisee may not establish a website or domain name that in any way uses or incorporates a Proprietary Mark, or links to QRC's website, without the prior written consent of QRC.

21.3. Franchisee agrees that any goodwill established by Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks or System will inure to the exclusive benefit of QRC, and Franchisee acknowledges that this Agreement does not confer upon Franchisee any goodwill or interests in the Proprietary Marks or System.

21.4. Franchisee must not, during the term of this Agreement or after its termination or expiration, contest the validity or ownership of any of the Proprietary Marks or assist any other person in contesting the validity or ownership of any of the Proprietary Marks.

21.5. All provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Proprietary Marks will apply to any additional trademarks, service marks, logo forms and commercial symbols that QRC hereafter authorizes Franchisee to use in connection with the Franchised Business.

21.6. Franchisee agrees to use the Proprietary Marks as the sole identification of the Restaurant; however, Franchisee must identify himself as the independent owner at the Restaurant in the manner prescribed by QRC. Franchisee agrees to display the Proprietary Marks prominently and in the manner prescribed by QRC on signs, menus and forms. Franchisee shall maintain and display such signs (including menu panels, posters or similar items) as required by QRC from time to time. Franchisee shall only display or use such signs at the Restaurant premises or as permitted by QRC for directional or similar signage for the Restaurant or to identify Franchisee's corporate offices. Franchisee shall not place additional signs, menu panels, posters or similar items on the Restaurant premises. Franchisee shall promptly discontinue the use of and destroy such items as are declared non-conforming or obsolete by QRC, or, in the case of termination, as required according to the post-termination obligations set forth herein. Further, Franchisee agrees to give such notices of trademark and service mark registrations and copyrights as QRC specifies, and to obtain such fictitious or assumed name registrations as may be required under applicable law.

21.7. Failure to comply strictly with any and all provisions regarding use of the Marks in this Section 21 will be grounds for termination of this Agreement without the opportunity to cure, as more fully set forth in Section 28. Additionally, Franchisee understands and acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of Section 21 will result in substantial injury and damage to QRC for which there is no adequate remedy at law. For these reasons, if Franchisee violates or threatens to violate any term of this provision, the QRC will be entitled to, in addition to any other remedies and damages available, injunctive or other equitable relief, to restrain the violation of this provision by Franchisee and its agents or employees. Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable legal fees incurred by QRC in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of Section 21, in addition to any other claims to which QRC may be entitled.

21.8. If QRC determines, in its sole discretion, that it is advisable for QRC and/or Franchisee to modify or discontinue use of any Proprietary Mark, or use one or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks, Franchisee agrees to comply with QRC directives regarding the use of such Marks within a reasonable time as established by QRC. The sole liability and obligation of QRC in any such event will be to reimburse Franchisee for the out-of-pocket costs of complying with this obligation.

21.9. Franchisee must immediately notify QRC in writing if Franchisee becomes aware of any apparent infringement or imitation of any Mark, any challenge to Franchisee's use of any Mark, any claim by any person of any rights in any Mark, or existence of any similar trade name, trademark or service mark. Franchisee may not communicate with any person, other than QRC and its counsel, in connection with any infringement, challenge or claim, except as otherwise required by law. QRC has the exclusive right to control any litigation, trademark proceeding or other legal or administrative proceeding relating to any Proprietary Mark, and sole discretion to take such action as it deems appropriate. Franchisee agrees to sign any and all instruments and documents, render such assistance and do such acts and things as QRC deems necessary or advisable to protect and maintain the interests of QRC in any such litigation or proceeding, or to otherwise protect and maintain the interests of QRC in the Marks.

21.10. QRC agrees to indemnify Franchisee against, and to reimburse Franchisee for, all damages for which Franchisee is held liable in any proceeding in which Franchisee's use of any Proprietary Mark pursuant to and in compliance with this Agreement is held to constitute trademark infringement, unfair competition or dilution, and for all costs reasonably incurred by Franchisee in the defense of any such claim brought against it or in any such proceeding in which it is named as a party, provided that Franchisee has timely notified QRC of such claim or proceeding, has otherwise complied with this Agreement, and has tendered complete control of the defense of such to QRC. If QRC defends such claim, QRC will have no obligation to indemnify or reimburse Franchisee with respect to any fees or disbursements of any attorney retained by Franchisee.

21.11. All promotional materials, advertising materials, discoveries, inventions, ideas, business methods or improvements (whether or not patentable or capable of being copyrighted) relating to or arising from the operation of a Qdoba restaurant, whether created by Franchisee, Franchisee's Owners or their agents and independent contractors, must be promptly disclosed by Franchisee to QRC, and will be QRC's sole and exclusive property. If applicable, those items will be deemed to be works made-for-hire for QRC. To the extent the works may not be deemed "works made for hire" under applicable law, Franchisee hereby irrevocably assigns to QRC, for no additional consideration, all right, title and interest in and to any patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets and any other proprietary rights.

21.12. Franchisee and its Owners will sign, and cause their agents and independent contractors to sign, whatever assignment or other documents QRC requests to evidence QRC's ownership and to assist QRC in obtaining copyright registrations or patent rights. Franchisee and its Owners (if applicable) will use such items solely in connection with activities permitted under this Agreement, and will not use any substantially similar material for any purpose during or after the term of this Agreement.

22. CASUALTY LOSSES

22.1. If the Restaurant premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, or if Franchisee is required by any governmental authority to repair or reconstruct the premises, Franchisee must repair or reconstruct the premises in accordance with QRC's then-current design standards. Such repair or reconstruction must be completed within a reasonable time in light of the circumstances. If the repairs or reconstruction cannot be completed within ninety days after the casualty loss, then Franchisee will have thirty days after such event in which to apply for QRC's approval to relocate the Restaurant or for additional time to reconstruct the premises. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld, but may be conditioned upon the payment of an agreed-upon minimum royalty while the restaurant is not in operation.

23. INSURANCE

23.1. During the term of this Agreement, Franchisee must obtain and maintain in full force and effect, at his own expense, such insurance coverages as may be required of Franchisees by QRC. Such requirements will be specified in the Manual, or may be specified in any lease agreement between QRC and Franchisee or otherwise provided to Franchisee in writing by QRC. Before the opening of the Restaurant and thereafter, throughout the term of this Agreement, Franchisee must furnish to QRC evidence satisfactory to QRC that such insurance coverages are in effect in the form of Certificates of Insurance, any insurance policy endorsements and a copy of the Franchisee's insurance policy(ies). Renewal Certificates of Insurance must be delivered to QRC thirty days before the expiration date of all policies. All deductible amounts on all insurance policies required under this Agreement must be disclosed in writing to, and approved by, QRC and noted on the applicable Certificate of Insurance. The insurance requirements, including but not limited to coverages and policy limits, may be increased or modified from time to time by QRC at its sole discretion, as may be more particularly set out in (or modified by) the Manual.

24. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

24.1. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that QRC has invested, and continues to invest, considerable sums of money in developing the System. Because of the competitive nature of the restaurant business, and to protect the legitimate interest of QRC and other franchisees, it is necessary to protect certain information about the System as confidential.

24.2. For purposes of this provision, "Confidential Information" includes product recipes and tests, ingredients used in QRC's products, product preparation procedures, customer service measures and techniques, franchise support procedures, supplier relationship and distribution system information, new product development information, the Manual, financial data, growth plans or strategies, real estate development plans or strategies, restaurant design plans, proposed restaurant sites, equipment, computer systems, business and development plans and strategies, training programs, consumer research results, marketing and advertising strategies and materials, customer data, customer contact lists, sales, transaction and restaurant operating data, and all other information designated by QRC as confidential.

24.3. Confidential Information does not include: (a) information, concepts, methods, procedures or techniques that are, or become, generally known in the quick-service and quick-casual restaurant industries in the United States, other than through disclosure by Franchisee whether deliberate or inadvertent; (b) the disclosure of Confidential Information in judicial or administrative proceedings to the extent that Franchisee is legally compelled to disclose such information, provided that Franchisee has afforded QRC the opportunity to obtain an appropriate protective order or other assurance that the information will be treated as confidential; or (c) information that Franchisee can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by QRC other than in connection with a violation of a confidentiality or non-disclosure agreement.

24.4. Franchisee will be provided with Confidential Information in connection with its development and/or operation of the Franchised Business. Franchisee agrees that both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Franchisee: (a) will use the Confidential Information only in the operation of the Franchised Business, and not in connection with any other business; (b) will not make copies of, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information without the express written consent of QRC; (c) will not communicate, divulge or disclose the Confidential Information to any person or entity who does not need access to it to operate the Franchised Business; and (d) will not use the Confidential Information, or allow it to be used, for the benefit of any third party.

24.5. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that all Confidential Information is, and will remain, the sole and exclusive proprietary property of QRC.

24.6. QRC requires that all Owners in Franchisee or the Franchised Business sign the Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement attached as Exhibit C.

24.7. QRC requires Franchisee to obtain from all management personnel and all independent contractors who may have access to Confidential Information, as a condition of their employment, covenants that they will maintain the confidentiality of all Confidential Information that they receive in connection with their employment by Franchisee. Such covenants will be in a form satisfactory to QRC, including, without limitation, listing QRC as a party for the purposes of enforcing such covenants or specific identification of QRC as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them. Franchisee may be required to provide QRC with copies of all such covenants.

24.8. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Section 24 will result in substantial injury and damage to QRC for which there is no adequate remedy at law. For these reasons, if Franchisee violates or threatens to violate any term of this provision, the QRC will be entitled to, in addition to any other remedies and damages available, injunctive or other equitable relief, to restrain the violation of this provision by Franchisee and its agents or employees. Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable legal fees incurred by QRC in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Section 24, in addition to any other claims to which QRC may be entitled.

25. TRANSFER OF INTEREST

25.1. TRANSFER BY QRC

QRC may transfer or assign this Agreement, any ownership interest in QRC, and all or any part of QRC's rights or obligations herein to any person or legally formed entity. Any such assignment will inure to the benefit of any assignee or other legal successor to the interest of QRC. QRC may, in its sole discretion, elect to have designees perform the obligations of QRC under this Agreement.

25.2. TRANSFER BY FRANCHISEE

25.2.1. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee (or if Franchisee is a legally formed entity, Franchisee's Owners, as defined in Section 19.2), and that QRC has granted this franchise in reliance upon Franchisee's business skill, financial capacity and personal character. Accordingly, neither Franchisee nor any Owner may sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage or otherwise encumber ("Transfer") any direct or indirect interest in Franchisee, this Agreement or the Franchised Business, or permit such a Transfer, without the prior written consent of QRC. Any purported Transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, not having the written consent of QRC required by this Section 25, will be null and void, and will constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

25.2.2. QRC may not unreasonably withhold its consent to a Transfer of any interest in Franchisee, this Agreement or in the Franchised Business; however, QRC may require any or all of the following as conditions of its approval:

25.2.2.1. All of the accrued monetary obligations and all other outstanding obligations of Franchisee, its Owners and Affiliates to QRC and its Affiliates must have been satisfied.

25.2.2.2. Franchisee, its Owners and Affiliates must not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, or any other agreement with QRC or its Affiliates.

25.2.2.3. Franchisee must remain liable for all of the obligations to QRC in connection with the Franchised Business prior to the effective date of the transfer, and must sign any and all instruments reasonably requested by QRC to evidence such liability.

25.2.2.4. At the time of Transfer, Franchisee and each Owner must sign a general release, in a form satisfactory to QRC, releasing any and all claims against QRC and its Affiliates, including their officers, directors, shareholders and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state and local laws, rules and ordinances, and unknown claims.

25.2.2.5. The transferee or Franchisee, at its expense, must comply with all maintenance and repair requirements, as well as all Refresh and Reimage requirements, described in this Agreement, including, without limitation, the requirements of Sections 11.2 and 11.3 above. To the extent any Refresh or Reimage is required, or if the Accepted Location is not in first-class condition and repair, or is not otherwise in compliance with the standards and requirements of the System at the time of transfer, then the transferee or Franchisee, at its expense, must promptly and diligently perform all necessary maintenance, repairs and replacements to the Restaurant as QRC may prescribe, in accordance with any timeline required under this Agreement or otherwise established by QRC.

25.2.2.6. At the time of Transfer, transferee must complete a Certificate of Ownership form.

25.2.2.7. The transferee must enter into a written assumption agreement in a form satisfactory to QRC, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement and such ancillary agreements as QRC may require. Alternately, and at QRC's option, the transferee must sign (and upon QRC's request, must cause all interested parties to sign) the standard form franchise agreement then in use for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement, and with such renewal term as may be provided by this Agreement, and such ancillary agreements as QRC may require, including a Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement. The terms of such agreements may differ from the terms of this Agreement, and will supersede this Agreement in all respects. The differences may include, without limitation, a higher percentage royalty fee, marketing fee, local advertising obligation, and/or a smaller Protected Territory, Delivery Boundaries and/or Catering Solicitation Boundaries.

25.2.2.8. The transferee must complete all necessary applications and must demonstrate to QRC's satisfaction that it meets QRC's then-existing financial, educational, managerial and business standards. This includes possessing a good moral character, business reputation and credit rating, having the aptitude and ability to conduct the Franchised Business (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise), and having adequate financial resources and capital to operate the business.

25.2.2.9. The transferee and the proposed Owners and their Spouses, as applicable, must guarantee the performance of all obligations under this Agreement by signing the form of Guaranty attached hereto as Exhibit B.

25.2.2.10. As part of a Transfer of the more than 50% of the ownership interest in the Franchised Business or substantially all of its assets, Franchisee must also transfer all customer data, customer contact lists, and transaction data relating to the Restaurant, and relinquish all rights thereto.

25.2.2.11. At the transferee's expense, the transferee and (at QRC's request) transferee's personnel, must satisfactorily complete the training requirements set forth in Section 8, and must complete any training programs then in effect for franchisees upon such terms and conditions as QRC may reasonably require.

25.2.2.12. Except in the case of a Transfer to a corporation, limited liability company or partnership formed for the convenience of ownership, and having the same Owners and ownership structure as Franchisee's, or Transfers among existing Owners, Franchisee must pay a transfer fee of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) per franchised restaurant.

25.2.2.13. Franchisee and transferee must agree that any note issued by the transferee to Franchisee in connection with the purchase of the Restaurant will be subordinate to transferee's obligations to pay royalties or any other amounts due QRC or its Affiliates;

25.2.2.14. Franchisee and transferee must acknowledge in writing that QRC's approval of the proposed Transfer does not constitute a representation, guaranty or warranty, express or implied, of the suitability of the terms of the proposed Transfer, of the capabilities of the Transferee, or of the successful operation of any Restaurant; however, QRC may withhold consent to a transfer if it believes the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer would adversely affect the possibility of success of the business in light of the conditions under which it is to be purchased.

25.2.3. Franchisee must not grant a security interest in the Franchised Business or in any of its assets unless the secured party agrees that if Franchisee defaults under any documents related to the security interest, QRC will have the right to prior notice and the option to be substituted as obligor to the secured party and to cure any default of transferee.

25.2.4. QRC agrees not to limit the number of non-guarantor Owners ("Passive Investors"), subject to execution of confidentiality agreements by all such Passive Investors, and further subject to Franchisee and any guarantors remaining responsible for compliance with all applicable laws, including, without limitation, securities, Patriot Act, and OFAC regulations. Franchisee may be required to provide written certification to QRC of Franchisee's and all Passive Investors' compliance with all applicable laws, and Franchisee acknowledges that claims arising from any violation are covered by the indemnity provisions set forth in this Agreement. QRC will also require that Franchisee represent, warrant and certify that they will not share confidential information with any Passive Investors. QRC will have the right to audit all Passive Investors, and any failure to comply with all applicable laws and regulations by Franchisee or any Passive Investor, or any breach by Franchisee of any representations, warranties or certifications required hereunder, may result in termination in accordance with Section 28 below.

25.2.5. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that each of the foregoing conditions is necessary to assure transferee's full performance of the obligations under this Agreement.

25.2.6. QRC's consent to a transfer of any interest in Franchisee, this Agreement or the Franchised Business will not constitute a waiver of any claims QRC may have against the Franchisee or the transferring party, nor will it be deemed a waiver of QRC's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferee.

26. QRC'S RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

26.1. Franchisee and/or any Owner who desires to accept any bona fide offer from a third party to purchase all or part of an interest in the Franchised Business (hereinafter referred to as "Seller"), must notify QRC in writing of each such offer forty-five days before the proposed sale. Seller must provide such information and documentation relating to the proposed purchaser and the offer as QRC may require. QRC will have the right and option to purchase the Seller's interest at QRC's sole discretion, at the price offered by the third party. QRC will inform Seller of its intent to exercise the option within thirty days after receipt of all pertinent sales information from Seller. If the proposed transaction includes assets of Franchisee not related to the operation of the Franchised Business, QRC may at its discretion exercise its option only with respect to the interest of the Franchised Business. In such event, an equitable purchase price will be allocated to each asset included in the proposed transaction. If QRC elects to purchase the Seller's interest, QRC may require the purchase to close within thirty days from the date of notice to the Seller of QRC's election to purchase.

26.2. Any material change in the terms of any offer prior to closing will constitute a new offer, and will be subject to QRC's right of first refusal as though it were an initial offer.

26.3. Failure of QRC to exercise the option afforded by this Section 26 will not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement relating to proposed transfers, including any of the requirements of this Section 26.

26.4. If QRC exercises its right of first refusal, the sale agreement must contain customary representations and warranties given by the Seller including, without limitation, representations and warranties as to ownership, condition of and title to stock and assets, liens and encumbrances relating to the stock and assets, validity of contracts and verification of financial statements.

27. DEATH OR DISABILITY OF FRANCHISEE

27.1. Upon the death or permanent disability of a Designated Operator, the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative of such person, or the remaining members, shareholders or partners, must select a new Designated Operator within a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of death or permanent disability. The new Designated Operator is subject to the QRC's approval, and must attend and satisfactorily complete QRC's initial training program. If the Restaurant is not being overseen by an approved Designated Operator within 30 days after death or permanent disability, QRC is authorized, but is not required, to immediately appoint a manager to maintain the operations of the Restaurant for and on behalf of Franchisee until an approved Designated Operator is able to assume the management and operation of the Restaurant, but not to exceed nine months. QRC's appointment of a manager of the Restaurant will not relieve Franchisee of its obligations under this Agreement, and QRC will not be liable for any debts, losses, costs or expenses incurred in the operations of the Restaurant or to any creditor of Franchisee for any products, materials, supplies or services purchased by the Restaurant during any period in which it is managed by QRC-appointed manager. QRC will provide Franchisee with monthly updates regarding the operation of the Restaurant. If, after nine months, a new certified manager is not operating the Restaurant, the QRC may terminate this Agreement. QRC may charge, and Franchisee must pay, a reasonable fee for such management services, and QRC may cease to provide such management services at any time.

27.2. Upon the death or permanent disability of any Owner, the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative of such person must transfer that individual's interest in Franchised Business within a reasonable time, not to exceed 12 months from the date of death or permanent disability, to a person approved by QRC. Such transfers, including, without limitation, transfers by devise or will, are subject to all the terms and conditions for assignments and transfers contained in Section 25 of this Agreement. Failure to transfer such interest within the required period of time will constitute grounds for termination of this Agreement.

28. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

28.1. Immediate Termination. Franchisee will be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and all rights granted herein will immediately terminate automatically and without notice to Franchisee if any of the following events occur:

28.1.1. Franchisee makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors.

28.1.2. Franchisee commences a voluntary petition under bankruptcy, insolvency or any similar law; or an involuntary case under bankruptcy or insolvency or similar law is filed against Franchisee and is either unopposed by Franchisee or is not dismissed within thirty days of filing; or an order or decree for relief under bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws is entered regarding Franchisee. Franchisee expressly waives all rights under the provisions of the bankruptcy or other applicable laws and rules, and consents to the immediate termination of this Agreement as provided herein. Franchisee agrees not to seek an order from any court, tribunal or agency in any jurisdiction relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or any similar proceedings that would have the effect of staying or enjoining this provision.

28.1.3. A bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Franchisee or other custodian for Franchisee's business or assets or real or personal property is filed by, consented to, or not opposed by Franchisee.

28.1.4. Franchisee becomes insolvent in that: (a) Franchisee generally fails, or is generally unable, to pay its obligations as they become due in the regular course of business; or (b) the value of Franchisee's assets are less than the value of its liabilities.

28.1.5. If Franchisee is a corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other legal entity and Franchisee is dissolved or its existence otherwise terminated.

28.1.6. Execution is levied against the franchise, the Franchised Business or property or the Restaurant premises, and not discharged with five days.

28.1.7. A suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the Restaurant premises or equipment is instituted and not dismissed or bonded around within thirty days.

28.1.8. Franchisee at any time ceases to operate the Franchised Business for a period of five consecutive days, or otherwise abandons the Franchised Business.

28.2. Termination Upon Notice. Franchisee will be deemed to be in default, and QRC may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted under this Agreement upon any of the following grounds. Termination will become effective immediately upon notice to Franchisee.

28.2.1. QRC reasonably determines that a threat or danger to public health or safety is likely to result from the construction, maintenance or operation of the Restaurant.

28.2.2. Franchisee, Operator, Designated Operator, or any shareholder, member, partner, owner, director or officer of Franchisee, is charged with, convicted of, or pleads no contest to, any crime or offense that QRC reasonably believes, in its sole discretion, is likely to have an adverse effect on the System, the franchisees operating under the System, the Proprietary Marks, the goodwill associated therewith, or QRC's interest therein.

28.2.3. Franchisee discloses, makes any unauthorized duplicates of, or otherwise improperly divulges or uses the contents of the Manual or other confidential information provided to Franchisee by QRC contrary to the terms of Sections 10 or 24 of this Agreement.

28.2.4. A final judgment remains unsatisfied or of record for thirty days or longer (unless appeal bond has been filed).

28.2.5. Franchisee maintains false books or records, or submits any reports or information to QRC or any governmental agency or lender that contains any materially inaccurate, incomplete or misleading statements, or omits any fact necessary in order to make the statements made not misleading.

28.2.6. Franchisee fails on three or more separate occasions within any trailing twenty-four (24) month period to comply with this Agreement, or to execute QRC's standards as outlined in the Manual as measured by QRC's restaurant inspections, whether or not such failures are corrected after notice of default is given. For clarity, QRC may terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of the third default in any twenty-four month (24) period under this Section.

28.2.7. For a default not covered by Section 28.2.8, Franchisee fails on three (3) or more separate occasions within any trailing twenty-four (24) month period to comply with the same requirement under this Agreement, whether or not such failure to comply is corrected after notice of default is given. For clarity, QRC may terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of the third default in any twenty-four month period under this Section.

28.2.8. Franchisee fails on three (3) or more separate occasions within any trailing twelve (12) month period to any food safety or health inspection as measured by QRC's restaurant inspections, whether or not such failures are corrected after notice of default is given. For clarity, QRC may terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of the third default in any twelve-month (12) period under this Section.

28.2.9. Franchisee has made material misrepresentations or omissions in Franchisee's franchise application or this Agreement.

28.2.10. Franchisee makes any unauthorized use of the Marks or fails to strictly comply with the terms set forth in Sections 1 or 21 of this Agreement.

