						Subway has recently changed its business model and will no longer require a franchisee to lease the real estate back to the franchisor. Franchisees are now permitted to sign leases directly with the landlord. However, if you have an existing franchise location where the franchisor has required the owner of the real estate to lease the premises to the Franchisor, who has then leased the premises back to the franchisee (individual[s] or entity), approval for SBA loans will only be considered for Approved Applicants which include individual(s) named as franchisee, an operating entity controlled by individual(s) named as franchisee, or an entity named as franchisee