28.2.11. Franchisee purports to terminate this Agreement without cause.

28.2.12. Franchisee loses the right to possess the premises or the Accepted Location.

28.3. Termination After Opportunity to Cure. Franchisee will be deemed to be in default, and QRC may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted under this Agreement upon any of the following grounds. If the condition is susceptible of being cured, Franchisee must correct the condition within the period specified below, or termination will be effective at the conclusion of the cure period.

28.3.1. Franchisee fails to make any payment required under this Agreement. Franchisee will have 10 days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.2. Franchisee fails to maintain and/or operate the Franchised Business in accordance with the standards and specifications, including, but not limited to, selling any product that Franchisee knows or should know does not conform to QRC's specifications, failing to sell any product required by QRC, or selling any product that is not approved by QRC. Franchisee will have 5 days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.3. Franchisee fails to construct and open the Franchised Business within the time limits as provided in Sections 6 and 7 of the Agreement. Franchisee will have thirty days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.4. Franchisee loses the right to do or transact business in the jurisdiction where the Restaurant is located. Franchisee will have five days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.5. Franchisee or any Owner purports to transfer any rights or obligations under this Agreement or any interest in Franchisee to any third party in violation of the terms of Section 25 of this Agreement. Franchisee will have five days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.6. Franchisee fails to comply with the in-term restrictions in Section 30 of this Agreement or fails to obtain execution of the covenants required under that Section. Franchisee will have five days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.7. Franchisee denies QRC's right to inspect, examine or audit the Franchised Restaurant or the Franchisee's books. Franchisee will have five days after receiving written notice to cure such condition.

28.3.8. Franchisee fails to submit any financial statement or report when required, or his submission is incorrect or incomplete. Franchisee will have thirty days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.9. Franchisee fails to pay any federal or state income, sales or other taxes due on the Restaurant's operations, unless Franchisee is in good faith contesting liability for such taxes. Franchisee will have five days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.10. Franchisee violates any federal labor laws. Franchisee shall have five days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.11. Franchisee fails to keep the business open and in normal operation for such hours and days as QRC may from time to time specify in the Manual or as QRC may otherwise specify or approve in writing. Franchisee will have five days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.12. Franchisee fails to make regular payments to QRC or any vendor for any monies due and owing. Franchisee will have thirty (30) days to correct such condition.

28.3.13. Franchisee fails to commence repair or restoration of the Restaurant after damage or destruction as provided in Section 22, or fails to insure the Restaurant as provided in Section 23. Franchisee will have thirty days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.14. Franchisee fails to comply with any provision of this Agreement not specified in this Section 28. Franchisee will have thirty days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

28.3.15. Franchisee or any Affiliate of Franchisee commits a default under any agreement with QRC or its Affiliates (other than this Agreement or a Qdoba development agreement) and the default is not cured within the cure period specified in that agreement, if any.

28.4. If any applicable law or rule requires greater prior notice of termination, the prior notice required by such law or rule will be substituted for the notice requirements specified above.

28.5. If Franchisee and its owners are in compliance with this Agreement and QRC fails to comply with this Agreement, Franchisee must provide QRC with written notice thereof. If QRC fails to comply with a material term of this agreement and either (a) fails to cure such default within 30 days after written notice thereof is delivered to QRC or, (b) if the failure cannot be corrected within 30 days, and QRC fails to provide proof acceptable to Franchisee of efforts that are reasonably calculated to correct such failure within a reasonable time, which will in no event be more than 120 days after such notice, Franchisee may terminate this Agreement. Such termination will become effective 10 days after delivery to QRC of notice of termination. A termination of this Agreement by Franchisee for any other reason or without such notice will be deemed a termination by Franchisee without cause.

29. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted under this Agreement to Franchisee will immediately terminate, and Franchisee has the following obligations:

29.1. Franchisee must immediately cease to operate the Franchised Business and must not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent itself to the public as a present or former franchisee of QRC.

29.2. Franchisee must immediately and permanently cease to use, in any manner whatsoever, any confidential methods, procedures and techniques associated with the System, the Proprietary Marks and distinctive forms, slogans, signs, symbols and devices associated with the System, including but not limited to signage, menu boards, art as specified in the Manual, trade dress, interior image, and packaging, advertising materials, displays, stationery, forms and any other articles which display the Proprietary Marks.

29.3. Franchisee must immediately make all changes to the Restaurant premises as QRC specifies.

29.4. Franchisee must immediately deliver to QRC all operations-related documents, including the Manual, all customer data and customer contact lists, and all other records and documents containing confidential information.

29.5. Franchisee must take all necessary action to cancel any assumed name or equivalent registration that contains any service mark or trademark of QRC, and Franchisee must furnish QRC with evidence satisfactory to QRC of compliance with this obligation within five days after termination or expiration of this Agreement.

29.6. Franchisee must discharge any and all indebtedness to the Suppliers and other vendors of products or services.

29.7. Franchisee must, at QRC's option, assign to QRC Franchisee's interest in any lease or sublease for the premises of the Franchised Business in accordance with the terms of the Lease. If QRC elects to exercise its option to acquire the lease or sublease for the premises of the Franchised Business, Franchisee must take all necessary action to transfer the business telephone numbers and listings to QRC or to cancel the telephone numbers, at QRC's option.

29.8. If QRC does not exercise its option to acquire the lease or sublease for the premises of the Franchised Business, Franchisee must immediately upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, make such modifications or alterations to the premises (including, without limitation, the changing of the telephone number) as may be necessary to distinguish the appearance of said premises from that of other restaurants under the System, and Franchisee must make such specific changes to the premises as QRC may reasonably request for that purpose. If Franchisee fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of this Section 29, QRC and its agents may enter upon the premises without being guilty of trespass or any other tort, to make such changes as may be required, at the expense of Franchisee, which expense Franchisee agrees to pay upon demand.

29.9. Franchisee must not sell, transfer, assign or sublease the premises to any Competitive Business, as defined in Section 5.2.11 of this Agreement.

29.10. If Franchisee continues to operate, or subsequently begins to operate, any other business, it must not use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation of the Proprietary Marks, either in connection with such other business or the promotion thereof, that is likely to cause confusion, mistake or deception, or that is likely to dilute QRC's rights in and to the Proprietary Marks. Franchisee further agrees not to use any designation of origin or description or representation that falsely suggests or represents an association or connection with QRC. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Section 29 will result in substantial injury and damage to QRC for which there is no adequate remedy at law. For these reasons, if Franchisee violates or threatens to violate any term of this provision, the QRC will be entitled to, in addition to any other remedies and damages available, injunctive or other equitable relief, to restrain the violation of this provision by Franchisee and its agents or employees. Franchisee agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable legal fees incurred by QRC in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Section 29, in addition to any other claims to which QRC may be entitled.

29.11. Franchisee must promptly pay all sums owing to QRC and its Affiliates. In the event of termination for any default of Franchisee, such sums will include all damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable legal fees, incurred by QRC as a result of the default. That obligation will give rise to a lien in favor of QRC against any and all of the personal property, furnishings, equipment, signs, fixtures and inventory owned by Franchisee and on the Restaurant premises at the time of default, and will remain a lien until the obligation is paid in full.

29.12. Franchisee must pay to QRC all damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable legal fees, incurred by QRC after the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement.

29.13. QRC has the option, to be exercised within thirty days after termination, to purchase from Franchisee any or all of the furnishings, equipment, signs, fixtures, supplies or inventory relating to the operation of the Franchised Business, at their fair market value. "Fair market value" will be determined by taking into account the termination or expiration of the franchise granted under this Agreement and will not include any factor or increment for any trademarks, service marks or other commercial symbols used in connection with the operation of the Restaurant or any goodwill or "going concern" value for the Restaurant. If the parties cannot agree on a fair market value within a reasonable time, the parties will designate an independent appraiser whose determination will be binding. If QRC elects to exercise the option provided in this Section 29, it may set off all amounts due from Franchisee, and the cost of the appraisal, if any, against any payment to be made by QRC.

29.14. All obligations of QRC, Franchisee and Owners that expressly or by their nature survive or are intended to survive the expiration, termination or assignment of this Agreement, including but not limited to provisions in Sections 19, 24 and 30, will continue in full force and effect after and notwithstanding its expiration or termination or assignment, until those obligations are satisfied in full or by their nature expire.

29.15. Franchisee shall also provide to QRC, upon request, evidence satisfactory to QRC that Franchisee has complied with the obligations in this Section 29.

29.16. Franchisee must comply with the restrictions contained in Section 30 of this Agreement.

30. RESTRICTIONS ON OTHER BUSINESS INTERESTS

30.1. During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by QRC, Franchisee must devote best efforts to the management and operation of the Franchised Business.

30.2. Franchisee acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee will receive valuable specialized training and confidential information, including without limitation, information regarding the development, operational, sales, promotional and marketing methods and techniques of QRC and the System. During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by QRC, Franchisee may not, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation:

30.2.1. Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the business franchised under this Agreement to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks and the System.

30.3. During the term of this Agreement, Franchisee, any shareholder of Franchisee if Franchisee is a corporation, any member of Franchisee if Franchisee is a limited liability company, and any partner of Franchisee if Franchisee is a partnership, may not either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any Competitive Business, as defined in Section 5.2.11. Notwithstanding the foregoing, passive partners, as defined by QRC from time to time in its sole discretion, shall be exempt from such restrictions.

30.4. For a continuous period of two years after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause for the termination, Franchisee, any shareholder of Franchisee if Franchisee is a corporation, any member of Franchisee if Franchisee is a limited liability company, and any partner of Franchisee if Franchisee is a partnership, may not either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any Competitive Business, which business is, or is intended to be, located: i) at the Accepted Location, ii) within five (5) miles of the Accepted Location; or iii) within five (5) miles of any Qdoba restaurant existing at the time of the termination or expiration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, passive partners, as defined by QRC from time to time in its sole discretion, shall be exempt from such restrictions.

30.5. Sections 30.3 and 30.4 above do not apply to ownership by Franchisee of less than one percent beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any publicly held corporation.

30.6. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Section 30 is found unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, Franchisee expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Section 30.

30.7. QRC has the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or any portion thereof, without Franchisee's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Franchisee of written notice thereof. Franchisee agrees that it will comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified, and that the covenant will be fully enforceable, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 32.6 of this Agreement.

30.8. Franchisee expressly agrees that the existence of any claims it may have against QRC, whether or not arising from this Agreement, will not constitute a defense to QRC's enforcement of the covenants in this Section 30.

30.9. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee's violation of the terms of this Section 30 would result in irreparable injury to QRC for which no adequate remedy at law may be available. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that QRC may obtain an injunction prohibiting any conduct by Franchisee in violation of the terms of this Section 30.

30.10. At QRC's request, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, Franchisee must require and obtain covenants similar to those set forth in this Section 30 (including covenants applicable upon the termination of a person's relationship with Franchisee) from any or all of the following persons: (1) all managers of Franchisee and any other personnel employed by Franchisee who have received or will receive training from QRC; and (2) all Owners.

31. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

31.1. It is understood and agreed by the parties that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them, and that QRC and Franchisee are independent contractors. Other than as set forth in Section 19, nothing in this Agreement is intended to make either party an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever.

31.2. During the term of this Agreement, Franchisee must hold itself out to the public as an independent contractor operating the business pursuant to a franchise from QRC. Franchisee agrees to take such actions as may be necessary to do so, including, but not limited to, exhibiting a notice of that fact in a conspicuous place in the franchised premises, the content of which QRC reserves the right to specify.

31.3. Nothing in this Agreement authorizes Franchisee to make any contract, agreement, warranty or representation on QRC's behalf, or to incur any debt or other obligation in QRC's name. QRC will not assume liability for, or be deemed liable as a result of, any such action; nor will QRC be liable by reason of any act or omission of Franchisee in its conduct of the Franchised Business or for any claim or judgment arising therefrom.

31.4. Franchisee is responsible for all losses, damages, and liabilities, whether contractual, statutory or otherwise, to third persons arising out of or in connection with the development, construction, possession, ownership or operation of the Franchised Business, including employment-related claims, and for all claims or demands for damages to property, or for injury, illness or death of persons directly or indirectly resulting therefrom. Franchisee must defend, indemnify and hold harmless QRC and its Affiliates and their agents from all such claims, demands, losses, obligations, costs, legal fees, expenses, liabilities, debts or damages directly or indirectly resulting therefrom, unless resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of QRC. If such claims are asserted against QRC or its Affiliates or their agents, QRC will notify Franchisee, and Franchisee will assume the defense of such claims. If Franchisee fails to assume the defense, then QRC may defend in such manner as it deems appropriate. Franchisee must reimburse QRC for all costs, including legal fees, and the reasonable value of time spent by corporate counsel, incurred by QRC or its Affiliates in effecting such defense, in addition to any sum that QRC or its Affiliates may incur by reason of any settlement or judgment. QRC's right to defense and indemnification hereunder will exist, notwithstanding that its joint or concurrent liability may be imposed on QRC by law.

32. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

32.1. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS

32.1.1. Whenever this Agreement requires the prior approval or consent of QRC, Franchisee must make a timely written request to QRC for such approval or consent. All such approvals or consents must be obtained in writing.

32.1.2. QRC makes no warranties or guarantees upon which Franchisee may rely in connection with this Agreement.

32.1.3. No delay, omission or forbearance on the part of QRC to exercise any right, option, duty or power constitutes a waiver by QRC to enforce any such right, option, duty or power as against Franchisee; nor does any such delay, omission, or forbearance constitute a waiver of any breach or default by Franchisee. QRC's acceptance of any payments due to it under this Agreement will not be deemed to be a waiver by QRC of any preceding breach by Franchisee of any terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of this Agreement.

32.2. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither QRC nor Franchisee will be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement, or be liable for loss or damage if it fails to perform its obligations due to: (1) compliance with any law, ruling, order, regulation, requirement, or instruction of any federal, state, or municipal government or any department or agency thereof; (2) acts of God; (3) acts or omissions of the other party; (4) fires, strikes, embargoes, war, terrorism or riot; or (5) any other similar event or cause which are force majeure in nature. Any delay resulting from any of said causes will extend performance accordingly or excuse performance, in whole or in part, as may be reasonable. The provisions of this section shall not, however, operate to excuse Franchisee from the prompt payment of any fee or other payment due QRC pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

32.3. APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS

Notwithstanding any designation by the Franchisee, QRC may in its discretion apply any payments made by Franchisee to any of Franchisee's indebtedness relating to royalties, the advertising fund, purchases, loans, interest or any other indebtedness to QRC, whether such indebtedness arises from the operation of the Restaurant or from other Qdoba restaurants owned by Franchisees.

32.4. CONSENT, DISCRETION

Whenever QRC under this Agreement is deemed to have or has expressly reserved a right and/or discretion to take or withhold an action, or to grant or decline to grant Franchisee a right to take or withhold an action, except as otherwise expressly and specifically provided in this Agreement, QRC may make such decision or exercise its right and/or discretion in its sole discretion. QRC will have no liability to Franchisee for any such decision or action and the exercise of QRC's right or discretion will not be subject to limitation or review. If applicable law implies a covenant of good faith and fair dealing in this Agreement, QRC and Franchisee agree that such covenant will not imply any rights or obligations that are inconsistent with a fair construction of the terms of this Agreement and that this Agreement grants QRC the right to make decisions, take actions and/or refrain from taking actions not inconsistent with Franchisee's rights and obligations under this Agreement.

32.5. NOTICES

Any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement must be made in writing, and must be personally delivered or mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by national overnight carrier, to the respective parties at the following addresses unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party:

Any notice delivered by overnight carrier will be deemed to have been delivered on the first business day after being deposited with the carrier.

32.6. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

The Recitals and Exhibits referenced in this Agreement are hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire, full and complete agreement between QRC and Franchisee concerning the franchise identified on Exhibit A, and supersedes any prior negotiations, understandings, representations or agreements relating to that Franchise; however, nothing in this Agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document we furnished to you. Additionally, if this Agreement is entered into pursuant to a Development Agreement, and if the terms of this Agreement conflict with the terms of that Development Agreement, such Development Agreement will be controlling.

32.7. MODIFICATION

No amendment, change or variance from this Agreement will be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties, and signed by their authorized officers or agents in writing.

32.8. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

32.8.1. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, each portion, section, part, term and/or provision of this Agreement is severable. If, for any reason a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, determines any section, part, term or provision of this Agreement is invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation, that decision will not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions, sections, parts, terms or provisions of this Agreement that remain intelligible. The latter will continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties, and the invalid portions, sections, parts, terms or provisions will be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

32.8.2. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor will be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than Franchisee, QRC and its affiliates and their respective officers, directors and employees, and such successors and assigns as may be contemplated by this Agreement any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

32.8.3. All captions in this Agreement are intended solely for the convenience of the parties, and none will be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

32.8.4. All references herein to the masculine, neuter or singular will be construed to include the masculine, feminine, neuter or plural, where applicable; and all acknowledgments, promises, covenants, agreements and obligations herein made or undertaken by Franchisee will be deemed jointly and severally undertaken by all those executing this Agreement on behalf of Franchisee.

32.9. NON-BINDING MEDIATION

32.9.1. Except as provided in Section 32.9.5 below, controversies, disputes and claims between QRC, its Affiliates, and their shareholders, officers, directors, employees and agents, or any of them, on the one hand, and Franchisee, its Affiliates, partners, trustees, shareholders, officers, directors and agents, or any of them, on the other hand, arising out of or related to this Agreement, the Restaurant or the Franchised Business, are subject to non-binding mediation pursuant to the terms of this Section 32.9. Except as specified in Section 32.9.5, no litigation may be commenced between such parties prior to the mediation termination date, as defined in Section 32.9.4 below, on any claim which is subject to non-binding mediation under this Agreement, whether or not the mediation has been commenced. The commencement or pendency of litigation will not stay non-binding mediation required under this Agreement, and non-binding mediation required under this Agreement will not stay any litigation commenced in conformity with Section 32.9.5. Mediation under this Section 32 is not intended to alter or suspend the rights or obligations of the parties under this Agreement or to determine the validity or effect of any provision of this Agreement, but is intended to provide the parties with an opportunity to amicably and expeditiously resolve disputes in a cost-effective manner on mutually acceptable terms and conditions.

32.9.2. The non-binding mediation provided for in this Agreement must be commenced by the party demanding mediation (the “complainant”) by giving written notice of the demand for mediation (the “demand”) to the party with whom mediation is sought (the “respondent”). The demand must specify with reasonable particularity the matter or matters on which non-binding mediation is being sought. A copy of the demand must be given by the complainant simultaneously to QRC, if QRC is not a complainant or a respondent.

32.9.3. Non-binding mediation under this Agreement will be conducted in San Diego, California, by a mediator or mediation program designated by QRC in writing (the “designation”), or by such mediator as Franchisee and QRC may otherwise agree to. QRC will send the designation to Franchisee within a reasonable time after its receipt of the demand.

32.9.4. Non-binding mediation under this Agreement must be concluded within sixty days of the giving of the demand or such longer period as may be mutually agreed to in writing by the parties to the mediation (the “mediation termination date”). All aspects of the mediation process will be treated as confidential, must not be disclosed to others, and will not be offered or admissible in any other proceeding or legal action whatsoever. Complainant and respondent will each bear its own costs of mediation, and each will bear one-half the cost of the mediator and mediation service.

32.9.5. If Franchisee is more than 45 days past due in any of its payments to QRC, whether under this Agreement or any other Agreement or account with QRC, then QRC will not be required to seek or to participate in mediation of any matter or dispute under this Section 32 (although QRC reserves the right to require mediation), and QRC will be free to commence or to pursue litigation at any time. QRC will not be required to seek or to participate in mediation of any matter or dispute relating to the indemnification or insurance provisions of this Agreement (although QRC reserves the right to require mediation). Nothing in this Section 32 will prevent any party from instituting or pursuing litigation at any time to preserve the status quo, protect the Proprietary Marks, protect the health or safety of the public, or avoid irreparable harm.

32.10. LIMITATIONS ON ACTIONS

32.10.1. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by QRC, and will be interpreted and construed under the laws of the State of California, which laws will prevail in the event of any conflict of law. If, however, any provision of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of California, Franchisee is located outside of California, and such provision would be enforceable under the laws of the state in which Franchisee is located, then such provision shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that state.

32.10.2. Any action brought by either party against the other in any court, whether federal or state, must be brought in San Diego, California. For the purpose of carrying out this provision, the parties hereby waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue.

32.10.3. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to QRC or Franchisee by this Agreement is intended to be, nor will be deemed, exclusive of any other right or remedy provided or permitted herein or by law or equity, but each is cumulative of every other right or remedy.

32.10.4. Nothing contained in this Agreement restricts QRC's right to obtain injunctive relief under the usual equity rules, including the applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary injunctions.

32.10.5. QRC and Franchisee irrevocably waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim, whether at law or in equity, brought by QRC against Franchisee, or by Franchisee against QRC and/or its Affiliates, or their shareholders, officers, directors, employees or agents, whether or not there are other parties in such action.

32.10.6. Any and all claims and actions arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement, the relationship of QRC and Franchisee, or Franchisee's operation of the Restaurant, must be commenced within two years from the date the aggrieved party knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to such claim or action, or such shorter terms as is established by law, or such claim or action will be barred.

32.10.7. QRC and Franchisee hereby waive to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to, or claim of, any punitive or exemplary damages against the other, and agree that in the event of a dispute between them, recoverable damages will be limited to the actual damages sustained by it.

32.11. LEGAL FEES

In any litigation arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to receive from other party all costs, including reasonable accounting and legal fees incurred as a result of the legal action.

32.12. ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES

This Agreement may be signed using electronic signatures, and such signatures will have full legal force and effect.

33. REPRESENTATIONS AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

33.1. Franchisee represents that it has conducted an independent investigation of the business franchised under this Agreement, and acknowledges that the business venture contemplated by this Agreement involves business risks, and that its success will be largely dependent upon the ability of Franchisee as an independent business person.

33.2. Franchisee acknowledges that it received a copy of the Qdoba Franchise Disclosure Document, and the attachment(s) thereto, on or before the date of the first personal meeting with QRC to discuss the franchise and at least fourteen (14) calendar days before the date the Franchisee made any payment to QRC and the date on which this Agreement was signed.

33.3. Franchisee represents that it has read and understands this Agreement, the attachment(s) hereto and agreements relating hereto, if any, and that Franchisee has had ample time and opportunity to consult with advisors of Franchisee's own choosing about the potential benefits and risks of entering into this Agreement.

33.4. Franchisee understands and accepts the terms, conditions and covenants contained in this Agreement as being reasonably necessary to maintain QRC's high standards of quality and service, and the uniformity of those standards, at all Qdoba restaurants and thereby to protect and preserve the goodwill of the Proprietary Marks and System.

33.5. Franchisee represents that it has not received or relied upon, any representation, guaranty, or warranty, express or implied, as to the sales volume, income, earnings, expenses, revenues, profits or success of Qdoba restaurants or the business venture contemplated by this Agreement, or as to the extent to which QRC will continue to develop and expand the network of Qdoba restaurants, except as stated in QRC's Disclosure Document. Franchisee further represents that it has not received or relied upon any representations about the franchise, QRC or its franchising program or policies from QRC or its officers, directors, employees or agents that are contrary to the statements made in QRC's Disclosure Document or to the terms in this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges that any information acquired by Franchisee from other Qdoba restaurant franchisees relating to the sales, income, earnings, expenses, revenues, profits or success of any such franchised Qdoba restaurants does not constitute information obtained from QRC, nor does QRC make any representation as to the accuracy of any such information.

33.6. Franchisee acknowledges that QRC's officers, directors, employees and agents act only in a representative, and not in a personal, capacity in connection with any of their dealings with Franchisee.

33.7. Franchisee represents to QRC that all statements in Franchisee's application for the franchise and Certification are accurate and complete, and Franchisee has made no misrepresentations or material omissions in obtaining the franchise.

34. RELEASE.

34.1. For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Franchisee (on behalf of itself and its parent, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, guarantors, agents and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities) (collectively "Releasors"), freely and without any influence, forever releases and covenants not to sue QRC, and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, agents and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities (collectively "Releasees"), with respect to any and all claims, demands, liabilities and causes of action of whatever kind or natures, known or unknown, vested or contingent, suspect or unsuspected (collectively "Claims") which any Releasor now owns or holds or may at any time have owned or held, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state and local laws, rules and ordinances, claims for contribution, indemnity and/or subrogation and claims arising out of, or related to this Agreement and all other agreements between any Releasor and any Releasee, the sale of franchises to any Releasor by any Releasee, the operation of the Franchised Business, any other franchised Qdoba restaurants and any other restaurant franchised by any Releasee, and each Releasee's performance of its obligations under this Agreement or any other agreement.

Franchisee (on behalf of itself and the Releasors) agrees that fair consideration has been given by QRC for this release and fully understands that this is a negotiated, complete and final release of all of Releasors' claims. Franchisee (on behalf of itself and the Releasors) expressly agrees that, with respect to this release, any and all rights granted under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code are expressly waived to the extent applicable. That Section reads as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

35. COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be signed in one or more counterparts, all of which when taken together constitute one original document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly signed, sealed and delivered this Agreement on the day and year first above written.

GUARANTY AND ASSUMPTION OF FRANCHISE OWNER'S OBLIGATIONS

THIS GUARANTY AND ASSUMPTION OF FRANCHISE OWNER'S OBLIGATIONS ("Guaranty") is given this _____ day of _____, 20__, by the undersigned.

FRANCHISEE: EntityName, a State limited liability company/corporation

Date of Franchise Agreement: _____, 20__

In consideration of, and as an inducement to, the execution of the above-mentioned Qdoba Franchise Agreement (the "Agreement") by Qdoba Restaurant Corporation ("QRC"), each of the undersigned and any other parties who sign counterparts of this guaranty (referred to herein individually as a "Guarantor" and collectively as "Guarantors") hereby personally and unconditionally: (a) guarantees to QRC, and its successors and assigns, for the term of the Agreement and thereafter as provided in the Agreement, that Franchisee shall punctually pay and perform each and every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Agreement; and (b) agrees to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every provision in the Agreement, both monetary obligations and other obligations, including without limitation, the obligation to pay costs and legal fees as provided in the Agreement and the obligation to take or refrain from taking specific actions or to engage or refrain from engaging in specific activities, including without limitation the provisions of the Agreement relating to competitive activities.

Each Guarantor waives:

1. acceptance and notice of acceptance by QRC of the foregoing undertakings; and
2. notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; and
3. protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; and
4. any right he may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person as a condition of liability; and
5. all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which he may have against Franchisee arising as a result of his execution of and performance under this guaranty by the undersigned (including by way of counterparts); and
6. any and all other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which he may be entitled.

Each Guarantor consents and agrees that:

1. his direct and immediate liability under this guaranty shall be joint and several not only with Franchisee, but also among the Guarantors; and
2. he shall render any payment or performance required under the Agreement upon demand if Franchisee fails or refuses punctually to do so; and
3. such liability shall not be contingent or conditioned upon pursuit by QRC of any remedies against Franchisee or any other person; and
4. such liability shall not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by any subsequent rider or amendment to the Agreement or by any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which QRC may from time to time grant to Franchisee or to any other person, including, without limitation, the acceptance of any partial payment or performance, or the compromise or release of any claims, none of which shall in any way modify or amend this guaranty, which shall be continuing and irrevocable throughout the term of the Agreement and for so long thereafter as there are any monies or obligations owing by Franchisee to QRC under the Agreement. Notwithstanding any assignment for the general benefit of creditors or any bankruptcy or any other act of insolvency by Franchisee and notwithstanding any rejection, disaffirmance or disclaimer of the Agreement, the Guarantors shall continue to be fully liable hereunder; and
5. the written acknowledgment of Franchisee, accepted in writing by QRC, or the judgment of any court or arbitration panel of competent jurisdiction establishing the amount due from Franchisee shall be conclusive and binding on the undersigned as guarantors.

If QRC is required to enforce this Guaranty in a judicial or arbitration proceeding, and prevails in such proceeding, it shall be entitled to reimbursement of its costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, reasonable accountants', legal, legal assistants', arbitrators' and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred prior to, in preparation for or in contemplated of the filing of any such proceeding.

If QRC is required to engage legal counsel in connection with any failure by the undersigned to comply with this Guaranty, the Guarantors shall reimburse QRC for any of the above-listed costs and expenses incurred by it.

This Guaranty shall be governed by the same laws which govern the Agreement.

This Guaranty may be signed in one or more counterparts, all of which when taken together constitute one original document.

Exhibit C

CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT (For Shareholders, Partners, Members)

This Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into this ____ day of _____, 20____, between Qdoba Restaurant Corporation ("QRC") and Owner, Guarantor2, and Guarantor3 ("Owner") (collectively, "Owner").

Recitals

QRC has entered into a Development Agreement and/or Franchise Agreement with EntityName ("Franchisee") relating to the development and operation of one or more Qdoba Mexican Eats™ restaurants under an operating system created and maintained by the QRC (the "System"). Owner is an officer, director, or holder of a beneficial interest of Franchisee, and/or of any corporation directly or indirectly controlling Franchisee. Due to his/her financial interest or other involvement in Franchisee, Owner may have access to information regarding the development and operation of the Qdoba business (including, but not limited to QRC's operating manual) that is considered by the Parties to be confidential and/or trade secret. QRC is willing to provide access to such information under the terms of this Agreement.

Accordingly, Owner agrees as follows:

1. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

1.1. Owner understands and acknowledges that QRC has invested, and continues to invest, considerable sums of money in developing the System. Because of the competitive nature of the restaurant business, and to protect the legitimate interest of QRC and other franchisees, it is necessary to protect certain information about the System as confidential.

1.2. For purposes of this provision, "Confidential Information" includes product recipes and tests, ingredients used in QRC's products, product preparation procedures, customer service measures and techniques, franchise support procedures, supplier relationship and distribution system information, new product development information, the Manual (as defined in Section 2 below), growth plans or strategies, real estate development plans or strategies, restaurant design plans, proposed restaurant sites, equipment, computer systems, business and development plans and strategies, training programs, consumer research results, marketing and advertising strategies and materials, and all other information designated by QRC as confidential.

1.3. Confidential Information does not include: (a) information, concepts, methods, procedures or techniques that are, or become, generally known in the quick-service and quick-casual restaurant industries in the United States, other than through disclosure by Franchisee or Owner, whether deliberate or inadvertent; (b) the disclosure of Confidential Information in judicial or administrative proceedings to the extent that Franchisee or Owner is legally compelled to disclose such information, provided that Franchisee and/or Owner has afforded QRC with the opportunity to obtain an appropriate protect order or other assurance that the information will be treated as confidential; or (c) information that Franchisee or Owner can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by QRC.

1.4. Franchisee will be provided with Confidential Information in connection with its development and/or operation of the Franchised Business. Owner agrees that both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Franchisee and Owner: (a) will use the Confidential Information only in the operation of the Franchised Business, and not in connection with any other business; (b) will not make copies of, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information without the express written consent of QRC; (c) will not communicate, divulge or disclose the Confidential Information to any person or entity who does not need access to it to operate the Franchised Business; (d) will not use or duplicate Confidential Information for any other restaurant business; or (e) will not use the Confidential Information, or allow it to be used, for the benefit of any third party.

1.5. Owner acknowledges and agrees that all Confidential Information is, and will remain, the sole and exclusive proprietary property of QRC.

1.6. Owner understands and acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this section will result in substantial injury and damage to QRC for which there is no adequate remedy at law. For these reasons, if Owner violates or threatens to violate any term of this provision, the QRC will be entitled to, in addition to any other remedies and damages available, injunctive or other equitable relief, to restrain the violation of this provision by Owner. Owner agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable legal fees incurred by QRC in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this section, in addition to any other claims to which QRC may be entitled.

2. CONFIDENTIAL OPERATING MANUAL

2.1. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of QRC and to maintain high standards of operation under QRC's proprietary marks, Franchisee must conduct its business in accordance with the confidential manual, which may consist of more than one volume ("Manual"). Franchisee will receive access to the Manual from QRC for the term of any Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement between QRC and Franchisee.

2.2. Owner must at all times treat the Manual, any other manuals created for, or approved for use in, the development or operation of the franchised business, and the information contained therein, as secret and confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential, as specified in Section 1 above, including but not limited to keeping access to the Manual secure at all times.

2.3. The Manual will at all times remain the sole property of QRC.

2.4. Owner understands and acknowledges that QRC may, in its sole discretion, modify or replace the Manual or its contents. If there is any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by QRC at QRC's home office will be controlling.

3. COVENANTS AND RESTRICTIONS ON OTHER BUSINESS INTERESTS

3.1. Franchisee must devote best efforts to the development, management and operation of the Franchised Business.

3.2. Owner acknowledges that Franchisee and Owner will receive valuable specialized training and/or confidential information, including without limitation, information regarding the development, operational, sales, promotional and marketing methods and techniques of QRC and the System. During the term of any Development Agreement or any Franchise Agreement between QRC and Franchisee, except as otherwise approved in writing by QRC, Owner may not, either directly or indirectly, for him/herself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation:

3.2.1. Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the franchised business to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with QRC's proprietary marks and the System.

3.2.2. Own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any food service business that serves primarily Mexican food or for which burritos, tacos and/or bowls comprise more than twenty percent (20%) of the menu, and/or represent more than twenty percent (20%) of the sales ("Competitive Business").

3.3. For a continuous period of two years after the expiration or termination of all Development Agreements and Franchise Agreements between QRC and Franchisee, regardless of the cause for the termination, Owner may not either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any Competitive Business that is, or is intended to be, located i) at the Accepted Location as described in Exhibit A to the Franchise Agreement ("Accepted Location"), ii) within five (5) miles of the Accepted Location; or iii) within five (5) miles of any Qdoba restaurant existing at the time of the termination or expiration.

3.4. Sections 3.2 and 3.3 above do not apply to ownership by Owner of less than one percent (1%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any publicly held corporation.

3.5. The parties agree that each of the foregoing non-competition covenants are independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Section 3 is found unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, Owner expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Section 3.

3.6. QRC has the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or any portion thereof, without Owner's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Owner of written notice thereof. Owner agrees that it will comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified, and that the covenant will be fully enforceable, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3.4 of this Agreement.

3.7. Owner expressly agrees that the existence of any claims he/she may have against QRC, whether or not arising from this Agreement, will not constitute a defense to QRC's enforcement of the covenants in this Section 3. Owner agrees to pay all costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) incurred by QRC in connection with the enforcement of this Section 3.

3.8. Owner acknowledges and agrees that his/her violation of the terms of this Section 3 would result in irreparable injury to QRC for which no adequate remedy at law may be available. Owner acknowledges and agrees that QRC may obtain an injunction prohibiting any conduct by Owner in violation of the terms of this Section 3.

4. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

4.1. No Waivers. No delay, omission or forbearance on the part of QRC to exercise any right, option, duty or power constitutes a waiver by QRC to enforce any such right, option, duty or power against Owner; nor does any such delay, omission, or forbearance constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default by Owner.

4.2. Notices. Any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement must be made in writing, and must be personally delivered or mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by national overnight carrier, to the respective parties at the following addresses unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party:

4.3. Modification. No amendment, change or variance from this Agreement will be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and signed by their authorized officers or agents in writing.

4.4. Severability and Construction. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, each portion, section, part, term and/or provision of this Agreement is severable. If for any reason a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, determines any section, part, term and/or provision of this Agreement is invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation, that decision will not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions, sections, parts, terms and/or provisions of this Agreement that remain intelligible. The latter will continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties, and the invalid portions, sections, parts, terms and/or provisions will be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

QDOBA MEXICAN EATS® LICENSE AGREEMENT

This Qdoba Mexican Eats® License Agreement (“Agreement”) is made between Qdoba Restaurant Corporation, a Colorado corporation, having its principal place of business at 350 Camino De La Reina, Suite 400, San Diego, California 92108 (“QRC”); and [Error! Reference source not found.], a [jurisdiction] [type of entity], having its principal place of business at [Error! Reference source not found.], [Error! Reference source not found.] (“Licensee”). The Agreement is dated _____, 20____.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, QRC has expended significant time, effort, and money to develop a distinctive system relating to the establishment and operation of Mexican-themed, fast-casual restaurants featuring a specialized menu of wrapped burritos, tacos, bowls, quesadillas, salads, and salsas, as well as other food and beverage items, some of which are prepared on site (“System”); and

WHEREAS, the distinguishing characteristics of the System include, without limitation, the use of distinctive exterior and interior design, decor, color scheme and furnishings; special recipes and menu items; uniform standards, specifications and procedures for operations; a catering program; high quality and uniform products and services; standardized and/or tiered pricing structures; procedures for inventory and management control; training and assistance; and marketing and promotional programs; all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by QRC from time to time; and

WHEREAS, QRC identifies the System by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including but not limited to, the marks “Qdoba Mexican Eats®” and variations thereon, and such other trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos and indicia of origin that may be designated by QRC in the future for use in connection with the System (collectively, the “Proprietary Marks” or “Marks”); and

WHEREAS, QRC continues to develop, use, and control the use of such Proprietary Marks in order to identify for the public the source of services and products marketed under the Marks and System, and to represent the System’s high standards of quality, appearance and service; and

WHEREAS, Licensee desires to enter into the business of operating a Qdoba Mexican Eats® (“Qdoba”) restaurant under QRC’s System, to obtain a license from QRC for that purpose, and to receive the training and other assistance provided by QRC in connection with the license; and

WHEREAS, Licensee recognizes the value of the System and Marks, and the importance of maintaining QRC's high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance and service in the operation of Qdoba restaurants.

In consideration of the foregoing, the fees and other sums payable by Licensee and of the mutual covenants contained in this Agreement, the parties agree as follows:

1. LICENSE: SCOPE AND TERM

QRC grants to Licensee a limited, nonexclusive license, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, for the term of this Agreement, to use the System and the Marks, and such other Marks as QRC may authorize from time to time, in the operation of a Qdoba restaurant (the "Licensed Restaurant") at the location described in Exhibit A to this Agreement ("the Restaurant Premises") in the facility described in Exhibit A ("the Facility"), and at that location only. Licensee may not relocate the Licensed Restaurant without the consent of QRC.

The term of this Agreement begins and expires on the dates listed in Exhibit A, unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. If Licensee fails for any reason to begin operating the Licensed Restaurant within six (6) months of the date of this Agreement, or if Licensee ceases to have the right to operate the Licensed Restaurant at the Restaurant for any reason (including, without limitation, the expiration or termination of a lease for the Restaurant Premises), the license will immediately cease.

Assuming the agreement between Licensee and Facility to operate the Licensed Restaurant (the "Concession Agreement") has been renewed or extended, upon expiration of this Agreement, QRC grants to Licensee an option to renew this Agreement for the Licensed Restaurant for the lesser of ten years or the term of any renewed Concession Agreement, whichever is shorter, subject to the following conditions:

A. Not less than twelve months or more than eighteen months before the expiration of this Agreement, Licensee must have given QRC written notice of Licensee's election to exercise the option.

B. Licensee must sign QRC's then-current license agreement. The provisions of that license agreement may differ from the provisions of this Agreement; however, QRC and Licensee will agree to terms similar to those set forth in the Addendum to this Agreement.

C. Licensee must pay a renewal fee equal to the greater of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or fifteen percent (15%) of QRC's then-current licensing fee.

D. Licensee must present evidence satisfactory to QRC that the Concession Agreement has been renewed or extended.

E. Licensee must complete such renovation, modernization and improvement of the Licensed Restaurant, and the furniture, fixtures, equipment located thereon, as QRC may reasonably require.

F. Licensee must not be in default under any provision of this Agreement, any amendment or successor to this Agreement, or any other agreement between Licensee and QRC.

G. Licensee, the Owners of Licensee, and Affiliates of Licensee must have timely met all monetary obligations to QRC and its Affiliates throughout the term of this Agreement. The term "Affiliate" means any entity that owns, is owned by, or is under common ownership with, the entity being referenced.

H. Licensee must not have received a notice of default more than two times during the term of this Agreement; however, regardless of the number of prior notices of default, QRC will not be obligated to grant a new license if, in its opinion, Licensee has not substantially complied with all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement or any other agreement between Licensee and QRC.

I. Licensee must have complied with QRC's then-current qualification and training requirements for new applicants.

At the time of renewal, Licensee must sign a general release, in a form prescribed by QRC, releasing any and all claims, including known and unknown claims, against QRC and its Affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees.

This license is non-exclusive and does not in any way grant to or confer upon Licensee any proprietary rights or goodwill rights to the Marks or to any country, province, state, area, market or territory. QRC retains the right and is expressly permitted to engage in the wholesale and retail production, distribution and sale of products, including food products of any kind (i) under the QDOBA MEXICAN EATS® trademark or other trademarks, (ii) through QRC-operated restaurants, licensed and franchised restaurants, or any alternative marketing channels or methods of distribution, (iii) both outside and within the area surrounding Licensee's restaurant. QRC may develop, establish or acquire other franchise systems for the same, similar or different products, and may grant licenses thereto, without providing Licensee any rights therein.

2. FEES

A. Initial Fee

In consideration of the granting of this license, Licensee must pay to QRC, on or before the execution of this Agreement, the sum listed in Exhibit A. This entire sum is fully earned by QRC when this Agreement is signed and delivered. The fee described above ("License Fee") is net of any tax, excluding income tax but including excise tax or other fee imposed upon QRC due to the collection of the License Fee.

B. Royalty

For the right to use the Marks and the System in accordance with this Agreement, Licensee agrees to pay to QRC during the term of this Agreement, a royalty of six percent (6%) of Licensee's Gross Sales. The royalty described above ("Royalty") is net of any tax, excluding income tax but including excise tax, or other fee imposed upon QRC due to the collection of the Royalty, and must be paid weekly on each Friday for the preceding week (weekly period to be Monday through the following Sunday, subject to change at QRC's sole discretion). If alcohol is served at the Licensed Restaurant, and applicable law prohibits payment of royalties on alcohol sales, then the gross amount of the Royalty shall be increased proportionally to account for the royalty percentage on alcohol sales that otherwise would have been owed.

C. Marketing Fee

Licensee is not required to make a contribution to the Qdoba Marketing Fund, but Licensee may purchase marketing materials and services from QRC.

D. Gross Sales Defined

The term "Gross Sales" means all revenue from the sale of all products and services (including delivery and catering services), and all income of every kind and nature, derived, directly or indirectly, from all business conducted upon, from or in connection with the Licensed Restaurant, whether such Gross Sales be evidenced by check, cash, cash equivalent, credit, charge account, exchange or otherwise. Gross Sales does not include the amount of any sales tax imposed by any federal, state or other governmental authority directly on sales and collected from customers, provided that the amount thereof is added to the selling price or specifically absorbed therein, and actually paid by Licensee to such governmental authority. To the extent applicable and contrary to statements in this Agreement, any gift cards/stored value cards shall be included in gross sales when redeemed, not when sold.

3. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS OF LICENSEE

Licensee represents, warrants and covenants as follows:

- Licensee has had full opportunity to be thoroughly advised of the terms and conditions of this Agreement by counsel of its own choosing at least seven (7) calendar days before signing this Agreement, and is entering into this Agreement after having made such independent investigation of QRC's operations as it desired, and not in reliance upon any promise, representation, warranty, condition, agreement or understanding, written or oral, that is not contained in this Agreement, whether relating to the financial return which Licensee might be expected to realize, or otherwise.

- Licensee has submitted written information to QRC in connection with the grant of this license, including, but not limited to, a License Application Package, together with any material changes therein, and it is understood that QRC is relying on all such information in granting this license.

- Licensee has delivered to QRC a Certification of Entity Structure and Operation, which constitutes a true, complete and accurate description of all of the individuals who have an ownership interest in the Licensee. The ownership structure described in the certification must remain unchanged during the term of this Agreement, unless modified in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement relating to changes in ownership or ownership structure apply to all such changes, including changes in relative shares of ownership of a Licensee.

- Licensee has received, read and understood QRC's Franchise Disclosure Document, and Licensee acknowledges that no person has made to Licensee, and no other material delivered to Licensee has contained, any statements or representations or warranties inconsistent or contradictory with QRC's Franchise Disclosure Document.

4. APPROVAL OF LEASES

If Licensee leases the Restaurant Premises from a third party, Licensee must use its best efforts to use QRC's standard form lease or lease addendum. Licensee will not be permitted to open the Licensed Restaurant for business unless QRC approves the lease in writing. QRC's approval of a lease does not constitute a representation, guaranty or warranty, express or implied, of the successful operation or profitability of any restaurant operated at that location; nor does such approval constitute a legal review of the terms and conditions of the lease.

5. STANDARDS OF OPERATION

Licensee must adhere to the System, as it may be modified by QRC from time to time, including ensuring that Licensee meets all standards and specifications, and follows the procedures communicated in writing by QRC to Licensee.

A. The Manuals

The Qdoba Manuals, as they may be renamed, amended, expanded and consolidated by QRC from time to time (collectively, "Manuals"), will contain mandatory restaurant operating standards, specifications and procedures as prescribed from time to time by QRC for the operation of a Qdoba restaurant by Licensee. Licensee will receive access to the Manuals from QRC for the term of this Agreement in any manner QRC chooses, including electronically through the QRC intranet. The Manuals may consist of more than one volume, including, without limitation, an Operations Manual, Trainers Guide, and Store Opening Manual. Licensee agrees to accept and comply with any changes, modifications, revisions and additions made by QRC to the menu and other elements of the System standards and the Manuals that QRC believes to be necessary or desirable for the brand.

The material contained in the Manuals consists of confidential trade secrets of QRC, and QRC is the owner of the Manuals and of all proprietary rights in and to the material and information contained therein. Such material may be used by Licensee only in connection with the operation of the Licensed Restaurant and other licensed Qdoba restaurants.

B. Construction and Maintenance of the Restaurant Premises and Lease Notices

During the term of this Agreement, the Restaurant Premises must be used exclusively for the operation and promotion of the Licensed Restaurant. The Restaurant Premises must be constructed and improved only as authorized and approved in writing by QRC, and in conformity with all applicable laws and ordinances. The appearance and the condition of the Restaurant Premises must not be altered thereafter, except as approved in writing by QRC. The Restaurant Premises must be decorated, furnished and equipped with furnishings and restaurant equipment that meet QRC's specifications. Licensee must maintain the Restaurant Premises in good condition and in conformity with the System, and must make any improvements and alterations to the Restaurant Premises as determined by QRC to be necessary to meet QRC's standards. Licensee must undertake and complete the repairs, improvements and alterations that QRC requires, within a reasonable time as specified by QRC. Licensee must maintain the Restaurant Premises in conformity with all applicable laws and ordinances, including, without limitation, the federal Americans with Disabilities Act and any similar state law. Any modification to the Restaurant Premises required by such laws, is subject to approved in advance by QRC and must be made at Licensee's expense.

If Licensee leases the Restaurant Premises, Licensee agrees that whenever it sends its landlord any notice or other material document relating to Licensee's lease for the Restaurant Premises, or receives such a document from the landlord, Licensee will promptly forward a copy of that document to QRC in accordance with the notice provisions of this Agreement.

C. Signs

Licensee must display the Marks only in the manner authorized by QRC. Licensee must maintain and display such signs (including menu panels, posters or similar items) as required by QRC from time to time. Licensee must not place additional signs, menu panels, posters or similar items on the Restaurant Premises without QRC's prior written consent. Licensee must promptly discontinue the use of and destroy such items as are declared non-conforming or obsolete by QRC.

D. Equipment

Licensee must use in the Licensed Restaurant only equipment approved by QRC. Licensee must maintain such equipment in a condition that meets the standards set forth in the Manuals or otherwise prescribed by QRC, and must replace equipment as necessary. Replacement equipment must conform to the standards for equipment that is being installed in new Qdoba restaurants at the time of replacement, except as may be approved in writing in advance by QRC. If QRC determines that additional or replacement equipment is needed in order to test new menu items or due to a change in approved menu items or in approved methods of preparation and service, Licensee must promptly obtain and install that new equipment within a reasonable time, as specified by QRC. Upon notification that any equipment, furnishings or supplies do not meet QRC specifications or standards, Licensee must immediately stop using that equipment, furnishing or supplies.

E. Computer System

Licensee agrees to purchase or lease, install and maintain, at Licensee's sole expense, the data processing equipment, computer hardware and software, dedicated telephone and power lines, high speed and wireless Internet connections (when and where available), modems, printers and other computer-related accessory or peripheral equipment as required by QRC and as necessary to permit QRC to receive from Licensee, within the time periods required by this Agreement or as otherwise required by QRC, that information, in that format/media, as reasonably specified by QRC.

F. Ingredients, Materials and Supplies

Licensee must purchase all food, ingredients, equipment, materials, and supplies necessary for the operation of the Licensed Restaurant, whether such items are used, offered, or sold at the Licensed Restaurant, only from sources that have been approved by QRC and not thereafter disapproved (of which QRC or a subsidiary, parent, or other related entity ("Affiliate") may be one such source). Such items include, but are not limited to, all food, supplies, beverage ingredients, paper goods, utensils, packaging, cleaning supplies and uniforms. If Licensee purchases such items under contract terms negotiated by QRC, Licensee may use those items only at the Licensed Restaurant.

If Licensee wants QRC to consider any alternative or additional sources of such ingredients, materials or supplies, Licensee must submit to QRC the information and samples as QRC requests. At Licensee's expense, QRC will evaluate the alternative or additional source in accordance with its standards. QRC must notify Licensee within a reasonable time after receiving the information and samples requested, of its approval or disapproval of such source, and if QRC does not approve, of the reasons therefor. All costs and expenses associated with QRC approving, reevaluating and working with such additional suppliers will be charged to the supplier or to Licensee.

G. Menu, Service, Health and Cleanliness

Licensee must offer for sale all of the food and beverage products identified in Exhibit A, which QRC may modify from time to time by providing written notice to Licensee. Licensee may not offer for sale any items other than those food and beverage products listed on Exhibit A. Licensee must adhere to all specifications relating to the ingredients, method of preparation and service, weight, dimensions and other characteristics for the menu items served, and standards of health, cleanliness and sanitation that are contained in the Manuals, or are otherwise prescribed by QRC. All food, drink and other menu items must be sold in packaging approved by QRC. Upon notification that any food, beverages, supplies or packaging does not meet QRC specifications or standards, Licensee must immediately stop using same.

Licensee may determine what prices to charge customers for products and services sold at the Licensed Restaurant, except that QRC may require that Licensee use an “all inclusive” pricing structure or tiered pricing structure, and/or other pricing system, and QRC may set maximum prices on products and services to the extent permitted by law. If QRC imposes a maximum price on a particular item, Licensee may charge any price on the item, consistent with the QRC pricing structure, up to and including the maximum price. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the specified retail price and maximum prices for products and services Licensee and other licensees sell may vary from region to region to the extent necessary in order to reflect differences in costs and other factors applicable to such regions. QRC may also require that certain products or services that are supplementary to the main products and services provided at Licensed Restaurants (such as condiments) be provided to customers free of charge.

If an inspection or audit conducted by QRC or its authorized representative shows that the Licensed Restaurant is not in substantial compliance with any System standard relating to food safety, Licensee must reimburse QRC for the reasonable cost of a re-audit. Additionally, if QRC reasonably determines that a threat or danger to public health or safety is likely to result from the construction, maintenance or operation of the Licensed Restaurant, QRC may, in its sole discretion, exercise its rights under Section 16 (“Termination”) or any lesser right, such as directing a temporary closure of the Licensed Restaurant until the situation can be corrected.

H. Hours of Operation

QRC and Licensee agree to the hours of operation for the Licensed Restaurant shown in Exhibit A (“Opening Policy”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Licensee will not be required to operate the Licensed Restaurant when the adjacent businesses at the Facility are not operating or if the owner or operator of the Facility imposes a restriction on the hours of operation, provided that Licensee has given QRC advance written notice of the modified hours of operation.

I. Catering

Licensee may offer catering and delivery service from the Licensed Restaurant only with QRC's written authorization, and only under the terms and conditions specified by QRC.

J. Personnel of the Licensed Restaurant

Licensee must designate one individual as the operator of the Licensed Restaurant ("Operator") to oversee the operation of the Licensed Restaurant. The Operator is subject to QRC's prior written approval. Licensee understands and agrees that the Operator is the authorized agent of Licensee and QRC may communicate with and give notice to Licensee through the Operator. Operator must utilize best and continuing efforts to promote and develop the business at the Licensed Restaurant.

Licensee must hire all employees of the Licensed Restaurant, and is fully responsible for the terms of their employment. QRC has neither direct nor indirect control over decisions relating to the employment of Licensee's employees, and is neither an employer nor joint employer of those employees. Licensee must employ only suitable persons of good character and reputation who will at all times conduct themselves in a competent and courteous manner in accordance with the image and reputation of QRC and the System and, while on duty, comply with the uniform standards set forth in the Manuals.

K. Compliance with Laws/Taxes

Licensee agrees to conform to and comply with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, and applicable industry standards at all times and at its sole expense.

Licensee must file all tax returns in a timely manner, and must pay when due all taxes levied or assessed in connection with the possession, ownership or operation of the Licensed Restaurant and the Restaurant Premises. Licensee may contest the validity or the amount of the tax in accordance with applicable procedures of the jurisdiction, but Licensee may not permit a tax sale or seizure of the Licensed Restaurant, the Restaurant Premises, or any equipment used in connection with the operation of the Licensed Restaurant.

L. Advertising and Promotion

Licensee must use reasonable efforts to advance the reputation of Qdoba restaurants and the products sold under the Marks and to develop awareness of Qdoba brand among consumers in order to increase the goodwill of the Marks and the System. Prior to use, Licensee must submit all advertising materials or any other materials that use or display the Marks to QRC for approval, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld.

M. Access to Restaurant Premises

QRC or its authorized representative has the right at any reasonable time, without prior notification to Licensee, to enter the Licensed Restaurant and Restaurant Premises to (a) observe, inspect, photograph, and videotape the Licensed Restaurant and its operation and the Restaurant Premises during such periods as QRC may deem necessary, (b) test any and all food products, food ingredients, equipment, beverages and supplies, (c) interview personnel at the Licensed Restaurant, (d) interview customers and prospective customers of the Licensed Restaurant, (e) conduct evaluations of the products sold and services rendered at the Licensed Restaurant, and (f) conduct various surveys. Licensee agrees to cooperate fully with QRC in connection with any such entries and activities. If Licensee's contract with the Facility restricts QRC's access to the Facility, any inspection by QRC will be in accordance with the Facility's policies and Licensee must undertake all reasonable efforts to facilitate QRC's ability to conduct inspections at the Licensed Restaurant.

N. Participation in Tests

From time to time, QRC may require Licensee to participate in tests of new products, equipment, services and procedures at the Licensed Restaurant. QRC may require Licensee to use specific product pricing during the test period. QRC will reimburse Licensee for certain documented out-of-pocket costs necessarily incurred by Licensee as part of the test; however, if the new product, equipment, service or promotions becomes a required component of the System, the Licensee will be responsible for paying a reasonable cost for the required component. Licensee is responsible for any soft costs associated with the testing, such as wages payable during training.

O. Proposed System Modification

Licensee may submit proposals for new or improved products, equipment, uniforms, the design of buildings and other restaurant facilities, service format and advertising. Such proposals must be considered by QRC when adopting, modifying or allowing deviations from standards, specifications and procedures for the System; provided however, that QRC retains the sole and absolute discretion to accept or reject any such proposals. If any proposal by Licensee is adopted by QRC and becomes part of the System, Licensee acknowledges that QRC is the sole owner of such proposed new product or modification to the System, that any such product or System modification are deemed a work made for hire, (or to the extent the work may not be deemed a "work made for hire" under applicable law, Licensee hereby irrevocably assigns to QRC, for no additional consideration, all right, title and interest in and to any patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets and any other proprietary rights), and there are no restrictions on use, and no compensation will be due Licensee. Licensee agrees to cooperate fully in obtaining any patents, trademarks or copyrights relating to the System.

P. Web-Based Applications and Social Media

Licensee shall comply with QRC's web-based applications, social media, and other technology-related standards and procedures, as they are established and modified by QRC in its sole discretion from time to time.

Q. Discounts

In the event that any cash rebates, volume discounts, concessions, advertising allowances, discount bonuses or other benefits (collectively, "Discounts"), whether by way of cash kind or credit, are received by QRC from any Supplier, whether or not on account of purchases made (i) by QRC for its own account or for the account of Licensee, licensees generally, or (ii) by Licensee directly for its own account, QRC shall be entitled to retain the whole of the amount or any part of such Discounts. QRC and its Affiliates are entitled to mark up and profit on the sale of goods and services to Licensee.

R. Non-Cash Payment Systems

Licensee must use such credit card, debit card, gift card/loyalty card, check verification, direct debit, electronic fund transfer systems, and similar systems as QRC may from time to time require. Use of the specified payment methods may require Licensee to pay a program fee to QRC and/or third parties. Licensee may accept only such methods of payment that QRC authorizes or approves. Gift/loyalty card programs may require Licensee to provide certain products to guests free of charge.

6. TRAINING

QRC must provide a certified training program for up to three individuals, one of which must be the intended general manager (or equivalent) of the Restaurant. Prior to the opening of the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee must ensure that the restaurant manager and at least one other individual have completed the certified training program. The training will take place at a company-operated restaurant location or such other location as may be designated by QRC.

During the term of the license, the Operator and the General Manager must undertake and complete such further training programs from time to time as may be directed by QRC.

There is no charge for the training, but Licensee is responsible for all travel, living, compensation and other expenses that may be incurred in connection with the training.

Licensee must conduct training for Licensee's employees as necessary to ensure that all Standards are consistently satisfied.

QRC will provide Licensee such on-site pre-opening and opening assistance and such continuing operational advice as QRC deems advisable, subject to the availability of personnel.

QRC will provide to Licensee, at Licensee's sole cost and expense, from time to time as QRC deems advisable, advice and written materials concerning techniques of operating the Licensed Restaurant, including new developments and improvements in restaurant equipment, food products, packaging and preparation.

QRC will provide Licensee with a template of the standardized chart of accounts, statement of earnings, and balance sheet, all of which Licensee must use in the operation of the Licensed Restaurant.

7. METHOD AND APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS

A. Interest

Any payment due from Licensee to QRC that is not paid when due will accrue interest from the date such amount was due, until paid, at the then-current rate established by QRC for Licensees, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less.

B. Method of Payment and Sales Reporting

All payments must be made to QRC or QRC's designee through a pre-authorized payment system (which authorizes QRC or its designee to debit and credit Licensee's bank accounts in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and other agreements between the parties) or other payment method specified in writing by QRC. Upon request, Licensee must provide such authorizations and information necessary to institute the pre-authorized payment system or other payment system. Licensee must ensure that funds are available in Licensee's bank accounts to cover the debits.

By no later than 10:00 a.m. Pacific Time each Monday, Licensee must submit, by electronic data transfer, computerized polling, or such other method as Licensor specifies, a report of the Gross Sales of the preceding week, and any other information Licensor may require. Licensee must allow Licensor to remotely access Licensee's computerized accounting systems, in Licensor's reasonable discretion, for such reporting purposes.

By no later than 10 a.m. Central Time on each Sunday, QRC will debit from the Licensed Restaurant's commercial bank operating account ("Account") the Royalty Fee and Marketing Fee for the week ending twelve (12) days earlier, in an amount determined based upon the Gross Sales report or determined by QRC based on the records contained in the cash registers/computer terminals of the Licensed Restaurant.

C. Application of Payments

Notwithstanding any designation by Licensee, QRC has sole discretion to apply any payments by Licensee to any past due indebtedness of Licensee due QRC or its Affiliates.

D. No Offset

Licensee is not entitled to set off, deduct or otherwise withhold any royalty fees, interest charges or any other monies payable by Licensee under this Agreement on grounds of any alleged non-performance by QRC of any of its obligations or for any other reason. Licensee must pay to QRC on demand any and all costs and expenses incurred by QRC in collecting any monies owed to Licensee to QRC.

8. ACCOUNTING, RECORDKEEPING, TAXES AND RIGHT OF AUDIT

A. Recordkeeping

Licensee must keep and maintain complete and accurate books and records, using generally accepted in use in the United States accounting principles and in accordance with any procedures specified by QRC in writing. Licensee must keep complete records of the licensed business for so long as required by state or federal law, but in no event less than three years.

B. Financial Reports

At QRC's request, Licensee must, at its expense, provide to QRC a profit and loss statement and balance sheet for the Licensed Restaurant within 90 days after the end of each of Licensee's fiscal year to be signed by Licensee or by Licensee's treasurer or chief financial officer attesting that the financial statements present fairly the results of operations of the Licensed Restaurant during the period covered. Licensee must submit to QRC, for review or auditing, such other forms, reports, records, information and data regarding the Licensed Restaurant as QRC may reasonably designate, in the form and at the times and places reasonably required by QRC and as specified from time to time in the Manuals or otherwise in writing.

C. Taxes

Licensee must reimburse QRC for all sales, use, goods and services, personal property, gross receipt, excise, value added, and similar taxes in force now or in the future that are imposed upon or required to be collected by QRC, in connection with the sale or lease of goods or services to Licensee. Licensee will pay such taxes upon demand and in the manner designated by QRC.

D. Audits

QRC has the right at any time during business hours without prior notification to Licensee, to inspect and audit, or cause to be inspected and audited, at QRC's expense, Licensee's business records, including but not limited to the records listed in Subsections 8.A and 8.B above. The inspections or audits will be conducted at the location where the business records are customarily maintained. If an inspection or audit discloses an understatement of Gross Sales or Gross Sales from games and devices located in or on the premises of the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee must pay to QRC within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the inspection or audit report, the Royalties, Marketing Fees and any other amounts due on such understatement plus interest. If any inspection or audit discloses an understatement of Gross Sales for the period of the audit greater than 1%, Licensee also must promptly reimburse QRC for the reasonable cost of the audit or inspection.

E. Restaurant Data

All customer data, sales, transaction and operating data arising from operation of the Restaurant is and will be owned exclusively by QRC. QRC may use that data in any manner that it deems appropriate, including, without limitation, providing general or consolidated financial or operating reports to existing and prospective franchisees or licensees and other third parties. QRC hereby licenses use of such data back to Licensee for the term of this Agreement and only for use in connection with the operation of the Restaurant. Licensee may not use the data for any purpose other than operating the Restaurant, or sell or transfer any of the above data except to a buyer as part of an approved Transfer (as defined in Section 15). Licensee shall comply with any standards and policies that QRC may issue relating to data used in the operation of the Restaurant. Licensee shall immediately notify QRC of any possible or actual data breach.

9. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

Licensee is an independent contractor, and is not an agent, partner, joint venturer or employee of QRC. No fiduciary relationship between the parties exists. Licensee has no right to bind or obligate QRC in any way, and will in no way represent it has the right to do so. QRC will have no control over the terms and conditions of employment of Licensee's employees. Licensee must identify itself as the independent owner of the Licensed Restaurant on a visible plaque at the Licensed Restaurant as well as in any other manner QRC requires.

10. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Licensee understands and acknowledges that QRC has invested, and continues to invest, considerable sums of money in developing the System, and that to protect the legitimate interest of QRC and other Qdoba Licensees, it is necessary to protect certain information about the System as confidential. "Confidential Information" includes any and all information, knowledge, know-how and techniques, including all product recipes, preparation methods and tests, customer services techniques, franchise or license support procedures, supplier relationship and distribution system information, new product development information, the Manuals, financial data, growth plans or strategies, real estate development plans or strategies, restaurant design plans, proposed restaurant sites, equipment computer systems, business and development plans and strategies, training materials, customer data, customer contact lists, sales, transaction and restaurant operating data, and other data that QRC or its affiliates designate as confidential. Licensee will be provided with Confidential Information in connection with its operation of the Licensed Restaurant. All Confidential Information is and will remain the sole and exclusive proprietary property of QRC.

Licensee agrees that both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Licensee (a) will use the confidential Information only in the operation of the Licensed Restaurant, and not in any connection with any other business; (b) will not make copies of any confidential Information without the express written consent of QRC; (c) will not communicate, divulge or disclose the confidential Information to any person or entity who does not need access to it to operate the Licensed Restaurant; and (e) will not use the confidential Information, or allow it to be used, for the benefit of any third party.

11. OWNERSHIP OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Licensee hereby agrees that all right, title and interest to the System and the Marks are vested solely in QRC, and that any use thereof by Licensee inures to the benefit of QRC. Licensee hereby disclaims any right or interest in the System, the Marks or in the goodwill derived therefrom, and Licensee agrees not to contest, directly or indirectly, the validity of QRC's Marks or QRC's ownership, title, right or interest in the Marks and/or the System and/or QRC's sole right to register, use or license others to use the same. Licensee agrees that all information loaned, or otherwise made available to Licensee, and all disclosures made to Licensee and not to the general public, by or at the direction of QRC at any time before or during the term of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the Manuals, specifications, and any modifications or amendments thereto, in their entirety are trade secrets of QRC for purposes of this Agreement, and must be kept confidential and used by Licensee only in the operation of the Licensed Restaurant.

If it becomes advisable at any time in QRC's sole discretion to modify or discontinue use of any Marks or part of the System and/or to use one or more additional or substitute Marks or aspects of the System, Licensee must immediately modify or discontinue the use of such Mark or aspect of the System, or use the additional or substitute Mark or aspect of the System.

Licensee may not directly or indirectly at any time during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, do, or cause or permit to be done, any act in any way impairing or tending to impair QRC's right, title or interest in the Marks or System. Except as provided herein, QRC is not required to participate in the defense of or to indemnify Licensee for damages or expenses incurred by Licensee if it becomes a party to any administrative or judicial proceeding involving the Marks or the System. Licensee must not institute any legal action or any other kind of proceeding based upon the Marks without QRC's prior written approval.

Licensee must immediately notify QRC if Licensee becomes aware of any infringements or imitations of the Marks or the System, or of any challenges to Licensee's use of any of the Marks or the System, and QRC must have the sole discretion to take such action, if any, it deems appropriate. QRC may control any administrative proceedings or litigation affecting the Marks or the System. Licensee must cooperate in the prosecution or defense of any such action, and will be named as a party in any such action, if so desired by QRC. QRC will bear the legal expenses incident to Licensee's participation in such action, except for the cost of Licensee's personal legal counsel if Licensee elects to be represented by counsel of his own choosing.

In the adoption of a corporate or partnership name, Licensee must not use any of the Marks, any variations or abbreviations thereof, or any words deemed by QRC to be confusingly similar to the Marks.

Licensee is not permitted to establish websites, social media venues, or domain names which in any way shape or form incorporate any of the Qdoba Marks, name, initials or indicia into its web address. Licensee is not permitted to establish websites or domain names linking to the Qdoba site without the prior written permission of QRC.

12. INSURANCE

During the term of this Agreement, Licensee must obtain and maintain in full force and effect, at his own expense, such insurance coverages as may be required of Licensees by QRC in the Manuals. The insurance requirements including but not limited to coverages and policy limits, may be increased or modified from time to time by QRC at its sole discretion.

13. INDEMNIFICATION

Licensee is responsible for all losses, damages, and liabilities (whether contractual, statutory or otherwise) to third persons arising out of or in connection with the possession, ownership or operation of the Licensed Restaurant, and for all claims or demands for damages to property, or for injury, illness or death of persons directly or indirectly resulting therefrom; and Licensee must defend, indemnify and hold harmless QRC, its Affiliates, employees, officers, directors and agents from all such claims, demands, losses, obligations, costs, legal fees, expenses, liabilities, debts or damages directly or indirectly resulting therefrom, unless resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the indemnified parties.

If such claims are asserted against an indemnified party, QRC must notify Licensee and, at QRC's election, Licensee must assume the defense of such claims or QRC will defend such claims in the manner QRC deems appropriate. If QRC requires Licensee to defend such claims and Licensee fails to assume the defense as required by QRC, then QRC may defend in such manner as it deems appropriate. Licensee must reimburse the indemnified party (or QRC if QRC steps in to defend the matter) for all costs, including legal fees, and the reasonable value of time spent by corporate counsel, incurred by the indemnified party in effecting such defense, in addition to any sum that the indemnified party may incur by reason of any settlement or judgment. The indemnified party's right to defense and indemnification hereunder exist, notwithstanding that its joint or concurrent liability may be imposed on it by law.

14. ASSIGNMENT BY QRC

There are no restrictions on QRC's ability to assign this Agreement or transfer ownership interest in QRC, and any such transfer or assignment will inure to benefit any transferee or assignee or other legal successor to the interest of QRC. QRC may, in its sole discretion, elect to have designees perform the obligations of QRC under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT BY LICENSEE

This Agreement is personal to Licensee (or if Licensee is a legally formed entity, the Owners of Licensee). Neither Licensee nor any Owner must sell, assign, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, give as security or in any manner encumber or otherwise transfer (hereinafter, "Transfer") this Agreement or any direct or indirect right or interest in the license granted, or any direct or indirect interest in Licensee, the Licensed Restaurant, or the Licensed Location nor permit any such Transfer to occur directly or indirectly, whether by agreement or operation of law, without the prior written consent of QRC. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this provision applies to any Transfer between Owners.

All Transfers require, among other items: (i) delivery of an updated Ownership Information Form; (ii) delivery of complete financial statements of the proposed transferee and other information satisfactory to QRC; (iii) the payment to QRC of up to, but not exceeding, two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per Licensed Restaurant to QRC; (iv) the execution by Licensee and each Owner of a general release (in form satisfactory to QRC) in favor of QRC, covering (without limitation) all transactions or occurrences of any kind prior to the proposed assignment, whether arising out of the license relationship or otherwise, between Licensee and QRC; (v) the payment of all amounts owed to QRC by Licensee; (vi) the correction of any material defaults; (vii) the execution of a personal guarantee by each transferee, if the transferring Owner had executed the same; (viii) the transferee and its employees completing all training required by QRC; (ix) at QRC's election, execution of an assignment agreement or the then-current standard license agreement for the remainder of the term of this Agreement; and (x) such other conditions as QRC may require.

16. TERMINATION

A. Licensee has provided QRC a copy of the provision(s) of its contract with the Facility describing the term of the contract and the Facility's right to terminate that contract without cause. Licensee may terminate this Agreement if Licensee loses the right to operate a Qdoba restaurant at the Facility (other than for cause) and if (1) Licensee has notified QRC within 14 days after receiving notice of the impending loss of such a right and (2) Licensee has exercised reasonable efforts to arrange a meeting between Licensee's client and QRC to discuss the continued operation of the Licensed Restaurant.

B. Licensee will be in default under this Agreement for any failure to comply with any of the material requirements imposed by this Agreement, the Manuals or otherwise in writing, or to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, Licensee will have thirty (30) days after written notice of default from QRC within which to cure any default under this Agreement and provide evidence of that remedy to QRC. If the default is not cured within that time, this Agreement will terminate upon notice to Licensee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the default is susceptible of being cured, but cannot be cured within thirty (30) days, Licensee will be provided the additional time to correct the default as reasonably required (not to exceed 90 days) provided that Licensee begins taking the actions necessary to correct the default during the thirty- (30) day cure period and diligently and in good faith pursues those actions to completion.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of preceding Subsection 16.B.:

1. If Licensee defaults in the payment of any monies owed to QRC when such monies become due and payable and Licensee fails to pay such monies within 10 days after receiving written notice of default, then this Agreement will terminate effective upon delivery of notice of termination.
2. If QRC reasonably determines that a threat or danger to public health or safety is likely to result from the construction, maintenance or operation of the Licensed Restaurant, QRC may immediately terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to Licensee without opportunity to cure. In the alternative, QRC may, in its sole discretion, direct a temporary closure of the Licensed Restaurant until the situation can be corrected.
3. If Licensee has received three or more notices of default within the previous 24 months, QRC may immediately terminate this Agreement upon Licensee's next default within that 24-month period, without providing Licensee an opportunity to remedy the default.
4. If any valid, applicable law or regulation of a competent governmental authority with jurisdiction over this Agreement requires a notice or cure period prior to termination longer than set forth in this Section, this Agreement will be deemed amended to conform to the minimum notice or cure period required by the applicable law or regulation.

D. QRC's failure to terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of one or more of the above events does not constitute a waiver, or otherwise affect the right of QRC to terminate this license because of any other occurrence of one or more of the aforesaid events.

17. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION

Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, the following obligations apply:

A. Licensee must immediately cease to operate the Licensed Restaurant and must not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent itself to the public as a present or former licensee of QRC at the Facility.

B. Licensee's right to use the Marks and the System at the Facility will terminate. Licensee must not thereafter identify itself as a Qdoba Licensee at the Facility, nor use any of the Marks or any mark confusingly similar thereto at the Facility, nor use or disclose to others any of QRC's Confidential Information or trade secrets. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, and provided that Licensee is not a Qdoba Licensee at other locations, Licensee must immediately return to QRC all Manuals, together with all other material containing trade secrets or Confidential Information.

C. Licensee grants to QRC, upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, the option to purchase all usable inventory of food supplies, paper goods, containers, printed menus and other materials bearing QRC's trade names or Marks at Licensee's cost; and to purchase the restaurant equipment, furniture, fixtures and signs at fair market value.

D. Licensee must, immediately upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, make such removals or changes in signs and the Restaurant Premises as QRC must request, to distinguish the Restaurant Premises from its former appearance and from any other Qdoba restaurant. In the event Licensee fails to make such changes, Licensee hereby consents to QRC entering the Restaurant Premises to make non-structural changes at Licensee's expense.

E. Licensee shall also provide to QRC, upon request, evidence satisfactory to QRC that Licensee has complied with the obligations in this Section 17.

F. All obligations of QRC and Licensee that expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding its expiration or termination and until they are satisfied or by their nature expire.

18. RESTRICTIONS ON OTHER BUSINESS INTERESTS

Licensee covenants and agrees that, during the term of this Agreement and, if this Agreement is terminated prior to the end of the Initial Term, for a period of 1 year following such termination, Licensee and Operator must not, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with, any person, firm, partnership, corporation or other entity, own, maintain, operate, be employed by, be a director or landlord of, engage in, advise, help, make loans to, or have any direct or indirect interest in, any foodservice operation at the Facility that serves primarily Mexican food or for which burritos, tacos, and/or bowls comprise more than ten 10%) of the menu or represent more than ten percent (10%) of the sales, such sales to be measured over a trailing twelve month period. This restriction does not apply to Licensee's existing restaurant or foodservice operations, if any, that are identified in Exhibit A.

QRC has the right, in its sole discretion and without Licensee's consent, to reduce the scope of any covenant in this Section. Any covenant as so reduced is fully enforceable. The reduction will be effective immediately upon receipt by Licensee of written notice thereof, and Licensee must comply immediately with the covenant as so reduced.

Licensee must obtain and furnish to QRC an undertaking, to the same effect as the undertaking in this Section, from Licensee's Operator (if Licensee is not the Operator) and from such of the Owners.

19. MISCELLANEOUS: GENERAL CONDITIONS

A. Interpretation/Entire Agreement

This Agreement and all exhibits to this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof, and supersede any and all prior negotiations, understandings, representations, and agreements regarding that subject matter. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the Franchise Disclosure Document that we furnished to you. This Agreement may be modified or amended only in writing, signed by both parties.

B. Governing Law, Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This Agreement becomes valid when executed and accepted by QRC at San Diego, California. The laws of California apply to any claim or controversy regarding the making, entering into, performance, or interpretation of this Agreement, without giving effect to any conflict-of-law rules of such jurisdiction. If, however, any provision of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of California, Licensee is located outside of California, and such provision would be enforceable under the laws of the state in which Licensee is located, then such provision must be interpreted and construed under the laws of that state.

2. Licensee must file any suit against QRC or its officers, directors, agents, employees or shareholders, arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, only in the federal or state court in the judicial district where QRC's principal offices are located at the time suit is filed. QRC may file any suit against Licensee, arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, in any federal or state court in the judicial district where QRC's principal offices are located at the time suit is filed, or where Licensee resides, or where the Licensed Restaurant is or was located, or where the claim arose; and Licensee hereby consents to and waives all questions of personal jurisdiction and venue for the purpose of carrying out this provision.

3. QRC and Licensee irrevocably waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim, whether at law or in equity, brought by QRC against Licensee, or by Licensee against QRC and/or its Affiliates or subsidiaries, and their shareholders, officers, directors, employees and agents, whether or not there are other parties in such action, to the extent permitted by law. Licensee and QRC waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the right to bring, or be a class member in, any class action suits.

4. Except for payment owed by one party to the other party, and unless prohibited by applicable law, any and all claims and actions arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement, the relationship of QRC and Licensee, or Licensee's operation of the Licensed Restaurant, must be commenced within two (2) years from the occurrence of the facts giving rise to such claim or action, or such shorter term as is established by law, or such claim or action will be barred.

5. QRC and Licensee hereby waive to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to, or claim of, any punitive or exemplary damages against the other, and agree that in the event of a dispute between them, each must be limited to the recovery of actual damages sustained by it.

C. Notices

All notices to QRC must be in writing, and are effective if hand delivered or sent by certified mail, postage fully prepaid, by overnight mail, or by facsimile addressed to Qdoba Restaurant Corporation at its offices at 350 Camino De La Reina, Suite 400, San Diego, California 92108, Attention: Legal Department; or at such other address as QRC must from time to time designate in writing. Any notice, if delivered personally, shall be deemed to have been given on the day of delivery, if a business day, or if not a business day, on the business day next following the day of delivery.

D. Legal Fees and Costs

In any litigation arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the prevailing party must be paid by the other party all costs, including reasonable accounting and legal fees, incurred as a result of the legal action.

E. Release

For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Licensee (on behalf of itself and its parent, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, agents and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities) (collectively "Releasors"), freely and without any influence, forever releases and covenants not to sue QRC, and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, agents and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities (collectively "Releasees"), with respect to any and all claims, demands, liabilities and causes of action of whatever kind or natures, known or unknown, vested or contingent, suspect or unsuspected (collectively "Claims") which any Releasor now owns or holds or may at any time have owned or held, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state and local laws, rules and ordinances, claims for contribution, indemnity and/or subrogation and claims arising out of, or related to the Agreement and all other agreements between any Releasor and any Releasee, the sale of franchises or licenses to any Releasor by any Releasee, the operation of the Licensed Business, any other franchised or licensed Qdoba restaurants and any other restaurant licensed or franchised by any Releasee, and each Releasee's performance of its obligations under the Agreement or any other agreement.

Licensee (on behalf of itself and the Releasors) expressly agrees that, with respect to this release, any and all rights granted under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code are expressly waived to the extent applicable. That Section reads as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT (For Shareholders, Partners, Members)

This Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into this ____ day of _____, 20____, between Qdoba Restaurant Corporation ("QRC") and Error! Reference source not found., Error! Reference source not found., and _____ ("Owner") (collectively, "Owner").

Recitals

QRC has entered into a License Agreement with _____ ("Licensee") relating to the development and operation of one or more Qdoba Mexican Eats™ restaurants under an operating system created and maintained by the QRC (the "System"). Owner is an officer, director, or holder of a beneficial interest of Licensee, and/or of any corporation directly or indirectly controlling Licensee. Due to his/her financial interest or other involvement in Licensee, Owner may have access to information regarding the development and operation of the Qdoba business (including, but not limited to QRC's operating manual) that is considered by the Parties to be confidential and/or trade secret. QRC is willing to provide access to such information under the terms of this Agreement.

Accordingly, Owner agrees as follows:

1. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

1.1. Owner understands and acknowledges that QRC has invested, and continues to invest, considerable sums of money in developing the System. Because of the competitive nature of the restaurant business, and to protect the legitimate interest of QRC and other licensees, it is necessary to protect certain information about the System as confidential.

1.2. For purposes of this provision, "Confidential Information" includes product recipes and tests, ingredients used in QRC's products, product preparation procedures, customer service measures and techniques, franchise support procedures, supplier relationship and distribution system information, new product development information, the Manual (as defined in Section 2 below), growth plans or strategies, real estate development plans or strategies, restaurant design plans, proposed restaurant sites, equipment, computer systems, business and development plans and strategies, training programs, consumer research results, marketing and advertising strategies and materials, and all other information designated by QRC as confidential.

1.3. Confidential Information does not include: (a) information, concepts, methods, procedures or techniques that are, or become, generally known in the quick-service and quick-casual restaurant industries in the United States, other than through disclosure by Licensee or Owner, whether deliberate or inadvertent; (b) the disclosure of Confidential Information in judicial or administrative proceedings to the extent that Licensee or Owner is legally compelled to disclose such information, provided that Licensee and/or Owner has afforded QRC with the opportunity to obtain an appropriate protect order or other assurance that the information will be treated as confidential; or (c) information that Licensee or Owner can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by QRC.

1.4. Licensee will be provided with Confidential Information in connection with its development and/or operation of the licensed restaurant. Owner agrees that both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Licensee and Owner: (a) will use the Confidential Information only in the operation of the licensed restaurant, and not in connection with any other business; (b) will not make copies of, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information without the express written consent of QRC; (c) will not communicate, divulge or disclose the Confidential Information to any person or entity who does not need access to it to operate the licensed restaurant; (d) will not use or duplicate Confidential Information for any other restaurant business; or (e) will not use the Confidential Information, or allow it to be used, for the benefit of any third party.

1.5. Owner acknowledges and agrees that all Confidential Information is, and will remain, the sole and exclusive proprietary property of QRC.

1.6. Owner understands and acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this section will result in substantial injury and damage to QRC for which there is no adequate remedy at law. For these reasons, if Owner violates or threatens to violate any term of this provision, the QRC will be entitled to, in addition to any other remedies and damages available, injunctive or other equitable relief, to restrain the violation of this provision by Owner. Owner agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable legal fees incurred by QRC in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this section, in addition to any other claims to which QRC may be entitled.

2. CONFIDENTIAL OPERATING MANUAL

2.1. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of QRC and to maintain high standards of operation under QRC's proprietary marks, Licensee must conduct its business in accordance with the confidential manual, which may consist of more than one volume ("Manual"). Licensee will receive access to the Manual from QRC for the term of any License Agreement between QRC and Licensee.

2.2. Owner must at all times treat the Manual, any other manuals created for, or approved for use in, the development or operation of the licensed restaurant, and the information contained therein, as secret and confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential, as specified in Section 1 above, including but not limited to keeping access to the Manual secure at all times.

2.3. The Manual will at all times remain the sole property of QRC.

2.4. Owner understands and acknowledges that QRC may, in its sole discretion, modify or replace the Manual or its contents. If there is any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by QRC at QRC's home office will be controlling.

3. COVENANTS AND RESTRICTIONS ON OTHER BUSINESS INTERESTS

3.1. Licensee must devote best efforts to the development, management and operation of the licensed restaurant.

3.2. Owner acknowledges that Licensee and Owner will receive valuable specialized training and/or confidential information, including without limitation, information regarding the development, operational, sales, promotional and marketing methods and techniques of QRC and the System. During the term of any License Agreement between QRC and Licensee, except as otherwise approved in writing by QRC, Owner may not, either directly or indirectly, for him/herself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation:

3.2.1. Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the licensed restaurant to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with QRC's proprietary marks and the System.

3.2.2. Own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any food service business at the Facility described in Exhibit A to the License Agreement that serves primarily Mexican food or for which burritos, tacos, and/or bowls comprise more than ten percent (10%) of the menu, and/or represent more than ten percent (10%) of the sales ("Competitive Business").

3.2.3. For a continuous period of two years after the expiration or termination of all License Agreements between QRC and Licensee, regardless of the cause for the termination, Owner may not either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any Competitive Business that is, or is intended to be, located i) at the Accepted Location as described in Exhibit A to the License Agreement ("Accepted Location"), ii) within five (5) miles of the Accepted Location; or iii) within five (5) miles of any Qdoba restaurant existing at the time of the termination or expiration.

3.3. Subsections 3.2.2 and 3.2.3 above do not apply to ownership by Owner of less than one percent (1%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any publicly held corporation.

3.4. The parties agree that each of the foregoing non-competition covenants are independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Section 3 is found unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, Owner expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Section 3.

3.5. QRC has the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or any portion thereof, without Owner's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Owner of written notice thereof. Owner agrees that it will comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified, and that the covenant will be fully enforceable, notwithstanding the provisions of Subection 3.4 of this Agreement.

3.6. Owner expressly agrees that the existence of any claims he/she may have against QRC, whether or not arising from this Agreement, will not constitute a defense to QRC's enforcement of the covenants in this Section 3. Owner agrees to pay all costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) incurred by QRC in connection with the enforcement of this Section 3.

3.7. Owner acknowledges and agrees that his/her violation of the terms of this Section 3 would result in irreparable injury to QRC for which no adequate remedy at law may be available. Owner acknowledges and agrees that QRC may obtain an injunction prohibiting any conduct by Owner in violation of the terms of this Section 3.

4. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

4.1. No Waivers. No delay, omission or forbearance on the part of QRC to exercise any right, option, duty or power constitutes a waiver by QRC to enforce any such right, option, duty or power against Owner; nor does any such delay, omission, or forbearance constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default by Owner.

4.2. Notices. Any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement must be made in writing, and must be personally delivered or mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by national overnight carrier, to the respective parties at the following addresses unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party:

4.3. Modification. No amendment, change or variance from this Agreement will be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and signed by their authorized officers or agents in writing.

4.4. Severability and Construction. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, each portion, section, part, term and/or provision of this Agreement is severable. QDOBA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

THIS QDOBA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT ("Agreement"), is made between QDOBA RESTAURANT CORPORATION, a Colorado corporation with its principal place of business at 350 Camino De La Reina, Suite 400, San Diego, California 92108 ("Company"), and EntityName, a State limited liability company, with its principal place of business at EntityAddress, EntityCity ("Developer"). This Agreement is dated _____, 20____, and becomes effective when it is signed by both Company and Developer.

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, Company has expended significant time, effort and money to develop a distinctive system relating to the establishment and operation of Mexican-themed fast-casual restaurants featuring a specialized menu of wrapped burritos, burrito bowls, tacos, quesadillas, taco salads and other entrees (the "System"); and

WHEREAS, the distinguishing characteristics of the System include, without limitation, the use of distinctive exterior and interior design, decor, color scheme and furnishings; special recipes and menu items; uniform standards, specifications and procedures for operations; a catering program; high quality and uniform products and services; standardized and/or tiered pricing structures; procedures for inventory and management control; training and assistance; and marketing and promotional programs; all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by Company from time to time; and

WHEREAS, Company identifies the System by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including but not limited to, the marks "Qdoba®" and variations thereon ("Qdoba"), and such other trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos and indicia of origin that may be designated by Company in the future for use in connection with the System (collectively, the "Proprietary Marks" or "Marks"); and

WHEREAS, Company continues to develop, use, and control the use of such Proprietary Marks in order to identify for the public the source of services and products marketed under the Marks and System, and to represent the System's high standards of quality, appearance and service; and

WHEREAS, Developer desires to enter into the business of operating a Qdoba restaurant under Company's System, to obtain a franchise from Company for that purpose, and to receive the training and other assistance provided by Company in connection with the franchise; and

WHEREAS, Developer recognizes the value of the System and Marks, and the importance of maintaining Company's high standards of quality, cleanliness, appearance and service in the operation of Qdoba restaurants.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the undertakings and commitments set forth in this Agreement, the parties agree as follows:

1. DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS

1.1. Rights During Term

1.1.1. During the term of this Agreement, and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, Company will grant to Developer franchises for the construction, ownership, and operation of Qdoba restaurants within the development area described in Exhibit A ("Development Area"). The number of franchises to be granted, and the time periods during which the franchises will be granted, are specified in Exhibit B. The terms of the franchises will be set forth in Franchise Agreement in use by Company at the time each franchise is granted, including all associated agreements used in connection with the Franchise Agreement.

1.1.2. During the term of this Agreement, and except as provided in Section 4 below, Company will not:

1.1.1.2. allow any person or entity that owns, is owned by, or is under common ownership ("Affiliate") with Company, to operate any Qdoba restaurant located within the Development Area; nor

1.1.1.3. grant a franchise for the operation of any Qdoba restaurants located within the Development Area, except the franchises that are granted to Developer in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

1.2. Rights Upon Expiration of Term

After the term of this Agreement expires (unless it is earlier terminated in accordance with Section 14 of this Agreement), Company may operate and grant franchises for the operation of Qdoba restaurants located within the Development Area, and Developer will have no remaining development rights in the Development Area.

1.3. Nothing in this Section 1 affects the territorial rights established in Developer's Franchise Agreement(s), if any.

1.4. The Developer's rights set forth in this Section 1 are contingent upon Developer:

1.4.1. being in full compliance with the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, including but not limited to, the development obligations contained in Section 2 below;

1.4.2. being in full compliance with all obligations under all agreements heretofore or hereafter entered into with the Company by Developer or any owner of a direct or indirect financial interest in Developer, including any Franchise Agreements; and

1.4.3. meeting the standard financial capability criteria as may be developed by Company and revised from time to time.

2. DEVELOPMENT OBLIGATIONS

2.1. Best Efforts

During the term of this Agreement, Developer must at all times faithfully, honestly, and diligently perform its obligations under this Agreement. Developer must continuously exert best efforts to promote and enhance the development of Qdoba restaurants within the Development Area. Developer (or a partner, member or shareholder approved by Company) must use full-time efforts to meet the obligations of this Agreement, and must not engage in any other business or other activity, directly or indirectly, that involves any significant management responsibility, time commitments, or otherwise may conflict with Developer's obligations under this Agreement. Developer (or the Company-approved managing partner, member or shareholder) must supervise the development of the Qdoba restaurants developed under this Agreement, but need not be engaged in the day-to-day operations of any such Restaurant.

2.2. Minimum Development Quota

2.2.1. Without limiting the obligations described in Section 6, Developer agrees to develop within the Development Area, the number of Qdoba restaurants set forth in Exhibit A ("Minimum Development Quota"). Each Qdoba restaurant must be opened and in continuous operation on or before the Development Deadline, which is set forth in, and is part of, the Minimum Development Quota. Time is of the essence. Failure to meet a Development Deadline will result in forfeiture. Company's right to terminate this Agreement and retain the Development Fee (as defined in Section 5) and any franchise fee paid pursuant to Section 5 of this Agreement are Company's sole and exclusive remedies for breach of the Developer's contractual duty to meet the Minimum Development Quota.

2.2.2. A restaurant that closes for more than 5 days (not counting Company-approved holidays), during any period of 12 months will not be counted as open and in operation for purposes of determining whether Developer has met the Minimum Development Quota.

3. TERM OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement expires on the date set forth in Exhibit A, unless earlier terminated in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

4. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

4.1. If any Qdoba restaurants were opened in the Development Area by Company or another franchisee on or before the date of this Agreement, Company may continue to allow the operation of such pre-existing restaurant(s). If such pre-existing restaurant is required to close due to loss of the right to occupy the property, a casualty loss or eminent domain proceeding, Company may allow that restaurant to reopen or relocate within the Development Area, and thereafter to continue operations. The continuing operation of pre-existing restaurants does not constitute a violation of this Agreement.

4.2. At any time, Company, or any Affiliate of Company, may purchase or be purchased by any third party that operates itself, or licenses or franchises others to operate, restaurants or similar businesses inside the Development Area, regardless of whether such restaurants or businesses offer different, the same or similar products as those offered by the Franchised Business.

4.3. At any time, Company may sell within the Development Area products and services that are authorized for sale at Qdoba restaurants, as well as other products and services, under the Marks or other trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols, provided that such sales are through channels of distribution dissimilar to those to be used in the business to be franchised. Dissimilar channels of distribution include, but are not limited to, grocery and other retail stores (including supermarkets), motor vehicles (such as food trucks), the internet, satellite locations, sales or mail order catalogs, temporary locations, carts or kiosks, or through any other electronic or print media. Such sales do not constitute a violation of this Agreement.

4.4. Developer understands and acknowledges that at any time company may develop or authorize someone other than Developer to develop and operate restaurants in non-traditional locations within the Development Area. These locations may include the campuses of universities or colleges, hospitals, public transportation facilities, amusement parks, government facilities, shopping malls, stadiums, arenas or other sports facilities, and similarly situated sites. If company permits Developer to develop such a site, that site will not count toward the Minimum Development Quota.

4.5. If Developer does not open a Qdoba restaurant at a site Company has accepted within one hundred eighty (180) days after Developer receives a Notice of Site Acceptance and written approval of any lease, Company may develop the restaurant at that site, as further described in Section 6.5.3.

4.6. After this Agreement expires or is terminated, Company may operate, or license others to operate, restaurants under the System and / or the Marks within what was formerly the Development Area.

4.7. Developer acknowledges and agrees that Company may modify, update and improve the System and the Marks, all in its sole discretion. Developer acknowledges and agrees that Company may enter into co-branding relationships, marketing agreements, and other strategic alliances with other companies or entities, all of which,

in addition to other factors, may result in changes to the System and Marks. As the System and Marks change, Developer may be required to purchase new fixtures, furniture, equipment, décor items and signage, and make other investments in the Qdoba Business. Developer understands and agrees that it must develop and operate all restaurants in accordance with the System and Marks, as they are modified, updated, improved and changed from time to time.

5. DEVELOPMENT FEE

5.1. At the time this Agreement is signed, Developer must pay to Company a Development Fee of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each of the restaurants to be developed by Developer under this Development Agreement. This fee is fully earned and is nonrefundable in consideration of administrative and other expenses incurred by Company, and Company's lost or deferred opportunity to franchise to others.

5.2. For each restaurant to be developed under this Agreement, Developer will sign the Franchise Agreement and pay the initial franchise fee for the restaurant (less a credit equal to the Development Fee attributed to that restaurant) at or around the time construction on the restaurant begins. The initial franchise fee is set forth in Exhibit A.

5.3. Developer must reimburse Company for all sales or use taxes, goods and services taxes, personal property taxes, gross receipt taxes, excise taxes, value added taxes and similar taxes imposed upon or required to be collected by Company, on account of goods or services furnished to Developer through sale, lease or otherwise. Developer will pay such taxes upon demand, and in the manner designated by the Company.

6. DEVELOPMENT CONDITIONS AND PROCEDURES

Developer must meet the following conditions and adhere to the following procedures before construction on any Qdoba restaurants may begin:

6.1. Market Plan

6.1.1. Before undertaking any development activities in the Development Area, Developer must submit to Company a market development plan ("Market Plan") for the Development Area. The Market Plan must include a trade area analysis for each area that Developer considers a separate trade area within the Development Area. The Market Plan must include all relevant information regarding each trade area, including but not limited to, residential population, daytime population, total businesses, median household incomes, income growth, per capital income and population growth, all according to the Company's then-existing requirements.

6.1.2. Developer must also submit a separate map showing the trade areas served, or to be served, by a restaurant owned by Developer, and plotting all malls, power centers, grocery stores and food service establishments that might directly or indirectly compete with the proposed Qdoba restaurant.

6.1.3. The separate trade areas identified by Developer do not constitute protected market areas or territories. Protected territories surrounding any Qdoba restaurant, if any, are set forth in individual Franchise Agreements.

6.1.4. Company will not approve a particular site for development as a Qdoba restaurant unless and until Developer's Market Plan is reviewed.

6.2. Site Selection

6.2.1. After a Developer's Market Plan is reviewed, Developer must obtain Company's acceptance of a potential site. The acceptance or disapproval of any site submitted by Developer will be at the sole discretion of Company. No site will be deemed accepted unless it has been expressly accepted in writing in a Notice of Site Acceptance. In determining whether to approve or disapprove a proposed site, Company may consider a variety of factors, including but not limited to, demographic characteristics, traffic patterns, parking, visibility, allowed signage, the predominant character of the neighborhood, competition for other food service businesses, the nature of other businesses in the areas, and other commercial factors such as the size of the proposed space, the lease terms for the proposed site, and the physical appearance of the site. Developer acknowledges that Company's site criteria may change over time.

6.2.2. To request acceptance of a site for a restaurant, Developer must submit to Company the then-current form of Site Package. The Site Package must include, but is not limited to, the following:

6.2.3. a site evaluation (which must include demographics showing daytime and residential population in one-, two- and three-mile radii (or other dimensions as required by Company) around the site, a floor plan, shopping center site plan (if applicable), elevation drawings showing signage, and photographs of the site);

6.2.3.1. a letter of intent or other evidence satisfactory to Company confirming the Developer's favorable prospects for obtaining the site from the landowner or landlord;

6.2.3.2. Developer's financial information, including but not limited to recent financial statements, financing information, and development cost estimates, in a form approved by Company; and

6.2.3.3. such other information or materials as Company may reasonably require.

6.2.4. If Company elects to visit the site before accepting or not accepting it, Developer must coordinate and arrange for the visit by Company's representative, and pay Company's related travel expenses.

6.2.5. Company will use its best efforts to send either a Notice of Site Acceptance or a letter indicating the site has not been accepted within the latter of 45 days after Company receives the complete Site Submittal Package, or within 45 days after receipt of any materials requested from Developer after the initial Site Submittal Package.

6.2.6. Neither Company's examination and acceptance of a site, nor any information communicated to Developer regarding the site, constitutes a representation, guaranty or warranty, express or implied, of the successful operation or profitability of any restaurant operated at such location. Such examination, acceptance and information indicate only that Company has reviewed the site characteristics. Developer and Company acknowledge that Company's criteria for accepting a site may change over time. Additionally, demographic and economic factors, including competition from other food service businesses, could change, thereby changing the potential of the site. Company is not responsible for the failure of an accepted site to meet Developer's expectations as to customer traffic, revenue, profits or any other matter.

6.3. Lease Acceptance

6.3.1. If Developer intends to occupy the Restaurant premises under a lease, Developer may be required to obtain Company's written acceptance of the lease before signing it and before construction of a Qdoba restaurant may begin.

6.3.2. Developer must use its best efforts to use Company's standard form lease addendum that is to be executed by Developer, and the landlord, and Company, along with its successors and assigns, shall be an intended third party beneficiary of the provisions of such addendum. Developer must present the Company's standard form lease addendum to the landlord before the initiation of negotiations for the lease. Regardless, all final leases or lease addendums for a Restaurant must include the following terms and conditions:

6.3.2.1. That the premises may be used only for the operation of the Qdoba Business;

6.3.2.2. That the landlord consents to Developer's use of such Proprietary Marks and signage as Company may require for the Franchised Business;

6.3.2.3. That the landlord and Developer each agree that whenever they send the other any letter, notice, amendment or other document pertaining to the lease or the premises, they will simultaneously send a copy to Company;

6.3.2.4. That Developer may not sublease or assign all or any part of its occupancy rights, or extend the term of, or renew, the lease without Company's prior written consent;

6.3.2.5. The landlord must copy Company on any notices to Developer that are related to Developer's performance under the lease, including, but not limited to, late rent notices, notices of default, and notices of termination; and Developer agrees to copy Company on Developer's responses to such notices;

6.3.2.6. That Company has the right to enter the premises to make any modification necessary to protect the Proprietary Marks or to cure any default under the lease or under this Agreement;

6.3.2.7. That if Developer is in default under the lease, the landlord agrees that Company will have the right to cure the default or assume the lease, and sublease the premises for all, or any part of, the term of the lease;

6.3.2.8. The lease must provide for Developer to freely assign the Lease, without Landlord's consent, to Company, or a subsidiary designee of Company.

6.3.2.9. That a memorandum or notice of the lease will be recorded in the appropriate recorder's office in the county in which the Restaurant is located, and that a copy of the recording certificate will be delivered to Company;

6.3.2.10. That the term of the lease, including options, will be at least ten (10) years; and

6.3.2.11. If the restaurant is to be located in a shopping center, mall or other multi-tenant facility, the lease must provide that the landlord agrees it will not lease other space within such facility to any food service entity that serves primarily Mexican food or for which burritos, tacos, and/or bowls comprise more than twenty percent (20%) of the menu or represent more than twenty percent (20%) of the sales ("Competitive Business"), such sales to be measured over a trailing twelve month period.

6.3.3. Company's examination and approval of a lease or any communication to Developer regarding the lease does not constitute a representation, guaranty or warranty, express or implied, of the successful operation or profitability of any restaurant operated at such location, nor does such examination and approval of a lease constitute a legal review of the terms and conditions of that lease. Such examination, approval and information only indicate that Company consents to Developer leasing the property for use as a Qdoba restaurant.

6.4. Franchise Agreement and Franchise Fee

6.4.1. As referenced in Section 5, the franchise fee must be paid at the time Developer signs each Franchise Agreement, as discussed in Section 6.4.2 below.

6.4.2. After Company approves the Market Plan for each subsequent site, and the lease agreement is fully signed by the parties to that lease, and a copy of that lease has been submitted to and approved by Company, then Company will deliver the then-current Franchise Agreement to Developer. Developer must sign the Franchise

Agreement, pay the applicable franchise fee, less a credit equal to the Development Fee paid for that site, and deliver the Franchise Agreement to the Company. After Developer submits the Franchise Agreement, pays the franchise fee, and submits to Company evidence of its required insurance coverages, Company will countersign the Franchise Agreement and provide a copy of the fully signed Franchise Agreement to Developer.

6.5. Timing of Construction

6.5.1. Developer may begin construction only upon the prior written approval of Company.

6.5.2. Developer must comply with Company's requirements regarding development and construction of the restaurant, as specified in the Franchise Agreement, the Manual, or elsewhere in writing.

6.5.3. Developer must track and report its development and construction costs, and provide to Company a copy of Developer's contract with its general contractor, as further specified in the Franchise Agreement, the Manual or elsewhere in writing. Time is of the essence. If Developer has not opened a unit at the end of that time period, Company may withdraw acceptance of the site and/or develop the site itself.

6.6. Designated Operator / Management of the Business

6.6.1. Developer must prepare and submit to Company a management plan (the "Management Plan"). The Management Plan must designate a Designated Operator ("DO") who is approved by Company and possesses at least three years of multi-unit experience in the operation of a casual-dining, fast-food, family-dining or cafeteria-style restaurant. The Management Plan must be based on Developer's previous restaurant experience (if any) and the qualifications of those individuals Developer would like to have involved in the day-to-day Qdoba business. The DO must also: (a) have the authorization to allow Company to communicate with and give notice to Developer through the DO; and (b) have completed Company's certified training program to our satisfaction. Furthermore, Developer or Developer's DO: (a) shall exert full-time best efforts to the development and operation of all Qdoba franchises you own; and (b) may not engage in any other business or activity, directly or indirectly, that requires substantial management responsibilities or time commitments or otherwise may conflict with the development obligations hereunder, unless specifically permitted in writing by Company.

6.6.2. Each of your Qdoba restaurants at all times must be managed by Developer (or Developer's DO) or by an on-site General Manager, assistant manager or shift supervisor who has completed our certified training program to our satisfaction.

6.6.3. Prior to opening the first restaurant under this Agreement, Developer (and/or Developer's DO) and any other personnel who are intended to have, or who actually have, responsibilities for more than one Qdoba restaurant must complete the certified training program to our satisfaction. Thereafter, subsequently hired personnel must complete the certified training program to our satisfaction before assuming their position.

7. GUARANTEES

7.1. Developer must have each of its Owners, as hereinafter defined, sign and deliver to Company concurrently with this Agreement a guaranty of Developer's obligations under this Agreement. Spouses (collectively, "Spouses") of Owners may also be required to sign the Guaranty. The guaranty must be in the form of Guaranty and Assumption of Developer's Obligations ("Guaranty") attached hereto as Exhibit B.

7.2. The term "Owner" means each person or entity that: has an indirect or direct equity interest in Developer or the Qdoba business.

7.3. If any person or entity becomes an Owner after this Agreement is signed, as outlined in Section 11, the new Owner and his/her Spouse must sign the Guaranty and must deliver it to Company.

8. OWNERSHIP AND USE OF MARKS

8.1. Developer understands and acknowledges that Company owns the Proprietary Marks, that Developer has no interest whatsoever in or to the Proprietary Marks, and that Developer's right to use the Proprietary Marks is derived solely from this Agreement, and is limited by the terms of this Agreement and all applicable specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed by Company from time to time. Any unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks by Developer will constitute an infringement of the rights of Company in and to the Proprietary Marks.

8.2. Developer may not use any Proprietary Mark as part of any corporate or trade name or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols, or in any modified form. Developer may not use any Proprietary Marks in connection with any business or activity other than the Qdoba Business or in any manner not explicitly authorized in writing by Company. Developer may not establish a web site or domain name that in any way uses or incorporates a Proprietary Mark, or links to Company's website, without the prior written consent of Company.

8.3. Developer agrees that any goodwill established by Developer's use of the Proprietary Marks or System will inure to the exclusive benefit of Company, and Developer acknowledges that this Agreement does not confer upon Developer any goodwill or interests in the Proprietary Marks or System.

8.4. Developer must not, during the term of this Agreement or after its termination or expiration, contest the validity or ownership of any of the Proprietary Marks or assist any other person in contesting the validity or ownership of any of the Proprietary Marks.

8.5. All provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Proprietary Marks will apply to any additional trademarks, service marks, logo forms and commercial symbols that Company hereafter authorizes Developer to use in connection with the Qdoba Business.

8.6. Developer agrees to use the Proprietary Marks as the sole identification of the Restaurant; however, Developer must identify himself as the independent owner at the Restaurant in the manner prescribed by Company. Developer agrees to display the Proprietary Marks prominently and in the manner prescribed by Company on signs, menus and forms. Further, Developer agrees to give such notices of trademark and service mark registrations and copyrights as Company specifies, and to obtain such fictitious or assumed name registrations as may be required under applicable law.

8.7. Failure to comply strictly with any and all provisions regarding use of the Marks in this Section 8 will be grounds for termination of this Agreement without the opportunity to cure, as more fully set forth in Section 14.

8.8. If Company determines, in its sole discretion, that it is advisable for Company and/or Developer to modify or discontinue use of any Proprietary Mark, or use one or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks, Developer agrees to comply with Company directives regarding the use of such Marks within a reasonable time as established by Company. The sole liability and obligation of Company in any such event will be to reimburse Developer for the out-of-pocket costs of complying with this obligation.

8.9. Developer must immediately notify Company in writing if Developer becomes aware of any apparent infringement or imitation of any Mark, any challenge to Developer's use of any Mark, any claim by any person of any rights in any Mark, or existence of any similar trade name, trademark or service mark. Developer may not communicate with any person, other than Company and its counsel, in connection with any infringement, challenge or claim except as required by law. Company has the exclusive right to control any litigation, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office proceeding or other legal or administrative proceeding relating to any Proprietary Mark, and sole discretion to take such action as it deems appropriate. Developer agrees to sign any and all instruments and documents, render such assistance and do such acts and things as Company deems necessary or advisable to protect and maintain the interests of Company in any such litigation or proceeding, or to otherwise protect and maintain the interests of Company in the Marks.

8.10. Company agrees to indemnify Developer against, and to reimburse Developer for, all damages for which it is held liable in any proceeding in which: (a) Developer's use of any Proprietary Mark pursuant to and in compliance with this Agreement is held to constitute trademark infringement, unfair competition or dilution; and (b) for all costs reasonably incurred by Developer in the defense of any such claim brought against it or in any such proceeding in which it is named as a party, provided that Developer has timely notified Company of such claim or proceeding, has otherwise complied with this Agreement and has tendered complete control of the defense of such to Company. If Company defends such claim, Company will have no obligation to indemnify or reimburse Developer with respect to any fees or disbursements of any attorney retained by Developer.

8.11. All promotional materials, advertising materials, discoveries, inventions, ideas, business methods or improvements (whether or not patentable or capable of being copyrighted) relating to or arising from the operation of a Qdoba restaurant, whether created by Developer, Developer's Owners or their agents and independent contractors, must be promptly disclosed by Developer to Company, and will be Company's sole and exclusive property. If applicable, those items will be deemed to be works made-for-hire for Company. To the extent the works may not be deemed "works made for hire" under applicable law, Developer hereby irrevocably assigns to Company, for no additional consideration, all right, title and interest in and to any patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets and any other proprietary rights. .

9. CONFIDENTIAL OPERATING MANUAL

9.1. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of Company and to maintain high standards of operation under the Proprietary Marks, Developer must develop Qdoba restaurants and conduct its business in accordance with the Company's operating manual, including but not limited to the Operations Manual, Manager-in-Training Manual, Franchise Real Estate Manual, and Store Opening Manual (collectively, the "Manual"). Developer will receive access to the Manual from Company for the term of this Agreement in any manner Company chooses, including electronically through the Company intranet.

9.2. Developer must at all times treat the Manual, any other manuals created for, or approved for use in, the development and operation of the Qdoba business, and the information contained therein, as secret and confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential, as specified in Section 10, below, including but not limited to keeping the Manual secure at all times.

9.3. The Manual will at all times remain the sole property of Company.

9.4. Developer understands and acknowledges that Company may, in its sole discretion, modify or replace the Manual or its contents. Developer agrees to conduct its business in accordance with all terms of Company's then-current Manual. Developer must at all times ensure that the Manual is kept current and up to date. If there is any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by Company will be controlling.

10. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

10.1. Developer understands and acknowledges that Company has invested, and continues to invest, considerable sums of money in developing the System. Because of the competitive nature of the restaurant business, and to protect the legitimate interest of Company and other Developers, it is necessary to protect certain information about the System as confidential.

10.2. For purposes of this provision, “Confidential Information” includes product recipes and tests, ingredients used in Company’s products, product preparation procedures, customer service measures and techniques, franchise support procedures, supplier relationship and distribution system information, new product development information, the Manual, financial data, growth plans or strategies, real estate development plans or strategies, restaurant design plans, proposed restaurant sites, equipment and computer systems, business and development plans and strategies, training programs, consumer research results, marketing and advertising strategies and materials, and all other information designated by Company as confidential.

10.3. Confidential Information does not include: (a) information, concepts, methods, procedures or techniques that are, or become, generally known in the quick-service and quick-casual restaurant industries in the United States, other than through disclosure by Developer, whether deliberate or inadvertent; (b) the disclosure of Confidential Information in judicial or administrative proceedings to the extent that Developer is legally compelled to disclose such information, provided that Developer has afforded Company with the opportunity to obtain an appropriate protect order or other assurance that the information will be treated as confidential; or (c) information that Developer can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by Company other than in connection with a violation of a confidentiality or non-disclosure agreement.

10.4. Developer will be provided with Confidential Information in connection with its development and operation of the Qdoba Businesses. Developer agrees that both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Developer: (a) will use the Confidential Information only in the development and operation of the Qdoba Businesses, and not in any connection with any other business; (b) will not make copies of, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information without the express written consent of Company; (c) will not communicate, divulge or disclose the Confidential Information to any person or entity who does not need access to it to develop or operate the Qdoba Businesses; and (d) will not use the Confidential Information, or allow it to be used, for the benefit of any third party.

10.5. Developer acknowledges and agrees that all Confidential Information is, and will remain, the sole and exclusive proprietary property of Company.

10.6. Company may require Developer to obtain from all management personnel and independent contractors, as a condition of their employment, covenants that they will maintain the confidentiality of all Confidential Information that they receive in connection with their employment by Developer. Such covenants will be in a form satisfactory to Company, including, without limitation, specific identification of Company as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them. Developer may be required to provide Company with copies of all such covenants.

10.7. Company requires that all Owners of Developer or the Franchised Business sign the Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement, attached as Exhibit C.

10.8. Developer understands and acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this Section 10 will result in substantial injury and damage to Company for which there is no adequate remedy at law. For these reasons, if Developer violates or threatens to violate any term of this provision, the Company will be entitled, in addition to any other remedies and damages available, to injunctive or other equitable relief to restrain the violation of this provision by Developer and its agents or employees. Developer agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable legal fees incurred by Company in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this Section 10, in addition to any other claims to which Company may be entitled.

11. TRANSFER OF INTEREST

11.1. TRANSFER BY COMPANY

Company may transfer or assign this Agreement, any ownership interest in Company, and all or any part of Company's rights or obligations herein to any person or legal entity. Any such assignment will inure to the benefit of any assignee or other legal successor to the interest of Company. Company may, in its sole discretion, elect to have designees perform the obligations of Company under this Agreement.

11.2. TRANSFER BY DEVELOPER

11.2.1. Developer understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Developer (or if Developer is a legally formed entity, Developer's shareholders, partners and/or members), and that Company has granted development rights in reliance on Developer's business skill, financial capacity and personal character. Accordingly, neither Developer nor any individual or entity that directly or indirectly owns any interest in Developer, this Agreement, or in the Qdoba Business, may sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage or otherwise encumber (hereinafter, "Transfer") any direct or indirect interest in Developer, this Agreement or the Qdoba Business without the prior written consent of Company. Company may withhold consent or any or no reason.

11.2.2. Any purported Transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, not having the written consent of Company required by this Section 11 will be null and void, and will constitute a material breach of this Agreement. Furthermore, Developer may not retain or otherwise contract with any entity that is not a party to this Agreement to provide management or administrative services for the development of a Qdoba restaurant unless such entity is either an employee of Developer or has been approved in writing by Company. Company may condition such approval on the receipt of a non-disclosure covenant from the third party.

12. COMPANY'S RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

12.1. Any party holding any direct or indirect interest in Developer, this Agreement or Qdoba Business, and who desires to accept any bona fide offer from a third party to purchase all or any part of such interest (hereinafter referred to as "Seller") must notify Company in writing of each such offer forty-five (45) days before the proposed sale. Seller must provide such information and documentation relating to the proposed purchaser and the offer as Company may require. Company will have the right and option to purchase the Seller's interest at Company's sole discretion, at the price offered by the third party. Company will inform Seller of its intent to exercise the option within thirty (30) days after receipt of all of the information from Seller. If the proposed transaction includes assets of Developer not related to the development or operation of the Qdoba Business, Company may at its discretion exercise its option only with respect to such interest. In such event, an equitable purchase price will be allocated to each asset included in the proposed transaction. If Company elects to purchase the Seller's interest, Company may require the purchase to close within thirty (30) days from the date of notice to the Seller of Company's election to purchase.

12.2. Any material change in the terms of any offer prior to closing will constitute a new offer, and will be subject to Company's right of first refusal as though it were an initial offer.

12.3. Failure of Company to exercise the option afforded by this Section 12 will not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement relating to proposed transfers, including any of the requirements of this Section 12.

12.4. If Company exercises its right of first refusal, the agreement of sale will be deemed to include customary representations and warranties given by the Seller including, without limitation, representations and warranties as to ownership, condition of and title to stock and assets, liens and encumbrances relating to the stock and assets, validity of contracts and verification of financial statements.

13. DEATH OR DISABILITY

Upon the death or permanent disability of Developer (or any Owner), the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative of such person may transfer that individual's interest in this Agreement and the Qdoba Business within a reasonable time, not to exceed twelve (12) months from the date of death or permanent disability, to a person approved by Company. Company will not unreasonably withhold consent to such a transfer. Such transfers, including, without limitation, transfers by devise or will are subject to all other terms and conditions for assignments and transfers contained in Section 11 of this Agreement. Failure to transfer such interest within the required period of time will constitute grounds for termination of this Agreement.

14. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

14.1. Immediate Termination. Developer will be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and all rights granted herein will immediately terminate automatically and without notice to Developer if any of the following events occur;

14.1.1. Developer makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors;

14.1.2. Developer commences a voluntary case, or otherwise seeks any type of relief under bankruptcy, insolvency or any similar law; or an involuntary case under bankruptcy or insolvency or similar law is filed against Developer and is not opposed by Developer within ninety days of filing; or an order or decree for relief under bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws is entered regarding Developer. Developer expressly waives all rights under the provisions of the bankruptcy or other applicable laws and rules, and consents to the immediate termination of this Agreement as provided herein. Developer agrees not to seek an order from any court, tribunal or agency in any jurisdiction relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or any similar proceedings that would have the effect of staying or enjoining this provision.

14.1.3. A bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Developer or other custodian for Developer's business or assets or real or personal property is filed by, and either consented to or not opposed by Developer;

14.1.4. Developer becomes insolvent in that (a) Developer generally fails, or is generally unable, to pay its obligations as they become due in the regular course of business, or (b) the value of Developer's assets are less than the value of its liabilities;

14.1.5. If Developer is a corporation or partnership, or other legal entity and Developer is dissolved or its existence otherwise terminated;

14.1.6. Execution is levied against Developer or and business franchised from Company;

14.1.7. A suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the Developer's business premises or equipment is instituted and not dismissed within thirty (30) days; or 14.1.8. Developer abandons efforts to develop Qdoba restaurants in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14.2. Termination Upon Notice. Developer will be deemed to be in default and Company may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted under this Agreement upon any of the following grounds. Termination will become effective immediately upon notice to Developer.

14.2.1. Company reasonably determines that a threat or danger to public health or safety is likely to result from the construction, maintenance or operation of any Qdoba restaurant franchised by Developer.

14.2.2. A final judgment remains unsatisfied or of record of thirty (30) days or longer (unless appeal bond has been filed).

14.2.3. Developer is convicted of or pleads no contest to a felony, a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that Company reasonably believes likely to have an adverse effect on the System, the Proprietary Marks, the goodwill associated therewith, or Company's interest therein.

14.2.4. Developer discloses, makes any unauthorized duplicates of, or otherwise improperly divulges or uses the contents of the Manual or other confidential information provided to Developer by Company contrary to the terms of Sections 9 or 10 of this Agreement.

14.2.5. Developer maintains false books or records, or submits any reports or information to Company or any governmental agency or lender that contains any materially inaccurate, incomplete or misleading statements, or omits any facts necessary to make the statements made not misleading.

14.2.6. Developer fails on three (3) or more separate occasions within any trailing 12- month period to comply with this Agreement, or to sign Company's standards as outlined in the Manual, whether or not such failures are corrected after notice of default is given to Developer.

14.2.7. Developer has made material misrepresentations or omissions in Developer's franchise application for the development rights conferred by this Agreement, or in this Agreement.

14.2.8. Developer fails to comply with the development obligations as set forth on Exhibit B, the Minimum Development Quota.

14.2.9. Developer makes any unauthorized use of the Marks or fails to strictly comply with the terms set forth in Sections 8, 9, or 10 of this Agreement.

14.3. Termination After Opportunity to Cure. Developer will be deemed to be in default and Company may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted under this Agreement upon any of the following grounds. If the condition is susceptible of being cured, Developer must correct the condition within the period specified below, or termination will be effective at the conclusion of the cure period.

14.3.1. Developer fails to develop, maintain and operate the Qdoba Business in accordance with Company's standards and specifications, or fails to maintain the insurance required under this Agreement. Developer will have five (5) days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

14.3.2. Developer loses the right to possession of the premises, or otherwise forfeits the right to do or transact business in the jurisdiction where the Development Area is located. Developer will have five (5) days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

14.3.3. Developer or any partner or shareholder in Developer purports to transfer any rights or obligations under this Agreement or any interest in Developer or the Qdoba Business in violation of the terms of Section 11 of this Agreement. Developer will have five (5) days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

14.3.4. Developer fails to comply with the in-term covenants in Section 16 of this Agreement or fails to obtain execution of the covenants required under that Section. Developer will have five (5) days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

14.3.5. Developer fails to make any payments due under this Agreement. Developer will have ten (10) days after receiving written notice to correct this condition.

14.3.6. Developer violates any federal labor laws. Developer shall have 30 days to correct such condition after receiving notice from Company.

14.3.7. Developer or any Affiliate of Developer commits a default under any agreement with Company or its Affiliates (other than this Agreement), and the default is not cured within the cure period specified in that agreement, if any.

14.3.8. Developer fails to comply with any other provision of this Agreement or defaults under any other development agreement, lease agreement, confidentiality agreement, note, or any agreement or account for the purchase of product or services between Company and Developer, including franchise agreements, entered into with Company by Developer or any owner of a direct or indirect interest in Developer. Developer will have thirty (30) days after receiving written notice to correct such condition.

14.4. If any applicable law or rule requires greater prior notice of termination, the prior notice required by such law or rule will be substituted for the notice requirements specified above.

14.5. If Developer and its owners are in compliance with this Agreement, and Company fails to comply with this Agreement, Developer must provide Company with written notice thereof. If Company either (a) fails to cure such default within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof is delivered to Company or, (b) if the failure cannot be corrected within thirty (30) days and Company fails to provide proof acceptable to Developer of efforts that are reasonably calculated to correct such failure within a reasonable time, which will in no event be more than sixty (60) days after such notice, Developer may terminate this Agreement. Such termination will become effective ten (10) days after delivery to Company of notice of termination. A termination of this Agreement by Developer for any other reason or without such notice will be deemed a termination by Developer without cause, and will result in forfeiture of all development fees paid by developer.

15. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

Except as provided in Section 1.2 of this Agreement, upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted under this Agreement to Developer will immediately terminate, and Developer has the following obligations:

15.1. Developer must immediately cease to develop or construct any new Qdoba restaurants and must not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent itself to the public as a present or former Developer of Company;

15.2. If Developer continues to operate, or subsequently begins to operate, any other business, it must not use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation of the Proprietary Marks, including but not limited to trademarks, interior image and trade dress, menu boards and designs, and art as specified in the Manual, either in connection with such other business or the promotion thereof, that is likely to cause confusion, mistake or deception, or that is likely to dilute Company's rights in and to the Proprietary Marks. Developer further agrees not to use any designation of origin or description or representation that falsely suggests or represents an association or connection with Company.

15.3. Developer must pay to Company all damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable legal fees, incurred by Company after the termination or expiration of this Agreement in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement;

15.4. Developer must immediately deliver to Company all manuals, including the Manual, and all other records and documents containing confidential information;

15.5. All obligations of Company, Developer and Owners that expressly or by their nature survive or are intended to survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect after and notwithstanding its expiration or termination, until those obligations are satisfied in full or by their nature expire; and 15.6. Developer shall also provide to Company, upon request, evidence satisfactory to Company that Developer has complied with the obligations in this Section 15.

15.7. Developer must comply with the covenants contained in Section 16 of this Agreement.

16. COVENANTS AND RESTRICTIONS ON OTHER BUSINESS INTERESTS

16.1. During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by Company, Developer must devote best efforts to the management and operation of the Qdoba Business.

16.2. Developer acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Developer will receive valuable specialized training and confidential information, including without limitation, information regarding the development, construction, operational, sales, promotional and marketing methods and techniques of Company and the System. During the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by Company, Developer, any shareholder of Developer if Developer is a corporation, any member of Developer if Developer is a limited liability company, and partner of Developer if Developer is a partnership, may not, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation do any of the following:

16.2.1. Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the Qdoba business or any Qdoba restaurant to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with Company's Proprietary Marks and the System; or

16.2.2. During the term of this Agreement, own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any Competitive Business;

16.2.3. For a continuous period of two (2) years after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause for the termination, own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any Competitive Business, which business is, or is intended to be, located within five miles of any Qdoba restaurant then existing.

16.3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, passive partners, as defined by Company from time to time in its sole discretion, shall be exempt from such restrictions. Subsections 16.2.1, 16.2.2, and 16.2.3 above do not apply to ownership by Developer of less than one percent (1%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any publicly held corporation.

16.4. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants is independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Section 16 is found unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, Developer expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Section 16.

16.5. Company has the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or any portion thereof, without Developer's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Developer of written notice thereof. Developer agrees that it will comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified, and that the covenant will be fully enforceable, notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection 19.4 of this Agreement.

16.6. Developer expressly agrees that the existence of any claims it may have against Company, whether or not arising from this Agreement, will not constitute a defense to Company's enforcement of the covenants in this Section 16.

16.7. Developer acknowledges and agrees that Developer's violation of the terms of this Section 16 would result in irreparable injury to Company for which no adequate remedy at law may be available. Developer acknowledges and agrees that Company may obtain an injunction prohibiting any conduct by Developer in violation of the terms of this Section 16.

16.8. At Company's request, Developer must require and obtain covenants similar to those set forth in this Section 16 (including covenants applicable upon the termination of a person's relationship with Developer, to the extent permitted by applicable law) from any or all of the following persons: (1) all managers of Developer and any other personnel employed by Developer who have received or will receive training from Company; and (2) all Owners. Every covenant required by this Section 16 must be in a form satisfactory to Company and must specifically identify Company as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them.

16.9. Developer covenants that during the term of this Agreement, Developer will not permit the ratio of total indebtedness of the Qdoba Business (and any other debt which the holder of which may have recourse against the business) to the total equity in the Qdoba Business to exceed 4 to 1, all calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

17. INSURANCE

17.1. Before beginning any construction on a Qdoba restaurant, and throughout the remaining term of this Agreement, Developer must obtain and maintain in full force and effect, at his own expense, such insurance coverages as may be required of Developer by Company. Such requirements will be specified in the Manuals, or may be otherwise provided to Developer in writing by Company. Before beginning any construction on a Qdoba restaurant, and throughout the remaining term of this Agreement, Developer must furnish to Company evidence satisfactory to Company of such insurance coverages in effect in the form of Certificates of Insurance, any insurance policy endorsements required by Company, and a copy of Developer's insurance policy(ies). Renewal Certificates of Insurance must be delivered to Company 30 days before the expiration date of all policies. All deductible amounts on all insurance policies required under this Agreement must be disclosed in writing to, and approved by, Company, and noted on the applicable Certificate of Insurance. The insurance requirements, including but not limited to, coverages and policy limits, may be increased or modified from time to time by Company at its sole discretion as may be more particularly set out in (or modified by) the Manual.

18. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

18.1. It is understood and agreed by the parties that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between them, and that Company and Developer are independent contractors. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to make either party an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever.

18.2. During the term of this Agreement, Developer must hold itself out to the public as an independent contractor developing the Qdoba restaurants pursuant to a development agreement from Company. Developer agrees to take such actions as may be necessary to do so.

18.3. Nothing in this Agreement authorizes Developer to make any contract, agreement, warranty or representation on Company's behalf, or to incur any debt or other obligation in Company's name. Company will not assume liability for, or be deemed liable as a result of any such action; nor will Company be liable by reason of any act or omission of Developer in its conduct of the Qdoba Business or for any claim or judgment arising therefrom.

18.4. Developer is responsible for all losses, damages, and liabilities, whether contractual, statutory or otherwise, to third persons arising out of or in connection with the development, construction, possession, ownership or operation of any Qdoba restaurant, and for all claims or demands for damages to property, or for injury, illness or death of persons directly or indirectly resulting therefrom. Developer must defend, indemnify and hold harmless Company and its Affiliates and their agents from all such claims, demands, losses, obligations, costs, legal fees, expenses, liabilities, debts or damages directly or indirectly resulting therefrom, unless resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Company. If such claims are asserted against Company or its Affiliates or their agents, Company will notify Developer, and Developer will assume the defense of such claims. If Developer fails to assume the defense, then Company may defend in such manner as it deems appropriate. Developer must reimburse Company for all costs, including legal fees, and the reasonable value of time spent by corporate counsel, incurred by Company or its Affiliates in effecting such defense, in addition to any sum that Company or its Affiliates may incur by reason of any settlement or judgment. Company's right to defense and indemnification hereunder will exist, notwithstanding that its joint or concurrent liability may be imposed on Company by law.

19. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

19.1. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS

19.1.1. Whenever this Agreement requires the prior approval or consent of Company, Developer must make a timely written request to Company for such approval or consent. All such approvals or consents must be obtained in writing.

19.1.2. Company makes no warranties or guarantees upon which Developer may rely in connection with this Agreement.

19.1.3. No delay, omission or forbearance on the part of Company to exercise any right, option, duty or power constitutes a waiver by Company to enforce any such right, option, duty or power as against Developer; nor does any such delay, omission, or forbearance constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default by Developer. Company's waiver of any payments due to it under this Agreement will not be deemed to be a waiver by Company of any preceding breach by Developer of any terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of this Agreement.

19.2. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Company nor Developer will be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement, or be liable for loss or damage if it fails to perform its obligations due to: (1) compliance with any law, ruling, order, regulation, requirement, or instruction of any federal, state, or municipal government or any department or agency thereof; (2) acts of God; (3) acts or omissions of the other party; (4) fires, strikes, embargoes, war, terrorism or riot; or (5) any other similar event or cause which are force majeure in nature. Any delay resulting from any of said causes will extend performance accordingly, or excuse performance, in whole or in part, as may be reasonable. The provisions of this section shall not, however, operate to excuse Developer from the prompt payment of any fee or other payment due Company pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

19.3. NOTICES

Any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement must be made in writing, and must be personally delivered or mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by national overnight carrier, to the respective parties at the following addresses unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party:

Any notice, if delivered personally, shall be deemed to have been given on the day of delivery, if a business day, or if not a business day, on the business day next following the day of delivery. Any notice delivered by overnight carrier will be deemed to have been delivered on the first business day after being deposited with the carrier.

19.4. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

The Recitals and Exhibits are hereby incorporated into, and are part of, this Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire, full and complete agreement between Company and Developer concerning Developer's right to develop the restaurants in the Development Area identified on Exhibit A, and supersedes any prior negotiations, understandings, representations or agreements relating to such development; however, nothing in this Agreement is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the franchise disclosure document we furnished to you. If this Agreement conflicts with the terms of any Franchise Agreement entered into in connection with this Agreement, this Agreement will be controlling.

19.5. MODIFICATION, SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

No amendment, change or variance from this Agreement will be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and signed by their authorized officers or agents in writing.

19.5.1. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, each portion, section, part, term and/or provision of this Agreement is severable. If for any reason a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, determines any section, part, term or provision of this Agreement is invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation, that decision will not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions, sections, parts, terms and/or provisions of this Agreement that remain intelligible. The latter will continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties, and the invalid portions, sections, parts, terms and/or provisions will be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

19.5.2. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor will be deemed to confer upon any person or legal entity other than Developer, Company, Company's officers, directors and employees, and such successors and assigns as may be contemplated by this Agreement hereof, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

19.5.3. All captions in this Agreement are intended solely for the convenience of the parties, and none will be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

19.5.4. All references in this Agreement to the masculine, neuter or singular will be construed to include the masculine, feminine, neuter or plural, where applicable. All acknowledgments, promises, covenants, agreements and obligations herein made or undertaken by Developer will be deemed jointly and severally undertaken by all those executing this Agreement on behalf of Developer, as well as each Owner of Developer.

19.6. NON-BINDING MEDIATION

19.6.1. Except as provided in Subsection 19.6.5 below, controversies, disputes and claims between Company, its Affiliates and their shareholders, officers, directors, employees and agents, or any of them, on the one hand, and Developer, its Affiliates, partners, trustees, shareholders, officers, directors and agents, or any of them, on the other hand, arising out of or related to this Agreement, or the Qdoba Business, including the Qdoba restaurants developed under this Agreement, are subject to non-binding mediation pursuant to the terms of this Subsection. Except as specified in Subsection 19.6.5, no litigation may be commenced between such parties prior to the Mediation Termination Date, as defined in Subsection 19.6.4 below, on any claim which is subject to non-binding mediation under this Agreement, whether or not the mediation has been commenced. The commencement or pendency of litigation will not stay non-binding mediation required under this Agreement, and non-binding mediation required under this Agreement will not stay any litigation commenced in conformity with Subsection 19.6.5. Mediation under this subsection is not intended to alter or suspend the rights or obligations of the parties under this Agreement or to determine the validity or effect of any provision of this Agreement, but is intended to provide the parties with an opportunity to amicably and expeditiously resolve disputes in a cost-effective manner on mutually acceptable terms and conditions.

19.6.2. The non-binding mediation provided for in this Agreement must be commenced by the party demanding mediation ("Complainant") by giving written notice of the demand for mediation ("Demand") to the party with whom mediation is sought ("Respondent"). The Demand must specify with reasonable particularity the matter or matters on which non-binding mediation is being sought. A copy of the Demand must be given by the Complainant simultaneously to Company, if Company is not a Complainant or a Respondent.

19.6.3. Non-binding mediation under this Agreement will be conducted in San Diego, California, by a mediator or mediation program designated by Company in writing ("Designation"), or by such mediator as Complainant and Respondent may otherwise agree to. Company will send the Designation to Complainant and Respondent within a reasonable time after its receipt of the demand.

19.6.4. Non-binding mediation under this Agreement must be concluded within sixty days of the giving of the Demand or such longer period as may be mutually agreed to in writing by the parties to the mediation ("Mediation Termination Date"). All aspects of the mediation process will be treated as confidential, must not be disclosed to others, and will not be offered or admissible in any other proceeding or legal action whatsoever. Complainant and Respondent will each bear its own costs of mediation, and each will bear one-half the cost of the mediator and mediation service.

19.6.5. If Developer is more than forty-five (45) days past due in any of its payments to Company, whether under this Agreement or any other Agreement or account with Company, then Company will not be required to seek or to participate in mediation of any matter or dispute under this Subsection (although Company reserves the right to require mediation), and Company will be free to commence or to pursue litigation at any time. Company will not be required to seek or to participate in mediation of any matter or dispute relating to the indemnification or insurance provisions of this Agreement (although Company reserves the right to require mediation). Nothing in this Subsection will prevent any party from instituting or pursuing litigation at any time to preserve the status quo, protect the Proprietary Marks, protect the health or safety of the public, or avoid irreparable harm.

19.7. LIMITATIONS ON ACTIONS

19.7.1. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by Company, and will be interpreted and construed under the laws of the State of California, which laws will prevail in the event of any conflict of law. If, however, any provision of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of California, Developer is located outside of California, and such provision would be enforceable under the laws of the state in which Developer is located, then such provision shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that state.

19.7.2. Any action brought by either party against the other in any court, whether federal or state, must be brought in San Diego, California. For the purpose of carrying out this provision, the parties hereby waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue.

19.7.3. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to Company or Developer by this Agreement is intended to be, nor will be deemed, exclusive of any other right or remedy provided or permitted herein or by law or equity, but each is cumulative of every other right or remedy.

19.7.4. Nothing contained in this Agreement restricts Company's right to obtain injunctive relief under the usual equity rules, including the applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary injunctions.

19.7.5. Company and Developer irrevocably waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim, whether at law or in equity, brought by Company against Developer, or by Developer against Company or its Affiliates, and their shareholders, officers, directors, employees and agents, whether or not there are other parties in such action.

19.7.6. Any and all claims and actions arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement, the relationship of Company and Developer, or Developer's operation of the Restaurant, must be commenced within two (2) years from the date Developer knew or should have known of the occurrence of the facts giving rise to such claim or action, or such shorter terms as is established by law, or such claim or action will be barred.

19.7.7. Company and Developer hereby waive to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to, or claim of, any punitive or exemplary damages against the other, and agree that in the event of a dispute between them, recoverable damages will be limited to the actual damages sustained by it.

19.8. LEGAL FEES

In any litigation arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to receive from other party all costs, including reasonable accounting and legal fees incurred as a result of the legal action.

20. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

20.1. Developer represents that it has conducted an independent investigation of the Qdoba Business, and recognizes that the business contemplated by this Agreement involves business risks, and that its success will be largely dependent upon the ability of Developer as an independent businessman.

20.2. Developer acknowledges that it received a copy of the Qdoba Disclosure Document, and the attachment(s) thereto, and on or before the date of the first personal meeting with Company to discuss the franchise at least fourteen (14) days before the date the Developer made any payment to Company and the date on which this Agreement was signed. Developer acknowledges that it received the Development Agreement and related agreements, at least seven days prior to the date on which this Agreement was signed.

20.3. Developer represents that it has read and understood this Agreement, the Attachment(s) hereto and agreements relating hereto, if any, and that Developer has had ample time and opportunity to consult with advisors of Developer's own choosing about the potential benefits and risks of entering into this Agreement.

20.4. Developer understands and accepts the terms, conditions and covenants contained in this Agreement as being reasonably necessary to maintain Company's high standards of quality and service, and the uniformity of those standards at all Qdoba restaurants, and thereby to protect and preserve the goodwill of the Proprietary Marks.

20.5. Developer represents that it has not received or relied upon, any representation, guaranty, or warranty express or implied, as to the sales volume, income, earnings, expenses, revenues, profits or success of Qdoba restaurants or the business contemplated by this Agreement or the extent to which Company will continue to develop and expand the network of Qdoba restaurants. Developer further represents that it has not received or relied on any representations about the Qdoba Business, Company or its franchising program or policies from Company, or its officers, directors, employees or agents that are contrary to the statements made in Company's Franchise Disclosure Document or to the terms in this Agreement. Developer represents that any information acquired by Developer from other Qdoba restaurant developers or franchisees relating to the sales, income, earnings, expenses, revenues, profits or success of any Qdoba restaurants does not constitute information obtained from Company, nor does Company make any representation as to the accuracy of any such information.

20.6. Developer acknowledges and agrees that Company's officers, directors, employees and agents act only in a representative, and not in a personal, capacity in connection with any of their dealings with Developer.

20.7. Developer represents that all statements in Developer's application for the franchise are accurate and complete, and Developer has made no misrepresentations or material omissions in obtaining the franchise.

20.8. The Development Agreement may be signed in one or more counterparts, all of which when taken together constitute one original document.

21. RELEASE.

21.1. For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Developer (on behalf of itself and its parent, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, guarantors, agents and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities) (collectively "Releasors"), freely and without any influence, forever releases and covenants not to sue Company, and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and their respective past and present officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, agents and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities (collectively "Releasees"), with respect to any and all claims, demands, liabilities and causes of action of whatever kind or natures, known or unknown, vested or contingent, suspect or unsuspected (collectively "Claims") which any Releasor now owns or holds or may at any time have owned or held, including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state and local laws, rules and ordinances, claims for contribution, indemnity and/or subrogation and claims arising out of, or related to this Agreement and all other agreements between any Releasor and any Releasee, the sale of franchises to any Releasor by any Releasee, the operation of the Franchised Business, any other franchised Qdoba restaurants and any other restaurant franchised by any Releasee, and each Releasee's performance of its obligations under this Agreement or any other agreement.

Developer (on behalf of itself and the Releasors) agrees that fair consideration has been given by Company for this release and fully understands that this is a negotiated, complete and final release of all of Releasors' claims. Developer (on behalf of itself and the Releasors) expressly agrees that, with respect to this release, any and all rights granted under Section 1542 of the California Civil Code are expressly waived to the extent applicable. That Section reads as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly signed, sealed and delivered this Agreement on the day and year first above written.

DEVELOPER: EntityName

Date of Development Agreement: _____, 20__

In consideration of, and as an inducement to, the execution of the above-mentioned Qdoba Development Agreement (the "Agreement") by Qdoba Restaurant Corporation ("Company"), each of the undersigned and any other parties who sign counterparts of this guaranty (referred to herein individually as a "Guarantor" and collectively as "Guarantors") hereby personally and unconditionally: (a) guarantees to Company, and its successors and assigns, for the term of the Agreement and thereafter as provided in the Agreement, that Developer shall punctually pay and perform each and every undertaking, agreement and covenant set forth in the Agreement; and (b) agrees to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, each and every provision in the Agreement, both monetary obligations and other obligations, including without limitation, the obligation to pay costs and legal fees as provided in the Agreement and the obligation to take or refrain from taking specific actions or to engage or refrain from engaging in specific activities, including without limitation the provisions of the Agreement relating to competitive activities.

Each Guarantor waives:

1. acceptance and notice of acceptance by Company of the foregoing undertakings; and
2. notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; and
3. protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations hereby guaranteed; and
4. any right he may have to require that an action be brought against Developer or any other person as a condition of liability; and
5. all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which he may have against Developer arising as a result of his execution of and performance under this guaranty by the undersigned (including by way of counterparts); and

Each Guarantor consents and agrees that:

(A) his direct and immediate liability under this guaranty shall be joint and several not only with Developer, but also among the Guarantors; and

(B) he shall render any payment or performance required under the Agreement upon demand if Developer fails or refuses punctually to do so; and

(C) such liability shall not be contingent or conditioned upon pursuit by Company of any remedies against Developer or any other person; and

(D) such liability shall not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by any subsequent rider or amendment to the Agreement or by any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which Company may from time to time grant to Developer or to any other person, including, without limitation, the acceptance of any partial payment or performance, or the compromise or release of any claims, none of which shall in any way modify or amend this guaranty, which shall be continuing and irrevocable throughout the term of the Agreement and for so long thereafter as there are any monies or obligations owing by Developer to Company under the Agreement. Notwithstanding any assignment for the general benefit of creditors or any bankruptcy or any other act of insolvency by Developer and notwithstanding any rejection, disaffirmance or disclaimer of the Agreement, the Guarantors shall continue to be fully liable hereunder; and

(E) the written acknowledgment of Developer, accepted in writing by Company, or the judgment of any court or arbitration panel of competent jurisdiction establishing the amount due from Developer shall be conclusive and binding on the undersigned as guarantors.

If Company is required to enforce this guaranty in a judicial or arbitration proceeding, and prevails in such proceeding, it shall be entitled to reimbursement of its costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, reasonable accountants', legal, legal assistants', arbitrators' and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses, whether incurred prior to, in preparation for or in contemplated of the filing of any such proceeding.

This Guaranty shall be governed by the same laws which govern the Agreement.

EXHIBIT C

CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT (For Shareholders, Partners, Members)

This Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into this ____ day of _____, 20____, between Qdoba Restaurant Corporation ("Company") and Owner ("Owner") (collectively, "Parties").

Recitals

Company has entered into a Development Agreement and/or Franchise Agreement with EntityName ("Developer") relating to the development and operation of one or more Qdoba Mexican Eats™ restaurants under an operating system created and maintained by the Company (the "System"). Owner is an officer, director, or holder of a beneficial interest of Developer, and/or of any corporation directly or indirectly controlling Developer. Due to his/her financial interest or other involvement in Developer, Owner may have access to information regarding the development and operation of the Qdoba business (including, but not limited to Company's Operating Manual) that is considered by the Parties to be confidential and/or trade secret. Company is willing to provide access to such information under the terms of this Agreement.

Accordingly, Owner agrees as follows:

1. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

1.1. Owner understands and acknowledges that Company has invested, and continues to invest, considerable sums of money in developing the System. Because of the competitive nature of the restaurant business, and to protect the legitimate interest of Company and other franchisees, it is necessary to protect certain information about the System as confidential.

1.2. For purposes of this provision, "Confidential Information" includes product recipes and tests, ingredients used in Company's products, product preparation procedures, customer service measures and techniques, franchise support procedures, supplier relationship and distribution system information, new product development information, the Manual (as defined in Section 2 below), growth plans or strategies, real estate development plans or strategies, restaurant design plans, proposed restaurant sites, equipment, computer systems, business and development plans and strategies, training programs, consumer research results, marketing and advertising strategies and materials, and all other information designated by Company as confidential.

1.3. Confidential Information does not include: (a) information, concepts, methods, procedures or techniques that are, or become, generally known in the quick-service and quick-casual restaurant industries in the United States, other than through disclosure by Developer or Owner, whether deliberate or inadvertent; (b) the disclosure of Confidential

Information in judicial or administrative proceedings to the extent that Developer or Owner is legally compelled to disclose such information, provided that Developer and/or Owner has afforded Company with the opportunity to obtain an appropriate protect order or other assurance that the information will be treated as confidential; or (c) information that Developer or Owner can demonstrate came to its attention prior to disclosure thereof by Company.

1.4. Developer will be provided with Confidential Information in connection with its development and/or operation of the Franchised Business. Owner agrees that both during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Developer and Owner: (a) will use the Confidential Information only in the operation of the Franchised Business, and not in connection with any other business; (b) will not make copies of, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce any Confidential Information without the express written consent of Company; (c) will not communicate, divulge or disclose the Confidential Information to any person or entity who does not need access to it to operate the Franchised Business; (d) will not use or duplicate Confidential Information for any other restaurant business; or (e) will not use the Confidential Information, or allow it to be used, for the benefit of any third party.

1.5. Owner acknowledges and agrees that all Confidential Information is, and will remain, the sole and exclusive proprietary property of Company.

1.6. Owner understands and acknowledges that any failure to comply with the requirements of this section will result in substantial injury and damage to Company for which there is no adequate remedy at law. For these reasons, if Owner violates or threatens to violate any term of this provision, the Company will be entitled to, in addition to any other remedies and damages available, injunctive or other equitable relief, to restrain the violation of this provision by Owner. Owner agrees to pay all court costs and reasonable legal fees incurred by Company in obtaining specific performance of, or an injunction against violation of, the requirements of this section, in addition to any other claims to which Company may be entitled.

2. CONFIDENTIAL OPERATING MANUAL

2.1. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of Company and to maintain high standards of operation under Company's proprietary marks, Developer must conduct its business in accordance with the confidential manual, which may consist of more than one volume ("Manual"). Developer will receive access to the Manual from Company for the term of any Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement between Company and Developer.

2.2. Owner must at all times treat the Manual, any other manuals created for, or approved for use in, the development or operation of the franchised business, and the information contained therein, as secret and confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information as secret and confidential, as specified in Section 1 above, including but not limited to keeping access to the Manual secure at all times.

2.3. The Manual will at all times remain the sole property of Company.

2.4. Owner understands and acknowledges that Company may, in its sole discretion, modify or replace the Manual or its contents. If there is any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by Company at Company's home office will be controlling.

3. COVENANTS AND RESTRICTIONS ON OTHER BUSINESS INTERESTS

3.1. Developer must devote best efforts to the development, management and operation of the Franchised Business.

3.2. Owner acknowledges that Developer and Owner will receive valuable specialized training and/or confidential information, including without limitation, information regarding the development, operational, sales, promotional and marketing methods and techniques of Company and the System. During the term of any Development Agreement or any Franchise Agreement between Company and Franchisee, except as otherwise approved in writing by Company, Owner may not, either directly or indirectly, for him/herself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation:

3.2.1. Divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of the franchised business to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with Company's proprietary marks and the System.

3.3. During the term of any Development Agreement or any Franchise Agreement between Company and Franchisee, Owner may not either directly or indirectly, for him/herself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any food service business that serves primarily Mexican food or for which burritos and/or tacos comprise more than twenty percent (20%) of the menu, and/or represent more than twenty (20%) of the sales ("Competitive Business").

3.4. For a continuous period of two years after the expiration or termination of all Development Agreements and Franchise Agreements between Company and Franchisee, regardless of the cause for the termination, Owner may not either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any interest in any Competitive Business that is, or is intended to be, located i) at the Accepted Location as described in Exhibit A to the Franchise Agreement ("Accepted Location"), ii) within five (5) miles of the Accepted Location; or iii) within five (5) miles of any Qdoba restaurant existing at the time of the termination or expiration.

3.5. Sections 3.3 and 3.4 above do not apply to ownership by Owner of less than one percent (1%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any publicly held corporation.

3.6. The parties agree that each of the foregoing non-competition covenants are independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Section 3 is found unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, Owner expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Section 3.

3.7. Company has the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or any portion thereof, without Owner's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Owner of written notice thereof. Owner agrees that it will comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified, and that the covenant will be fully enforceable, notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection 3.4 of this Agreement.

3.8. Owner expressly agrees that the existence of any claims he/she may have against Company, whether or not arising from this Agreement, will not constitute a defense to Company's enforcement of the covenants in this Section 3. Owner agrees to pay all costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) incurred by Company in connection with the enforcement of this Section 3.

3.9. Owner acknowledges and agrees that his/her violation of the terms of this Section 3 would result in irreparable injury to Company for which no adequate remedy at law may be available. Owner acknowledges and agrees that Company may obtain an injunction prohibiting any conduct by Owner in violation of the terms of this Section 3.

4. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

4.1. No Waivers. No delay, omission or forbearance on the part of Company to exercise any right, option, duty or power constitutes a waiver by Company to enforce any such right, option, duty or power against Owner; nor does any such delay, omission, or forbearance constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default by Owner.

4.2. Notices. Any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement must be made in writing, and must be personally delivered or mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by national overnight carrier, to the respective parties at the following addresses unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party:

Any notice delivered by overnight carrier will be deemed to have been delivered on the first business day after being deposited with the carrier.

4.3. Modification. No amendment, change or variance from this Agreement will be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and signed by their authorized officers or agents in writing.

4.4. Severability and Construction. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, each portion, section, part, term and/or provision of this Agreement is severable. If for any reason a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, determines any section, part, term and/or provision of this Agreement is invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation, that decision will not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions, sections, parts, terms and/or provisions of this Agreement that remain intelligible. The latter will continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties, and the invalid portions, sections, parts, terms and/or provisions will be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

This Agreement shall be governed by the same laws which govern the Development Agreement signed between Company and Developer.

This Agreement may be signed in one or more counterparts, all of which when taken together constitute one original document.

Each provision of these Addenda to the Disclosure Document and Amendments to the Franchise, License and Development Agreements is effective only to the extent (with respect to each provision) that that state franchise law would apply to your franchise or development rights, without reference to the Addenda or Amendments and to the extent that they are then valid requirements of the applicable statute.

We reserve the right to challenge the applicability of any law that declares provisions in the Franchise Agreement, License Agreement, Development Agreement or any other agreement void or unenforceable.

CALIFORNIA DISCLOSURE ADDENDUM

In recognition of the requirements of the California Franchise Investment Law, Cal. Corp. Code §§ 31000-31516, and the California Franchise Relations Act, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 20000-20043, the QDOBA DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT for use in the State of California is amended to include the following:

3. SECTION 31125 OF THE CALIFORNIA CORPORATIONS CODE REQUIRES US TO GIVE YOU A DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, IN A FORM CONTAINING THE INFORMATION THAT THE COMMISSIONER MAY BY RULE OR ORDER REQUIRE, BEFORE A SOLICITATION OF A PROPOSED MATERIAL MODIFICATION OF AN EXISTING FRANCHISE.

4. YOU MUST SIGN A GENERAL RELEASE IF YOU SIGN A FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT, RENEW OR TRANSFER YOUR FRANCHISE. CALIFORNIA CORPORATIONS CODE § 31512 VOIDS A WAIVER OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW (CALIFORNIA CORPORATIONS CODE §§ 31000 THROUGH 31516). BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE § 20010 VOIDS A WAIVER OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FRANCHISE RELATIONS ACT (BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE §§ 20000 THROUGH 20043).

5. In Item 3, "Litigation" is amended by adding the following paragraphs:

Pursuant to California law, this Item does not include any information regarding the arrest of any person(s) that did not result in a conviction or plea of nolo contendere.

Neither we, nor any person identified in Item 2 above, is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange (as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. § 78a, et seq.) suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange.

6. The following paragraph is added at the end of Item 5:

Based upon the financial condition of our parent, the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation, (the "Department"), the Department has required that we defer the payment of: (1) the Development Fee until the first Restaurant required to be developed under the Development Agreement opens for business; and (2) the pre-opening fees for each Restaurant until the relevant Restaurant opens for business. Upon the opening of the first Restaurant that you develop under the Development Agreement, you must pay to us the Development Fee. Upon the opening of each Restaurant, you must pay to us the pre-opening fees for that Restaurant.

7. Item 10, "Financing" is amended by adding the following to the second paragraph:

The highest interest rate permitted by law in California is 10% annually.

8. Item 17, "Renewal, Termination, Transfer and Dispute Resolution," is amended by adding the following paragraph(s) to the end of the Item:

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement provide for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.).

The Franchise Agreement, License Agreement and Development Agreement contain a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

9. The following is added to Item 19, Financial Performance Representations:

The Historic Average Net Restaurant Sales for Franchised Qdoba Restaurants do not reflect the costs of sales, operating expenses or other costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your franchised Qdoba Restaurant. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in the offering circular, may be one source of this information.

10. To the extent this Addendum is deemed to be inconsistent with the Disclosure Document, the terms of this Addendum shall govern.

MICHIGAN DISCLOSURE ADDENDUM

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

(A) A PROHIBITION ON THE RIGHT OF A FRANCHISEE TO JOIN AN ASSOCIATION OF FRANCHISEES.

(B) A REQUIREMENT THAT A FRANCHISEE ASSENT TO A RELEASE, ASSIGNMENT, NOVATION, WAIVER, OR ESTOPPEL WHICH DEPRIVES A FRANCHISEE OF RIGHTS AND PROTECTIONS PROVIDED IN THIS ACT. THIS SHALL NOT PRECLUDE A FRANCHISEE, AFTER ENTERING INTO A FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, FROM SETTLING ANY AND ALL CLAIMS.

(C) A PROVISION THAT PERMITS A FRANCHISOR TO TERMINATE A FRANCHISE PRIOR TO THE EXPIRATION OF ITS TERM EXCEPT FOR GOOD CAUSE. GOOD CAUSE SHALL INCLUDE THE FAILURE OF THE FRANCHISEE TO COMPLY WITH ANY LAWFUL PROVISIONS OF THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AND TO CURE SUCH FAILURE AFTER BEING GIVEN WRITTEN NOTICE THEREOF AND A REASONABLE OPPORTUNITY, WHICH IN NO EVENT NEED BE MORE THAN 30 DAYS, TO CURE SUCH FAILURE.

(D) A PROVISION THAT PERMITS A FRANCHISOR TO REFUSE TO RENEW A FRANCHISE WITHOUT FAIRLY COMPENSATING THE FRANCHISEE BY REPURCHASE OR OTHER MEANS FOR THE FAIR MARKET VALUE, AT THE TIME OF EXPIRATION, OF THE FRANCHISEE'S INVENTORY, SUPPLIES, EQUIPMENT, FIXTURES, AND FURNISHINGS. PERSONALIZED MATERIALS WHICH HAVE NO VALUE TO THE FRANCHISOR AND INVENTORY, SUPPLIES, EQUIPMENT, FIXTURES, AND FURNISHINGS NOT REASONABLY REQUIRED IN THE CONDUCT OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS ARE NOT SUBJECT TO COMPENSATION. THIS SUBSECTION APPLIES ONLY IF: (i) THE TERM OF THE FRANCHISE IS LESS THAN 5 YEARS; AND (ii) THE FRANCHISEE IS PROHIBITED BY THE FRANCHISE OR OTHER AGREEMENT FROM CONTINUING TO CONDUCT SUBSTANTIALLY THE SAME BUSINESS UNDER ANOTHER TRADEMARK, SERVICE MARK, TRADE NAME, LOGOTYPE, ADVERTISING, OR OTHER COMMERCIAL SYMBOL IN THE SAME AREA SUBSEQUENT TO THE EXPIRATION OF THE FRANCHISE OR THE FRANCHISEE DOES NOT RECEIVE AT LEAST 6 MONTHS ADVANCE NOTICE OF FRANCHISOR'S INTENT NOT TO RENEW THE FRANCHISE.

(E) A PROVISION THAT PERMITS THE FRANCHISOR TO REFUSE TO RENEW A FRANCHISE ON TERMS GENERALLY AVAILABLE TO OTHER FRANCHISEES OF THE SAME CLASS OR TYPE UNDER SIMILAR CIRCUMSTANCES. THIS SECTION DOES NOT REQUIRE A RENEWAL PROVISION.

(F) A PROVISION REQUIRING THAT ARBITRATION OR LITIGATION BE CONDUCTED OUTSIDE THIS STATE. THIS SHALL NOT PRECLUDE THE FRANCHISEE FROM ENTERING INTO AN AGREEMENT, AT THE TIME OF ARBITRATION, TO CONDUCT ARBITRATION AT A LOCATION OUTSIDE THIS STATE.

(G) A PROVISION WHICH PERMITS A FRANCHISOR TO REFUSE TO PERMIT A TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP OF A FRANCHISE, EXCEPT FOR GOOD CAUSE. THIS SUBDIVISION DOES NOT PREVENT A FRANCHISOR FROM EXERCISING A RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL TO PURCHASE THE FRANCHISE. GOOD CAUSE SHALL INCLUDE, BUT IS NOT LIMITED TO:

(i) THE FAILURE OF THE PROPOSED FRANCHISEE TO MEET THE FRANCHISOR'S THEN CURRENT REASONABLE QUALIFICATIONS OR STANDARDS.

(ii) THE FACT THAT THE PROPOSED TRANSFEREE IS A COMPETITOR OF THE FRANCHISOR OR SUBFRANCHISOR.

(iii) THE UNWILLINGNESS OF THE PROPOSED TRANSFEREE TO AGREE IN WRITING TO COMPLY WITH ALL LAWFUL OBLIGATIONS.

(iv) THE FAILURE OF THE FRANCHISEE OR PROPOSED TRANSFEREE TO PAY ANY SUMS OWING TO THE FRANCHISOR OR TO CURE ANY DEFAULT IN THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT EXISTING AT THE TIME OF THE PROPOSED TRANSFER.

(H) A PROVISION THAT REQUIRES THE FRANCHISEE TO RESELL TO THE FRANCHISOR ITEMS THAT ARE NOT UNIQUELY IDENTIFIED WITH THE FRANCHISOR. THIS SUBDIVISION DOES NOT PROHIBIT A PROVISION THAT GRANTS TO A FRANCHISOR A RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL TO PURCHASE THE ASSETS OF A FRANCHISE ON THE SAME TERMS AND CONDITIONS AS A BONA FIDE THIRD PARTY WILLING AND ABLE TO PURCHASE THOSE ASSETS, NOR DOES THIS SUBDIVISION PROHIBIT A PROVISION THAT GRANTS THE FRANCHISOR THE RIGHT TO ACQUIRE THE ASSETS OF A FRANCHISE FOR THE MARKET OR APPRAISED VALUE OF SUCH ASSETS IF THE FRANCHISEE HAS BREACHED THE LAWFUL PROVISIONS OF THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AND HAS FAILED TO CURE THE BREACH IN THE MANNER PROVIDED IN SUBDIVISION (C).

(I) A PROVISION WHICH PERMITS THE FRANCHISOR TO DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY CONVEY, ASSIGN, OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER ITS OBLIGATIONS TO FULFILL CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS TO THE FRANCHISEE UNLESS PROVISION HAS BEEN MADE FOR PROVIDING THE REQUIRED CONTRACTUAL SERVICES.

* * * *

* * * *

IF THE FRANCHISOR'S MOST RECENT FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ARE UNAUDITED AND SHOW A NET WORTH OF LESS THAN $100,000.00, THE FRANCHISOR MUST, AT THE REQUEST OF THE FRANCHISEE, ARRANGE FOR THE ESCROW OF INITIAL INVESTMENT AND OTHER FUNDS PAID BY THE FRANCHISEE UNTIL THE OBLIGATIONS TO PROVIDE REAL ESTATE, IMPROVEMENTS, EQUIPMENT, INVENTORY, TRAINING, OR OTHER ITEMS INCLUDED IN THE FRANCHISE OFFERING ARE FULFILLED. AT THE OPTION OF THE FRANCHISOR, A SURETY BOND MAY BE PROVIDED IN PLACE OF ESCROW.

WASHINGTON DISCLOSURE ADDENDUM

In recognition of the requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Wash. Rev. Code ("RCW") §§ 19.100, the QDOBA DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT for use in the State of Washington is amended as follows:

1. The following paragraph is added at the end of Item 5:

In lieu of an impound of franchise fees, the Franchisor will not require or accept the payment of any initial franchise fees until the franchisee has (a) received all pre-opening and initial training obligations that it is entitled to under the franchise agreement or offering circular, and (b) is open for business.

2. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
3. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.
4. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
5. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

8. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
9. The undersigned does hereby acknowledge receipt of this addendum.
10. To the extent this Addendum is deemed to be inconsistent with the Disclosure Document, the terms of this Addendum shall govern.

WASHINGTON FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AMENDMENT

In recognition of the requirements of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Wash. Rev. Code ("RCW") §§ 19.100.010 through 19.100.940, the parties to the attached QDOBA FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") agree as follows:

1. The following is added to the end of Section 3.1 of the Franchise Agreement:

In lieu of an impound of franchise fees, the Company will not require or accept the payment of any initial franchise fees until the Franchisee has (a) received all pre-opening and initial training obligations that it is entitled to under this Agreement and (b) is open for business.

2. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
3. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.
4. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
5. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

8. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
9. The undersigned does hereby acknowledge receipt of this addendum.
10. To the extent this Amendment shall be deemed to be inconsistent with any terms or conditions of the Agreement, the terms of this Amendment shall govern.

- e. Franchisee authorizes QRC to facilitate on its behalf, any repair, replacement of hardware, or services not covered under a specific third party-service contract. All charges relating to such repair, replacement or service will be paid by the Franchisee. Third-party charges are due at the time QRC is billed for the services, and QRC will automatically deduct those amounts from the Franchisee's authorized account.
- f. Support Services may be provided by QRC and/or its authorized agents.
- g. No Support Services will be provided by QRC unless Franchisee is current on all charges incurred under this Agreement and charges to third-party vendors.

- a. Franchisee has sole responsibility to determine any and all local, state and federal laws and requirements, including but not limited to labor laws, FACTA, overtime, and taxes, and shall have the sole responsibility to determine and maintain proper settings in compliance with all relevant laws. Qdoba may provide labor law configuration under this Agreement, but is not responsible for the accuracy of such configuration, and Franchisee is solely responsible for compliance with all labor laws, including but not limited to regular and overtime pay calculations, exempt status, meal and rest breaks, and age restrictions.

- a. QRC is not responsible for any loss of sales or receipts due to software or equipment malfunction.
- b. The methods or practices related to data transmission, storage and security employed by QRC may not meet all applicable requirements related to personal identity laws and regulations. Any data hosted by QRC is only intended to facilitate services under this Agreement, and is not suitable for any third-party or government audit. Franchisee is responsible for maintaining its own data storage and other records. Any data hosted by QRC may be deleted at any time in QRC's sole discretion. - c. Monthly periodic and third-party charges may change from time to time. Franchisee will be provided 30 days' notice by email of any changes to these charges.

Additionally, QRC may terminate this Agreement immediately, upon notice to Franchisee, if Franchisee is in material default of any terms of this Agreement.

11. Indemnity and Limitation of Liability

Franchisee hereby agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold QRC harmless from and against any and all third- party claims and liabilities arising out of or related to the configuration, settings, maintenance, or operation of the Technology System, including but not limited to claims arising under local, state and federal labor laws or any other similar laws. Franchisee waives any and all claims against QRC for any and all actions or inaction under this Agreement, and Franchisee acknowledges that QRC shall have no liability to Franchisee, whether in tort, contract or otherwise, arising out of or related to this Agreement. These provisions supplement rather than replace the indemnification and limitation of liability provision in any franchise agreement or other contract between the parties.

12. Other Terms and Conditions

- a. This Agreement is the complete and final agreement between the parties with respect to the Technology Services data hosting and support services provided by QRC , and this Agreement supersedes all other communications, representations, or proposals on that subject except any Franchise Agreement, Non-Traditional Franchise Agreement or License Agreement the parties have signed or will sign.
- b. This Agreement may not be changed, altered or modified except by an instrument in writing executed by Franchisee and an authorized officer of QRC.
- c. Any knowledge or information disclosed by Franchisee to QRC or its authorized representative in connection with this Agreement shall not be deemed to be confidential or proprietary.
